

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|                                                                     |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. Foreword                                                         | 15 |
| 2. My Witness                                                       | 17 |
| 3. A Mystery?                                                       | 21 |
| 4. The Present Church Age                                           | 25 |
| • Present State of the Church                                       |    |
| • Institutional Problems Affecting the Church's Present State       |    |
| • Doctrinal problems Affecting the Church's Present State           |    |
| • How Did We Drift So Far from the Early Church?                    |    |
| • What Is the Solution?                                             |    |
| 5. A Road Map for Our Journey                                       | 33 |
| 6. The First Adam's World: The Egypt Experience                     | 37 |
| • Starting Our Quest for Understanding                              |    |
| • Preparation for Redemption                                        |    |
| • First Revelation of God's Plan                                    |    |
| • The March to Redemption                                           |    |
| • The Impassable Gulf Between Life and Death                        |    |
| • The Miracle of Redemption                                         |    |
| • A Revelation of Immense Magnitude                                 |    |
| • Where Do We Go from Here?                                         |    |
| 7. The Second Adam's World: The Wilderness Experience, A Faith Walk | 49 |
| • The King's Highway                                                |    |
| • The Faith Walk                                                    |    |
| • The First Three Miracles                                          |    |
| • The Fourth Miracle                                                |    |
| • The Fifth Miracle                                                 |    |
| • The Sixth Miracle                                                 |    |
| • The Seventh Miracle                                               |    |
| • The Eighth Miracle                                                |    |
| • The Ninth Miracle                                                 |    |
| • The Tenth Miracle                                                 |    |
| • Ten Wasted Lessons                                                |    |
| • Leaving Sinai                                                     |    |
| • Decision Time                                                     |    |
| • Israel Refuses to Possess God's Promise                           |    |
| • This Part of Our Journey Comes to a Close                         |    |
| 8. The Second Adam's World: The Wilderness Experience, A Flesh Walk | 63 |
| • Disobedience Has Consequences                                     |    |
| • God's Castaways                                                   |    |
| • A Sin Unto Death                                                  |    |

- Understanding God and His Requirements
  - Entering A Paradigm Shift
  - Paradigms and Today's Church
  - Leaving the Wilderness Flesh Walk
9. The Christian's Wilderness Experience 71
- Wilderness Christians
  - Perils in the Christian's Wilderness Walk
  - A Greater Judgement
  - Continuing Our Journey of Discovery
10. The Second Adam's World: Crossing Jordan 77
- Crossing Jordan
  - Treasured Pieces of the Puzzle
  - Treasures Buried in the Jordan
  - A Change of Leadership
  - The Lord's Army
  - God's Protection of Israel
  - I Am Crucified with Christ
  - Moving to Life in Canaan
11. The Second Adam's World: The Canaan Experience, His Rest 91
- Three Rests for God's Redeemed
  - Be Prepared, Persecution Lurks for Those Who Serve the Lord
  - Why Suffer Persecution?
  - It Is More Than Prayer and Crowns
  - Israel's Canaan Experience
  - Are Many Christian's Abiding in God's Rest?
  - A Warning to Christians Abiding in Christ (His Rest)
  - Final Thoughts Before Moving to Our Next Parallel Journey
  - Completing Our Journey of Discovery Through Faith
12. A Parallel Experience: The Tabernacle, a Shadow of Redemption through the LAW 99
- A Treasure from the Mount
  - God's Plan to Return to Fellowship with Man
  - The Tabernacle Camp
  - The Courtyard Enclosure
  - Symbolism of the Tabernacle Encampment
  - Veiled Purpose of the Tabernacle Camp Layout
  - The Eastern Gate
  - The Brazen Altar
  - The Courtyard
  - The Laver
  - The Sanctuary
  - The Foundation of Blood
  - The Walls
  - The Roof Paradox

- The Tabernacle (an Inner) Curtain
  - The Tent (an inner) Curtain
  - The Outer Layers
  - Entering the Sanctuary
  - The Seven Branched Candlestick
  - The Table of Shewbread
  - The Altar of Incense
  - The Most Holy Place (Holy of Holies)
  - Inside the Holy of Holies
  - The Day of Atonement (Yom Kipper)
  - The Sin Offering
  - The Burnt Offering
  - Completing an Incomplete Puzzle
13. Church Doctrines and the Tabernacle 135
- Making Sense of All This
  - Fellowship Among the Brethren
  - The Prayer Paradox
  - The Power of Acceptable Prayer
  - Collaboration
  - A Role Model for Acceptable Prayer
  - My Experience
  - Signs of the Times
  - Revival
  - Continuing Our Journey of Discovery
14. A Parallel Experience: Redemption through Christ , the High Priest 151
- Who Are the Three Witnesses?
  - Preparation for the Priesthood
  - The Priest King
  - A Different Path
  - Ordination to A Priestly Office
  - Why John the Baptist?
  - Jesus' Baptism and the Church
  - The Rituals of Redemption
  - The Passover
  - Timing Is Critical for Understanding the Events of Passover
  - Four Days of Testing for the Lambs
  - Time to Move the Lambs
  - The Titulus
  - God's Lamb Arrives
  - The Last Supper Paradox
  - Lambs Prepared for Slaughter
  - The Road to Golgotha
  - A Roman Crucifixion

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Fulfilling the Law as the High Priest</li> <li>• The Burnt Offerings</li> <li>• A Burnt Offering for the High Priest and His Family</li> <li>• Back to the Day of Preparation</li> <li>• A Burnt Offering for the People</li> <li>• A Sin Offering for the High Priest and His Family</li> <li>• A Sin Offering for the People</li> <li>• Cleansing the Altar</li> <li>• Christ Our Scapegoat</li> <li>• Chaos</li> <li>• The Placement of the Titulus</li> <li>• The Power of the Titulus</li> <li>• A Pause for Clarification (What Day Did Jesus Die?)</li> <li>• Returning to the Sin Offering</li> <li>• The Nail Scared Hands</li> <li>• From Talking to Mary to Visiting the Disciples</li> <li>• Our Journey Is Finished and the Puzzle Completed</li> </ul> |     |
| 15. Epilogue to an Amazing Journey of Discovery                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 195 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Obstacles, Obstacles</li> <li>• The Making of Miracles</li> <li>• God Sends Holy Messengers</li> <li>• The Female Angelic Visitor</li> <li>• A Renewed Faith and Return to God's Assigned Task</li> <li>• Another Rescue and Another Warning from God</li> <li>• If God Will Not Let Satan Kill Me, Satan Will Find Other Ways to Hinder Me</li> <li>• Satan Never Sleeps</li> <li>• The Spirit of Elijah</li> <li>• Now I Understand</li> <li>• Where Do You Stand with God?</li> <li>• Fulfillment of My Testimony</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |     |
| 16. Bibliography                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 203 |
| 17. Copyright Usage Status of Images Used in This Manuscript                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 215 |