Consider your lifestyle and the lifestyle of others living with you. This will help us determine the best dog for you.

Check One	Activity Level	Example of Activity Level	Amount of Exercise and/or Interaction Needed	How Often
	Low	Couch Potato. This dog likes the easy life. This is a relaxed, laid back kind of dog who enjoys long naps, watching movies, curling up on laps and walking very short distances from the couch to the food bowl.	5 to 10 minutes	1 to 2 times daily
	Medium	This dog is a "jogger", not a "sprinter". He or she is somewhat active. Likes to jog short distances. Likes to go for long walks. Moderate exercise makes this pup happy.	10 to 20 minutes	2 times daily
	High	Take this dog for a big walk or two every day and give this dog a job and something to do. After this dog's job is done, curling up for a night of TV is heaven.	15 to 30 minutes	2 to 3 times daily
	Very High	If you want more exercise, this is the dog for you. This dog has tons of energy and is burning and working 24/7. This dog will run for miles, chase ball for hours and still want to play at the end of the day.	20 minutes to an hour	2 to 4 times daily

60. What is your expectation regarding a Foster or Adoptable GSD's obedience training level (choose one please)?

completely trained somewhat untrained untrained
