

ELECTION INTEGRITY'S PRAYER TEAM REPORT

August 24, 2026

I will now begin the Conclusion of my three part series of "How our Judeo-Christian roots from Genesis, launched The Revolutionary War.

Given that the overwhelming majority of our Founders were Christians who shared a biblical worldview, the Bible was the most frequently cited authority in the political literature of the American founding. That's why throughout our history, the Bible has been the cornerstone of American life, education, and law. Abraham Lincoln believed the Bible was "the best gift God has given to man." And Dwight D. Eisenhower said, "Without God there could be no American form of government, nor an American way of life." Revolutionary leaders identified with the Exodus story, viewing the King of England as Pharaoh and the American colonies as the Israelites stepping out in FAITH toward FREEDOM!

Significantly, the Founders chose the famous inscription on the Liberty Bell, directly from Leviticus (Chapter 25 Verse 10): "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof." For them, the Revolutionary War was not merely a political dispute; it was a righteous stand to protect the God-given liberty of conscience.

Today, as we enjoy the freedoms fought for centuries ago, let us remember the spiritual roots of our nation. The Revolutionary War was launched not on the premise of human supremacy, but on the undeniable truth that we are all made in the image of God. We can honor that legacy by respecting the dignity and God-given rights of our neighbors.

We should all remember these four (4) key notes:

- 1. The origin of American liberty is the Bible.
- 2. The United States is a Christian nation based on biblical principles.
- 3. The American covenant consists of two (2) founding documents:

The Declaration of Independence and The U.S. Constitution

- 4. Apart from the Bible and Christianity, neither the Declaration nor the Constitution could have EVER been written!

 Before I conclude, I would like to read three (3) quotes from three famous men:

You can find copies of these on the tables. Feel free to take one home.

These cards are from Judicial Watch, a conservative, non-partisan organization.

“Truth will ultimately prevail where pains is taken to bring it to light.” By George Washington

“The people are the government, administering it by their agents; they are the government, the sovereign power.” By Andrew Jackson

“Those who would give up Liberty to purchase a little Safety, deserve neither essential Liberty nor temporary Safety.” By Benjamin Franklin

Our closing prayer:

“lord, thank You for the great blessing of liberty. Remind us daily that our ultimate freedom and worth come from You. Help us to stand firm in these truths and to use our freedom to love and serve one another. In Your holy name, we pray. Amen.”

Thank You.
