After seeking input from all members about holding a 2022 Convention, it has been decided to NOT do a 2022 convention but get plans started for a 2023 convention. Thank you to those who took the time to respond as requested.

The officers have been busy trying to get everything with the business side of WVBA in order. A new website is being worked on. We will be getting all financial records from Ruth Crow, our past Treasurer so that an audit can be completed and necessary changes made to the bank account.

There has been some suggestions to changing the dates for our next convention to mid summer/early fall. As with everything there is a lot to consider. We will need to check on dates of other conventions in order to have great teachers, classes and vendors available. We will also have to check on availability of a venue.

Sandra Carney and husband Ed are eager weavers who have volunteered to help with convention and also new member Jan Hensley has offered to help coordinate so we are heading in the right direction!!

If the Covid numbers in WV continue to trend downward, we will attempt a WVBA meeting soon. Trying to be considerate of the health of our members has been our utmost concern. We are so ready to get this behind us so we can all be together weaving again!

Please reach out to me with any suggestions, questions, complaints, offers to help, etc.

My email is weave4fun@yahoo.com

Thank you for your time.

Your WVBA President Lara Lawrence
