

POST-EVENT RESULTS AND STATS 2024

The Fifth Annual Old Town Festival of Speed & Style, presented by Burke & Herbert Bank, held on Sunday, May 19, 2024, reset records in the level of visibility for the event, as well as with the numbers of spectators attending, and the numbers of vehicles on display. It also allowed the organization to again raise significant funds to give to its two charities of choice!

The Old Town Festival of Speed & Style has also solidified its place as one of the largest annual events in Old Town – again! In just five years, the Festival has become one of the biggest, most popular, and most impactful activities in Old Town!

This year, the Festival:

- Presented 123 fast, exotic, elegant, world-class automobiles
- Drew an estimated 50,000 spectators to the lower King Street area
- Placed 25 named sponsors and strategically integrated their canopies into the Festival area
- Hosted 300 participants at the memorable High-Octane Ball held the night before
- Increased lower Old Town business and restaurant foot traffic by double for the day
- Donated $40,000 to two local charities, ALIVE! and Community Lodgings. To date, the Festival organization has raised over $140,000 for local charitable organizations!

On top of that, the event generated widespread print, broadcast and online media coverage that helped spread the word about the Festival, its sponsors, and its commitment to the community.

Net assessment: All media elements were effectively utilized assuring extensive reach and overage across the metro D.C. area as well as within the Alexandria community.

Media outlets including the following, provided coverage of the event and ancillary activities:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| • The Washington Post | • Old Town Crier |
| • NBC 4Washington | • VIPAlexandria Magazine |
| • The Washington Examiner | • WJLA |
| • ESPN | • DCist |
| • Virginia Living Magazine | • Alexandria Gazette |
| • Washingtonian Magazine | • Patch |
| • Metro Weekly | • Mommy Poppins |
| • Kid Friendly DC | • ALX Now |
| • Alexandria Times | • Auto Evolution |
| • Alexandria Living Magazine | • Classic Motorsports Magazine |
| • The Zebra Press | |

This translates into an overall reach number of 19.4 million!

- The combined print media coverage is estimated to have reached more than 1 million readers
- The combined online pageview reach is an even larger number
 - The Washingtonian alone posts over 3.25 million monthly pageviews
- The combined numbers of followers on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram represent an even larger potential audience
 - WJLA online reaches over one million followers

- ESPN 630 Radio D.C. broadcast live from the Festival, and broadcast 50 on-air promotions, social media promotions and coverage on their ESPN630DC.com event page.
- Word-of mouth, official posters, car club newsletters, and other events also contributed to generating interest, participation, and fun in the event.

The Old Town Festival of Speed & Style’s Website and social media platforms also produced substantial results for the period leading up to the May 19, 2024 event, with 44,488 total Website visits and 43,615 total social media traffic visits.

Visit Alexandria recognizes that the Old Town Festival of Speed & Style is a well-run major event grounded in the community that attracts a large audience, including D.C. regional and overnight visitors. This valuable event has become a signature event of the spring season that helps drive visitation to Alexandria and increases spending in local businesses.

Visit Alexandria publicized the Old Town Festival of Speed & Style through dedicated promotions as well as by featuring the Festival as part of its spring seasonal marketing campaign. The Old Town Festival of Speed & Style Facebook/Instagram Ad Campaign generated:

- The 2024 campaign generated 847,000 impressions and over 28,000 link clicks to FestivalofSpeedandStyle.com.
- They expanded the ad radius to include both the DC region and overnight drive markets. 58 percent of clicks from this year’s campaign came from outside the D.C. region. To account for differing planning windows, Visit Alexandria began the ads for the destination audience on April 22, while the ads for the D.C. regional audience launched May 18.
- Visit Alexandria’s paid search campaign generated four times more impressions than last year, indicating growing organic search interest for this event, and events like it.
- Multiple organic social media posts across Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.
- Inclusion in “Top Events This Spring” promoted Instagram Reel, which reached more than 500,000 accounts and yielded 12,842 interactions.
- VisitAlexandria.com article highlighting “Top Things to Do This Spring in Alexandria” and “Best Of,” included “Speed & Style,” was viewed over 22,000 times this year and was also promoted separately through paid and organic social media posts as well as Storygize native advertising.
- The Spring “Things to Do in May 2024” e-newsletter, distributed across the metro D.C. area, that included the Festival, garnered 10,277 opens.

The Old Town Festival of Speed & Style was a finalist in the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce’s Annual Best in Business Awards 2023 – in the non-profit category.

The Organizing Committee for the Old Town Festival of Speed & Style is now preparing for next year’s event – the Sixth Annual Festival, set for Sunday, May 18, 2025. For that, the team is planning on adding some new features to deepen the richness, uniqueness, and cachet of the event, and anticipate bringing more fun and attention to Alexandria while raising more funds for its selected charities.

OVERVIEW:

Now in its sixth year, The Old Town Festival of Speed & Style, presented by Burke & Herbert Bank, is a spectacular, high-sensory in-person event that has become one of the biggest annual activities in Alexandria, VA. Free and open to the public, spectators are treated to a fun-filled, day of fast cars, high-style, food and fun – all shared in a collectively extraordinary experience.

The Festival event celebrates the intense technical and mechanical performance and speed of exotic sports cars while emphasizing the elegance of their design and style. It also highlights the heart and spirit of the community and underscores the sophistication and style of Old Town.

The beneficiary of the Festival is the Alexandria community – its residents; the spectators and visitors; the local restaurants, shops, galleries, and outlets; and two local charities – ALIVE! and the Community Lodgings. Additionally, the Festival has become one of the premiere car events on the East Coast, generating national and international interest in Alexandria, as an extraordinary place to see and experience cool things.

The Old Town Festival of Speed & Style is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization chartered to generate and donate funds to local charities.
