

250mg CBD Dosage Chart for Pets

The standard Daily dosage recommendations is to base your pets CBD dose on their body weight. The chart calculations below, is so you can find the lowest starting dose for your pet's body weight. Again, these are general guidelines.

Start smaller dosages and work up to desired level. i.e 1-5 lbs start off at 1 drop twice daily and increase dose as necessary. When using CBD supplement on your pet monitor their progress and make changes to the dosages if needed. Remember every pet can react different, always consult a veterinarian when giving your pet CBD or other health supplements.
