A WORD FROM THE BOARD:

Matthew Dragoun
Pastor
Cambria Calvary Chapel

Along with the blood of Jesus, there's one thing that everyone who's a part of PHM shares. Whether it be a staff member or someone attending an event, whatever your background or denomination, we are all recipients of the amazing GRACE of God. Grace in its purest form is undeserved merit, undeserved favor. Do you know that this is something that sets us apart from the world in extreme ways? Those in the world who haven't come to Jesus yet haven't experienced grace. This grace does not manipulate or vindicate. This grace cannot be measured or depleted.

Paul's writing his final letter to Timothy in 2 Timothy 2:1 where he charges him "You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus."

Sometimes we're short tempered, even lacking desire to deal with those that rub us the wrong way. Sometimes we just don't have it in us to keep serving those around us. Sometimes when we're lacking strength we can begin to question if we're in the middle of God's will for us. Has there ever been a time when you felt opposed from all directions? Are you in a season that's demanding of you more than you have to offer? Maybe you're not capable of rising to the occasion physically, emotionally or intellectually.

Do you remember what the Lord told Joshua when He put him in the position Moses had been in for 40 years? "Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go." Sometimes we take for granted that it is by the grace of God we have His presence in our life. By grace we have a personal and intimate relationship with the God of all grace.

We are saved by grace through faith. We live and serve by grace no matter how challenging the circumstances are in whatever scenario we find ourselves. As recipients of God's grace we have no excuse to not be extenders of God's grace. In light of the political season ahead, in light of the quickly approaching holidays, it would do followers of Jesus well to extend as much grace as possible. The Lord will keep you well supplied so that you remain strong in His grace.

Ministering to the COMMUNITY

Karl Mecklenberg

Rhett Walker Band

Big Daddy Weave "Let it Begin" concert was powerful. We saw many people come up for prayer and connect with Jesus! Thank you Grace for hosting.

Cowboy Up

Cowboy Up was a great success thanks to all of our friends in the community! We had a little over 700 attendees and several individuals who came up for prayer. Karl Mecklenberg and Rhett Walker did an amazing job ministering to the community.
