ROLE OF THE CLASSROOM TEACHER AT THREE OAKS OUTDOOR SCIENCE SCHOOL

Often, outdoor science programs require the classroom teachers to facilitate much of the schedule and teaching on their own. At Three Oaks OSS, our staff of trained professionals work hard to facilitate the entire program. Although the expected teaching requirements of classroom teachers are minimal, we ask your help in supporting our program as much as possible. Please be aware of the following responsibilities:

1. Prepare camp forms. Cabin lists with a list of special needs (medical, dietary or special needs) information must be received at least two weeks prior to arrival:

Medication Authorization AND Parent Consent forms; make sure they are current!

Cabin lists (Please do not make changes the final week before your arrival)

Special medical needs/diet/birthday lists

Please make sure that all forms are filled out completely, and clearly mark the correct dietary, health or special need code next to the student's name on the cabin list. The appropriate codes are as follows:

AL	Allergies requiring special attention	BW	Bed wetter
FAL	Food allergy (NOT DISLIKES!)	SW	Sleepwalker
BS	Bee sting allergy	NT	Night terrors
HA	Headaches	ESL	English as second language
AS	Asthma	SPE	Special Education
RX	Prescription medication must be taken at camp	BD	Birthday
CHF	Check health form for special circumstances	ASD	Autism Spectrum Disorder

2. Meet with Director upon arrival to review camp rules, program and to review the cabin lists. This is the perfect time to share behavioral issues the staff should be aware of. (Please reach out to us with any extreme situation or needs prior to arrival.)
3. Support outdoor education staff with discipline situations or supervision.
Your support of our 3 strike discipline policy is essential for a successful camp experience.
4. Teacher time takes place on Tuesday and Thursdays of the program. During this time, the teachers are responsible for the supervision of the students from their school. This allows the Outdoor Education staff to be involved in training and lesson preparation. Your students will meet at an assigned location. A teacher planned activity or journal work can be done at this time, Teachers MUST BRING all materials needed for their planned activity. Teacher time on Wednesday is just supervising your students during the Wildlife presentation.
5. At least one school representative must be on camp property at all times. When you leave the property, please inform the Director. Teachers and TOOSS leadership need to be available 24 hours a day to communicate in the case of an emergency situation.
6. Teachers are expected to participate in mealtimes in our dining room and encouraged to sit at student tables; it means the world to students! Meal times are 8:00am – 12:30pm – 5:30pm respectively.
7. Alcohol and/or smoking (which includes vaping) are not allowed on camp property.

ROLE OF AIDES, NURSES AND PARENT VOLUNTEERS

1. Any aide, nurse or parent volunteer coming to assist with a child at camp, MUST be approved by your school's principal.
2. Please make Paige aware of the extra adults attending with their names, and if they need housing separate from Teachers. Any extra adult attending will be charged the same as the teacher fee.
3. It is the school's choice to limit or open what activities any parent volunteer may assist with. A big part of the camp experience is the child's growth in independence, making their own choices, and gaining confidence and pride in who are they becoming as an individual.
4. IF the chosen volunteer cannot agree and adhere to the rules of camp and the needs of the school, they should not be chosen to attend. It is important that any helpers know the realities and needs of helping a student through a week of camp. It is not always easy, but it is vital to that student having a successful experience.

Discipline at camp: the STRIKE SYSTEM

At camp it is imperative to every student's success that they understand during their week they will earn recognition for good behavior, and for poor behavior. We tell the students from day 1 that they are in charge, they have the independence and freedom to make their own choices. However, with independence and freedom come responsibility and accountability. They will be responsible for all their choices, and we will also hold them accountable. The great thing about our Strike system is it guarantees a student knows when they do wrong, but also allows them to grow from it. Here is how it will work:

STRIKE 1: This is the final warning before it gets serious, the proverbial slap on the wrist. We will discuss what we did wrong, how we could be better and what we could consider doing next time. If all goes well the rest of the week, then strike one does not have to be a big deal.

STRIKE 2: Upon a second poor decision, not only will we have the same conversation as strike one, but in addition we call home. We share with the family how strike 1 and 2 were earned, then put the student on the phone with their family member in hopes they can inspire their child with words to make better choices the rest of their stay.

STRIKE 3: Go Home! It is not the preferred conclusion to the week at camp, but sometime it is earned and necessary. It is unfortunate but ultimately, we hope this too can even be a learning lesson.

IMPORTANT FOR ALL TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATORS***

When a student earns a third strike, the family is expected to pick up the child in a timely manner – without argument. It is important when checking your forms over, parent signature on the Camp Consent form shows they agree to pick up their child in the case of a medical or behavioral situation. When a parent fails to do so, or refuses to pick up their child, the responsibility for the child's removal falls to the school per your signed contract. Please make sure your parents are aware of this very important responsibility; and there are NO REFUNDS for discipline issues. We all hope this situation never arises, but we need to be prepared for when it does. The next page reviews poor choices and possible consequences. The Director goes over this list with every student on day one after lunch.

THE BEAD SYSTEM FOR POSITIVE REINFORCEMENT

The purpose of distributing beads is to positively reinforce good behavior through instant recognition. Beads should never be given frivolously! (I.e., you like the way the smile OR for expected behavior like being a good student) Students should always know why they have earned a bead. Staff members need to keep the system consistent. There will be enough beads for students to earn one of each color. Teachers are also encouraged to bring special beads to recognize students, the students consider teacher beads as special recognition.

- ❖ Red (Fire Drill Bead) – Given on the first day after the students have successfully completed the fire drill.
- ❖ Light Blue (Water Bottle Recycling Bead) – Given on Friday before students leave for turning in their empty water bottle for recycling.
- ❖ Glow in the Dark Bead (OORT Bead) – Given to the entire dining hall or school group for meeting or beating the OORT goal for a particular meal.
- ❖ Gold Sparkle Bead (Clean Cabin Award) – Given by the Directors to cabins who had their cabin areas clean all week and various times, and emergency exits not blocked.
- ❖ Heart Shaped (Medic Bead) – Given by the Medic Staff to students
- ❖ Various (Teacher Bead) – Given by the Teachers to their students and sometimes to the staff.
- ❖ Teddy Bear (Director's Bead) – Given by the Directors for various reasons including dining hall inspection, conservation practices and to staff role models.
- ❖ Animal Beads – Given out during Dance Night to those who try hard and have fun.
- ❖ Butterfly Shaped Beads – Beads for special student recognition by Cabin Leaders
- ❖ Flower Shaped Beads – Beads for special student recognition by Naturalists

MEDICATIONS:

All prescriptions must be sent in the original container with the doctor's name, child's name and correct dosage. Prescribed medicine cannot be dispensed without a doctor's signature on the Medication Authorization form. (Kaiser Permanente will not sign camp forms, but will provide a note on their letterhead with the Dr signature which we will accept – along with the parent signed Med Authorization form) Without proper information, it cannot be dispensed. In addition, please put all medicine containers in a plastic zip lock bag, clearly labeled with your child's name, school and any special instructions. Please DO NOT staple any forms; and keep the medication authorization forms and the camp consent forms in separate, alphabetized stacks.

ELEVATION:

Our bodies require more water while involved in activities at higher elevations (we are about 5200 feet). We recommend students drink 4 to 6 bottles of water a day to prevent dehydration. Outdoor living at high altitudes requires special consideration of temperatures. Evening temperatures can be quite low even in the fall and spring. Please help your child have a positive experience by making sure they have all of the items on the clothing list.

Dear Parents, Family Members and Guardians:

Sending your child to camp is very exciting and at the same very nerve wrecking! We are aware of this, and I want to take a moment to let you know that your child will have a very safe and memorable week with our highly trained staff. Your child is going to have the adventure of a lifetime, and will return home to you a changed person – in a good way with a sense of confidence and independence! We already know that we will have a few homesick children, but we know we have homesick parents by the dozens!! Homesickness can prevent your child from a successful experience at Three Oaks OSS, so below are some tips to help you be a stronger support for your child.

- NEVER say “If you feel homesick, I’ll come and get you.” This conveys a message of doubt and pity that undermines children’s confidence and independence. Pick-up deals become mental crutches and self-fulfilling prophecies for children as soon as they arrive at camp.
- Encourage your child’s independence throughout the year. Practice separations, such as sleepovers at a friend’s house, can stimulate the camp environment.
- Discuss what camp will be like before your child leaves. Talk about the exciting adventures and rugged hikes in the mountains, having a fun week with their friends!
- Reach an agreement ahead of time that there are no phones and no calls allowed. Phone calls are not allowed, especially in homesick situations because it almost guarantees that a child will end up leaving camp early. We encourage toughing it out and at the end of a week the pride and confidence a child grows in them is visual and rewarding.
- Send a note or a care package! Remember students may not have snacks, candy or food but this is a great way to remind the child they are both loved and missed – but in a positive way. For example, you can say “I am going to miss you, but I know that you will have a great time at camp.”
- Don’t use bribery. Linking a successful stay at camp to a material object sends the wrong message. The reward should be your child’s new found confidence and independence.
- Pack a personal item from home, such as a stuffed animal, pillow pet or special blanket!
- Don’t feel guilty about encouraging your child to stay the whole week at camp! For many children, camp is a first step toward independence and plays an important role in their growth and development.
- Give your child pre-addressed, stamped envelopes or postcard so that they can keep you informed of camp activities.
- Although there are benefits in keeping youngsters informed of what’s going on at home, do not go into great detail since the young adventurers might feel they’re missing something back home. As camp professionals who have worked with thousands of children, we advise you not to mention how much you miss them or that the dog and cat misses them.
- DON’T WORRY! Your natural reaction is to call and check on how your camper is doing. Remember, the camp staff is trained to recognize and deal with symptoms of homesickness – they are in good hands! No news is GOOD NEWS!

Estimados padres, miembros de familia y tutores legales:

El mandar a su hijo a un campamento es muy emocionante y a la vez desesperante. Estamos al tanto de esto, y quiero tomar este momento para dejarles saber que su hijo tendrá una semana muy memorable y segura con nuestro personal altamente capacitado. Su hijo estará teniendo una aventura única en la vida, y regresará a casa una persona cambiada – ¡de una manera positiva con un sentido de confianza e independencia! Ya sabemos que tendremos a unos niños que sentirán nostalgia, pero vamos a tener docenas de padres nostálgicos. La nostalgia puede prevenirle a su hijo de tener una experiencia exitosa en Three Oaks, así que abajo hay algunos consejos para ayudarles ser un apoyo más fuerte para su hijo.

- NUNCA diga “Si te sientes nostálgico, voy y te recojo”. Esto transmite un mensaje de duda y de lastima que mina la confianza e independencia de su hijo. Los tratos para recoger al hijo llegan a ser una muleta mental y una profecía que tiende a cumplirse por su propia naturaleza para los niños en cuanto llegan al campamento.
- Animen la independencia de su hijo durante todo el año. Practiquen las separaciones, tales como las pijamadas en la casa de un amigo, pueden estimular el entorno del campamento.
- Hablen sobre cómo será el campamento antes de que se vaya su hijo. Hablen sobre las emocionantes aventuras y las caminatas escarpadas en las montañas, y la semana de diversión que tendrá con sus amigos.
- Lleguen a un acuerdo por adelantado que no se permitirá el teléfono ni las llamadas telefónicas. No se permiten llamadas telefónicas, especialmente en situaciones de nostalgia porque casi se garantiza que un niño estará yéndose del campamento anticipadamente. Animamos a aguantárselas y al final de la semana el orgullo y la confianza que desarrolla un niño se pueden ver y son gratificantes.
- Envíen una nota o un paquete de provisiones. Recuerden que los alumnos no pueden tener bocadillos ni dulces pero esto es una gran manera para recordar a su hijo que lo quieren y lo extrañan – pero de una manera positiva. Por ejemplo, ustedes pueden decir “Te voy a extrañar, pero sé que te la pasarás de maravilla en el campamento”.
- No use chantaje. El vincular el quedarse exitosamente en el campamento a un objeto material manda el mensaje incorrecto. El premio debería ser la nueva confianza e independencia que ha encontrado su hijo.
- Empaque un artículo personal de casa, tal como un peluche, pillow pet o cobija especial.
- No se sienta culpable sobre el animar a su hijo a quedarse en el campamento toda la semana. Para muchos niños, el campamento es el primer paso a la independencia y juega un importante papel en su desarrollo y crecimiento.
- Dé a su hijo sobres o postales con su dirección y con franqueo pagado para que los mantenga informados de las actividades del campamento.
- Aunque hay beneficios en mantener a sus pequeños informados sobre lo que está sucediendo en casa, no entre en detalles ya que los jóvenes aventureros quizás piensen que se están perdiendo de algo en casa. Como profesionales del campamento que hemos trabajado con miles de niños, les aconsejamos no mencionar cuánto los extraña o que el perro o el gato los extraña.
- NO SE PREOCUPEN. Su reacción natural es de llamar y revisar cómo está su campista. Recuerde, el personal del campamento está capacitado para reconocer y tratar los síntomas de nostalgia – están en buenas manos.

Buena suerte y recuerde que es solo cuatro o cinco días, su hijo estará en sus brazos de nuevo con muchas aventuras que platicarles. Un poco de animo y apoyo de ustedes traducirán a grandes recompensas para su hijo.

Three Oaks OSS Contagion Policy

Three Oaks' facility operates under the jurisdiction of San Bernardino County. The county's Department of Public Health holds Three Oaks OSS to a high standard of outbreak and contagion prevention. A camp facility in which individuals live in close proximity with one another creates an environment in which contagions of any kind may spread. San Bernardino Department of Public Health lists contagion symptoms as the following, but not limited to: nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, temperature over 100 degrees Fahrenheit, pink eye, lice, and other transmissible conditions.

It is the responsibility of the camp to prevent an outbreak once made aware of the risk. Three Oaks OSS will communicate closely with school leaders, with parents/ guardians, and a specific contagion control process will be followed. Parents and guardians may be asked to remove their children from the facility, and in the process, a guest or staff member's enjoyment/experience may become a lower priority than his or her overall health and safety, similarly the health and well-being of all guests become the priority.

There are no refunds or prorated fees for individuals removed from activities or the camp facility.

Contagion Control Protocol

In case of an outbreak at camp, the following guidelines shall be adhered to according to San Bernardino Department of Public Health

http://www.sbcounty.gov/uploads/dph/dehs/depts/environmentalhealth/newsletters/201206_campnews.pdf 1

1. Campers or staff members displaying any symptoms must be immediately isolated and put under the care of the appointed Health Supervisor or qualified staff.
2. The camp shall contact the San Bernardino Department of Public Health promptly to inform them of an outbreak, and what steps have been taken to contain the outbreak. (Three Oaks OSS reserves the right to determine what constitutes an outbreak and will judiciously contact the Department of Public Health based off of the guidelines from the department.)
3. Medical treatment shall be recorded in a logbook.
4. All pertinent documentation/records relating to campers and/or staff shall be maintained and made available to the San Bernardino Department of Public Health upon request. This includes copies of the medical logbook, contact information for the sick campers and staff, and any other documentation that may be necessary to investigate the outbreak.
5. Meticulous cleaning and sanitizing procedures shall commence in areas where symptoms occurred. Personal protection equipment shall be worn by cleaning staff.
6. If necessary, the camp shall voluntarily close to prevent further progression of the outbreak. The camp may contact the Department of Public Health at (909) 387-4608 with any questions or concerns.

CALIFORNIA HEALTH AND SAFETY CODE

Division 13, Part 2.3, Camps 18897.6.

Regulation of camps by state agencies

Organized camps shall not be subject to regulation by any state agency other than the State Department of Public Health, California regional water quality control boards, the State Water Resources Control Board, and the State Fire Marshal; provided, that this section shall not affect the authority of the Department of Industrial Relations to regulate the wages or hours of employees of organized camps and this section shall not be construed to limit the application of building standards published in the State Building Standards Code to structures in organized camps.

SUPPORTING DIABETIC STUDENTS

Dear Teachers and Parents:

If you have a diabetic student attending camp, the following procedures have been put in place to assure the student has a safe and successful week of adventure at camp. This outline will inform you of what our program requirements are in order to ensure the student's safety while away from their normal routine. Below you will find a list of responsibilities for both teachers and parents that will need to be completed at least two weeks prior to their arrival. We have found great success with this system. Please remember we are here to assist you in any way we can. Please contact us if you have any questions.

Parents can help by:

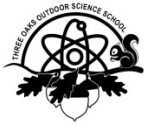

- The student must be able to self-medicate: this includes proficiency in checking their own blood sugar during the day and at night, changing their own insulin pump if necessary, and measuring and administering their own insulin. The camp will supervise this process with the student to assure it the action taken is correct.
- Counting carbohydrates for each meal in the menu. Our medic staff and Directors will assist, but the child should have some knowledge and ability to count carbs.
- Have the doctors' orders in to the school three weeks early. The doctors' orders would include an explanation of insulin, type of insulin, amount to be given, corrections etc. Please share with your doctor that we are at an altitude of almost 5200ft, which have may an affect.
- Providing enough appropriate (e.g., protein-type) snacks to be given between meals and/or at bedtime for one week. Snacks must be peanut and nut free in respect to our many friends in camp who may be allergic. Snacks will be held on to by our staff and given anytime the student requires. This assures we are aware anytime there is a need.
- If your child can monitor their blood sugar and insulin levels but cannot change their own insulin pump, we request that you would schedule a time with us to arrive on site and change the pump.
- Provide a list of "tricks" or "techniques" followed at home that may be helpful at camp.

Please understand that there will be a fluctuation in blood sugar levels in the first 24 hours due to a change in altitude, diet and exercise. This is normal at camp, but once the student's body acclimates, the blood sugar levels usually adjust and fall back into the normal criteria. While at camp, the student will report to our medical staff and check their blood sugar at each meal, before bedtime and anytime the student feels a change in their body. Three Oaks OSS will keep a log of every reading and every treatment, of which we will send two copies back with teachers; one for the school medical records and another for the parent/guardian. Diabetes should NOT prevent any student from attending camp!

*If at any time we are having issues with consistency in maintaining numbers or reaching numbers that make our medical staff uncomfortable, we will call the parent/ guardian directly. Please make sure all parent/guardian information is completely filled out and current on consent forms.

Supporting Students who require Injections

Any student requiring an injection type medicine while at camp must be able to self-inject. Our medical staff will supervise to assure the correct and proper dosage, we will also manage the used needles, trash and store the medication safely and securely. Parents can be a huge help by coaching your child if they are not self-injecting prior to camp. This will help assure they have their most successful week possible.
