MINUTES FOR July 13, 2026

•Billy Lerma is a lifelong Corpus Christi resident, Marine veteran, retired Postal Service manager, and longtime public servant who served more than 25 years on the Tulo-so-Midway ISD Board of Trustees and previously represented District 1 on the City Council.

•He believes city government should be transparent, accountable, and responsive to the people it serves.

•Billy supports desalination as part of a diversified, dependable water strategy, but he opposes locating the city's primary desalination project in the Inner Harbor.

•He is running to strengthen neighborhoods, improve essential city services, protect taxpayers, and provide experienced, practical leadership for the residents of District 1.

Across every role—professional, civic, or volunteer—Dan Herrington has been trusted with Leadership and Stewardship for over 20 years. As a Senior Vice President of a local bank, he understands budgets, infrastructure financing, and economic growth. His experience as a former councilman has equipped him with insights into transparency, consensus-building, and the responsibility of

In the context of the District 4 election, Dan is fiscally conservative, pro-business, and committed to policies that strengthen our local economy while protecting the character of our community.

Guided by a strong faith and a clear personal philosophy, Dan believes that the end does not justify the means. He emphasizes that how we govern matters just as much as what we accomplish, and that integrity, respect, and accountability must guide every decision throughout his political campaign

GUERRA

FOR CITY COUNCIL DISTRICT 2 —
www.VoteSelena.com

- Selena's roots in Corpus Christi run deep — spanning four generations. Her grandfather pastored a church on Martin Luther King Drive for many years and was both a Navy veteran and a man of unwavering faith. His commitment to God, family, and community left a lasting impact on Selena's life.

- Coming from a family of small business owners, Selena understands the importance of hard work, perseverance, and community investment. She credits her mother for teaching her to work hard, ask questions, and never be afraid to use her voice for what is right.

- Today, Selena continues to be guided by her faith, her family values, and her commitment to serving others with integrity and compassion.

VIDAL "COWBOY" CONDE

For Corpus Christi City Council District 1

Vidal Conde is a lifelong Texan, a proven entrepreneur, and a dedicated advocate for District 1. With a career spanning over three decades—from the industrial hubs of Corpus Christi to the international stages of the PRCA—Vidal brings a unique blend of "boots-on-the-ground" perspective and executive-level regulatory expertise to the 2026 City Council. Based on the future of Corpus Christi. From developing RV resorts to managing engineered septic designs and environmental permitting, he understands the technical challenges of desalination, tourism, and economic development. Vidal Conde isn't just a candidate; he is a result-oriented leader ready to cut through red tape and deliver for the constituents of District 1.

JOHN M. CUDD

for Corpus Christi City Council

DISTRICT 1

After forty-plus years in business, John M. Cudd has seen what regulations and inconsistencies with government agencies can do to a community by negatively impacting thriving businesses. The Nueces County Tax Appraisal District was an example of an agency over estimating tax values—creating hardships for businesses, large and small.

Dr Kristi Nelson Candidate for City Council District 4

•Nelson says her campaign will focus heavily on long-term water security, stronger public safety support, responsible city spending, infrastructure improvements, and holding local government accountable to taxpayers. With water shortages, rising utility concerns, and growing frustration at City Hall...
