Nautical Theme Dinner

Please bring something Nautical, or anything that has to do with water, to wear for our Saturday Theme Dinner.

Put on your favorite sailor's attire, scuba gear or life savor ring and swim all the way to our Saturday night theme dinner! Just be creative! Make sure to bring your water props too. It's a great time to get a group picture. It's all about the fun! (Participation is optional)

Bubble Bath Bliss

Do you ever just want to be rescued by soaking in a hot bath after a long day, letting your concerns melt away? Let's help our sisters do just that! Please bring one of these items to share... bubble bath, bath salts, soap, bath bombs, candles, facial masks, shower gels, lotions, powders, etc. We will announce how the Spa/Bath items will be given away at our Saturday evening session. Please bring your items to the registration area to drop off upon check-in. Thanks!

Service Project:

Rapha International exists to love, rescue, and heal survivors of trafficking and sexual exploitation.

Rapha International is a public benefit 501c3 non-profit ministry committed to ending the trafficking and sexual exploitation of children through aftercare for survivors, prevention for the vulnerable, and awareness for all. Founded in 2003, Rapha International continues to rescue and rehabilitate children while bringing them to lasting freedom.

We will have a few items for sale at the NWCWC that 100% of the proceeds will go directly to this vital ministry. Hand braided Freedom bracelets made from the rescued children of Rapha's ministry and published prayer journals with devotions from many of our very own NWCWC workshop and conference leadership along with Stephanie Freed, our 2023 conference main speaker.

"Even to your old age and gray hairs I am He, I am He who will sustain you. I have made you and I will carry you: I will sustain you and I will rescue you." Isaiah 46:4

Featured Speaker
Stephanie Freed

Stephanie Freed co-founded Rapha International in 2003, beginning with one aftercare program for underage female survivors of trafficking and sexual exploitation in Battambang, Cambodia. Rapha now serves child survivors in Cambodia, Thailand, Haiti and the US through residential and therapeutic programming, which is administered by an international team of more than 250 professionals. Stephanie is a firm believer in quality programming and collaboration, which allows Rapha to enjoy the cooperation and respect of the governments where they are working.

Conference Workshops

1. Lydia Weideman

“Rescued... Who Me?
Finding Your Rescue Story”

Have you wondered how your ordinary life.. "lived for Christ" can be a rescue story? Do you feel like you have no testimony to dramatically change the life of others for Christ? Come and rediscover Your rescue story, ignite your response to THE RESCUER...and use your everyday ordinary "rescued" life to share the Gospel.

2. Marita Lawrence

“God Is...”

GOD IS... a simple statement with big impact. A God statement is a brief, true statement about the character of God that is unchanging or independent of our own actions. How would you make your own GOD IS... statement? In this workshop, we will explore practical ways to keep God central with GOD IS... statements in every aspect of our lives, including personal Bible study, prayer life, and in our Biblical communities.

3. Cheryl Woods

“Well Being in Jesus for Your Spirit, Soul and Body”

Jesus is our rescuer, and he has promised to be with us always. There are many aspects to well-being and the Bible is our resource to have an abundant life. Join me as we discuss daily practices to fill us with His presence and find nourishment for our spirit, soul and body.

4. Ann McMurray

“No Thanks, I’m Fine”

All of us know someone who needs to be “rescued.” We’ve found, though, when rescue is offered, the answer (overt or implied) is “No thanks, I’m fine.” This workshop will explore barriers to rescue and how to overcome them – even when the one refusing rescue is you.

5. Karla McElroy

“Who Is Our Rescuer?”

As we look at the names Jesus uses to describe Himself as well as those used by others throughout Scripture, we’ll learn more about Him and better understand why He offers to rescue us. This will also help us know Him as our source of wisdom and strength, the one beside us in comfort, as our protector; the one who speaks lovingly with either encouragement or rebuke as He delights in helping us to fulfill our purpose as His beloved daughters. Yes! He is our glorious and amazing Rescuer!!

6. Laura Inglis

“Can’t I Just Do It Myself?”

Do you ever watch little children who try to be independent? Are we often that child with our Heavenly Father? Does He tell us to live life, don’t sin, be perfect and then we get to go to Heaven? Do we think, once we go about things our own way, that God will just take His hands off and then throw us to the wolves to fend for ourselves? We will be looking into Scripture for the truth about these questions.

7. Donna Oiland

“God Is Always Up To Something and You Are Part Of It”

“God is always up to something and you are part of it”. In a lion’s den, in a fish’s belly, in a fiery furnace, in a borrowed tomb, or in your life, it may seem like life is over but it’s not, it is not, God is not finished yet.” Ephesians 2:10. Where is His joy in the middle of a storm?

8. Denise Trivelas

“Rescued, Set Free & Adopted”

How blessed we are to be rescued, set-free and adopted by our Heavenly Father! He has even endowed us with an eternal inheritance. Did you know that inheritance includes "the family business"? Come explore "the family business" and the essential role you play.

9. Nancy Waner

“Sharing The Bridge of Faith”

When it comes to sharing your faith with someone - friends, family, kids, adults - where do you start? Join us as we talk (and doodle) through the process together as we look at The Bridge of Faith and a creative way to share Jesus' death, burial, and new life as we talk about our new life in Him. No drawing talent needed...bring your Bibles and we'll talk through the process of becoming His.

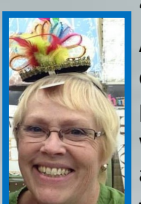

10. Cindy Johnson

“Rescuing Yourself From Your Need to Rescue Others”

Are you too busy rescuing others that you are feeling burnout, fatigue or depression? This class will help you recognize if you are having unhealthy boundaries, with family members, co-workers or friends. We will explore tips on how to implement good boundaries. With good boundaries we can feel refreshed, energetic and at peace. God wants us to be good neighbors, but He does not want us to enable unhealthy behaviors that could potentially hurt us or others.

11. Char Monaghan

“This Little Light of Mine”

Art Class making candle-lit ornaments. We will hand paint and decorate small wood life rings, anchors, and banners to go on the face of them. This craft will be a reminder of how ‘God has rescued us, and we have a light to shine that, like a light house on the rocks can be a rescue light of salvation for others.

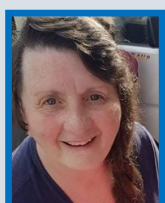

12. Tammy Adams

“Rescued.. Now What?”

Rescue stories are captivating. We get drawn into the drama of the danger, the suspense of the outcome and the celebration of the victory. Our story doesn’t end with our rescue, it is just the beginning. In this workshop we will be exploring the question, “now what?”

13. Sherry Thacker

“The Sound of Freedom”

Anxiety, fear and guilt are all terrible task masters. The weight of them zaps our energy and steals our Joy. Come and share the experience of the sound of freedom. It’s Incredible!

Free Time Art Classes

“Ombre Canvas Painting” Class
In this class you can paint a water scene with the word “RESCUED” on it, as well as add a heart and cross, if you’d like. It’s your masterpiece!

Led by: Virginia Craig
($5.00 fee)

“Rock Art” Class
In this class you can either paint a rock or apply designs through decoupage, or other techniques.
