MINUTES FOR September 14th, 2026

SCOTT CORLISS FOR CITY COUNCIL AT-LARGE

Navy Veteran. Business Owner. Community Leader.

Scott has a passion for this City, with service, to this community by serving on numerous boards and commissions, including Governor appointed board member to serve on the Texas Coalition on Crime Prevention, Nueces County Civil Service Commissioner, and The South Texas Joint Military Task Force.

Scott has worked closely with CCPD and local school districts on public safety and multiple community initiatives.

Scott is an active church member since 1985, serving over 30 years as a Deacon at his local church. Scott has been married for 38 years and is a proud father of three and grandfather of four.

"I have no personal interest in my pursuit of public service. I have put in countless time, effort, dollars, and drive into making a difference in public service over the years. I am committed to representing YOU at City Hall and will always bring you with me. My passion is my community; my strategy is to thrive and grow #together. I know I am the best candidate for the job, and when we win in November, a victory for me always means a victory for you."
