

FOR PARENTS OF TEENS & YOUNG ADULTS (14-24)

You haven't lost your child.

You've lost the connection.

And that's something we can restore together.

No pitch. No pressure. Just clarity on what's happening and what's possible.

YOU'RE NOT IMAGINING IT

Something broke. And nothing seems to fix it.

You've tried talking. Giving space. Setting boundaries. Showing up, backing off, being patient and then losing your patience and hating yourself for it. The distance keeps growing. The silence gets louder. And underneath the frustration is a grief you can't quite name. Because this is your child. And you are watching them slip away.

They've gone silent.

One-word answers. Closed doors. A look that says 'you wouldn't understand.'

They're making choices that terrify you.

Wrong path. Wrong friends. And every conversation turns into a war.

You feel like a stranger in your own relationship.

You used to know this person. Now you walk on eggshells. When did it get this hard?

You're running out of time and you know it.

They're growing up. The window isn't open forever. The longer this goes, the harder it feels.

“Your child isn’t pushing you away because they don’t need you. They’re doing it because they don’t know how to need you right now.
That’s the problem we solve.”

— Ja’son Forte | Transformational Coach

THE APPROACH

Connection is the cure. Everything else is a symptom.

Most interventions try to change the child. My work changes the dynamic. When the relationship heals, everything else becomes possible.

01

Understand What's Really Happening

We uncover the root of the disconnection not just the behavior on the surface, but the unspoken story beneath it. This alone changes how you see your child.

02

Rebuild the Foundation

We repair old wounds, reestablish safety, and give you the language and tools to show up in a way your child can actually receive. Not perfectly powerfully.

03

Lead Toward Integrity

We guide your family toward a new dynamic: one built on trust, honest communication, and a relationship your child chooses to stay in. Because they want to. Not because they have to.

THE 12-WEEK FAMILY RESTORATION EXPERIENCE

- ✓ 12 deep, structured 1-on-1 coaching calls tailored to your family dynamic.
- ✓ We identify the specific patterns driving disconnection in your relationship.
- ✓ Practical language for navigating hard conversations without escalation.
- ✓ You're not alone when hard moments happen between calls.
- ✓ Bringing your teen or young adult in when the time is right.

● Foundation & Assessment

WEEKS 1-2 We map your family dynamic, identify the specific ruptures and patterns, and create your personalized restoration roadmap.

● Repair & Reconnection

WEEKS 3-5
We address the root wounds driving disconnection and begin rebuilding the relational foundation : safely and sustainably.

● Communication & Leadership

WEEKS 6-9
You learn to lead with influence instead of control and practice the tools and language that actually reach your child.

● Integration & Long-Term Vision

WEEKS 10-12
We consolidate your transformation, prepare for future challenges, and ensure the shift in your relationship becomes permanent.

IS THIS RIGHT FOR YOU?

This program is built for a specific parent.

◆ This IS for you if...

- Your teen or young adult (14–24) has pulled away and you don't know how to reach them
- You've tried therapy, tough love, giving space and nothing has worked
- You're willing to look at your own role in the dynamic, not just change your child
- You're ready to invest seriously in your family financially and emotionally
- You believe the relationship can be restored and you refuse to give up

■ This is NOT for you if...

- You're looking for someone to 'fix' your child while you stay the same
- You want scripts and tricks but aren't open to deeper relationship work
- Your situation involves active crisis requiring immediate clinical intervention
- You're not willing to commit to 12 weeks of consistent, structured work

WHAT PARENTS SAY

The shift is real.

“

I came in believing my son was the problem. I left understanding I was the missing piece. He called me last week just to talk. That hadn't happened in two years.

— Father of a 19-year-old

“

My daughter and I had a wall between us I didn't know how to climb. Ja'son helped me see where it came from and gave me the tools to take it down.

— Mother of a 16-year-old

“

I was skeptical. I thought we were too far gone. We weren't. The work is hard, honest, and completely worth it. Our relationship looks nothing like it did 3 months ago

— Father of a 22-year-old

YOUR COACH

Hi, I'm Ja'son Forte'.

I work with parents navigating some of the most painful seasons of their lives — watching their child pull away, make choices that terrify them, or disappear behind a wall of silence.

My approach is rooted in a simple truth: the relationship is the intervention. When connection is restored, everything else becomes possible.

This is more than a coaching practice. This is my calling. I exist to help families find their way back to each other: before it's too late.
