Our 51th Year of Service to the community has seen an explosion of new and exciting opportunities for the Jesse Cosby Community Center (JCCC). This year JCCC is promoting its new image and display of new programs.

In our efforts to bring unity and cohesion to communities throughout the Cedar Valley, we strive to increase services in a continued effort to expand our programs. The new programs we now offer are the No One With Out A Home (NOWOAH) and Victims Of Crime Act (VOCA) for individuals and families who have been directly and/or indirectly affected by a criminal act and who are in need of the tools to help deal with trauma and regain stability in their lives. The other new services are the community YOUTH EMPOWERMENT SERVICE (Y.E.S.) and the HUB in conjunction with the Cedar Valley’s Promise (CVP) and the Community Partnership for the Protection of Children (CPPC) and an onsite counseling/mental health services provided by Life Connections. In addition we still continue to serve the Cedar Valley in conjunction with Black Hawk County Social Services (BHCSS) and People’s Community Health Clinic (PCHC) with our Crisis/Homeless Assistance program; our Aging Adult and Meal provisions programs in conjunction with the Northeast Iowa Area Agency on Aging (NEI3A) Our services are designed to address the needs of the individuals and families who may be experiencing emotional, financial, health, mental, physical and psychological problems associated with the socioeconomic challenges they face in everyday life.

The Jesse Cosby Center is a 501©3. The Jesse Cosby Center can offer donors a tax-deductible receipt for our sponsors/donors. Sponsorship levels are located on the enclosed form.

Sincerely,

*Jesse C. Henderson
