Greenwood Hills Cemetery Maintenance Association is a volunteer organization dedicated to maintaining the grounds of Greenwood Hills Cemetery in a manner that respects the dead, honors the living, and preserves a valuable connection with our rich pioneer history. Through responsible stewardship of resources, we strive to maintain a safe and beautiful open space where people can come to remember the past and enjoy the natural world which we hold in sacred trust for the future.

You may have noticed the Raz Family obelisk and the number of family members buried in Greenwood Hills. The Raz Family was a prominent dairy farming family in Southwest Portland. Melchior Raz emigrated to Portland from Innerkirichen, Switzerland in 1885 and his brothers John and Henry soon followed. By March 1889 the family had accumulated enough money to open their own dairy (Raz Bros. Dairy) on leased land south of Vermont and east of what is now SW Bertha Blvd. (formerly a railway line) >

Raz Bros. Dairy, Hillsdale, Oregon 1890 looking west from what today is at about 12th Ave. and Vermont.
