

"Oceans of Possibilities"

Summer Reading Program 2022

Kids' ages birth - 6th grade are invited to join us for a fun-filled summer of reading & learning during our "Oceans of Possibilities" Summer Reading Program! We're going to have so much fun with our weekly themes of crafts, activities, stories, and snacks. Participants earn prizes for reaching their reading goals and our top readers win extra special prizes!

Join us and help us make our last Summer Reading program at this location the best one yet!

Registration is May 3rd - May 31st and the first 50 registrants receive a special "Oceans of Possibilities" t-shirt!

Register online at www.ozarklibrary.com beginning May 3rd at 10am.

Register at the Library during normal operating hours.

Narwhals & Krakens: Believe It or Not!

Believe it or not....narwhals & krakens are REAL! And they're pretty cool, too! We're making Kraken Reading Trackers and playing fun narwhal carnival games today!

June 8th @ 1pm-3pm

Coasting Through History: Alabama's Oceans*

Discover the fascinating history of Alabama's Gulf Coast by participating in an erosion experiment, dressing up as ocean themed careers, and making your own basilosaurus puppet!

June 15th @ 1pm-3pm

Treasure Hunting Pirates

Shiver me timbers, Matey! We heard there's treasure hidden at the Library—let's go hunting together and take home some loot! (Dress up as a pirate for some extra fun!)

June 22nd @ 1pm-3pm

Mermaids & the Loch Ness Monster: Mythical Creatures of the Sea

It's a painting day and we're painting a mermaid and a loch ness monster...with a water gun! Join us for this unique painting opportunity and come prepared for some rather messy and FUN painting!

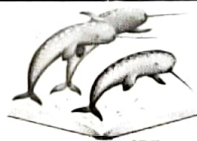

June 29th @ 1pm-3pm

Finale Party

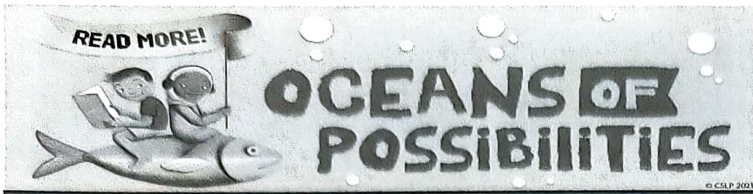

Let's celebrate your reading achievements with one last party at this Library! We'll have a water slide so don't forget your swimsuit and towels!
