OUR OFFERINGS

All Ages Pokémon is a bi-weekly offering for Pokémon enthusiasts of all ages to come together in friendly competition. The Pokémon trading card game (TCG) is a strategy based card game where players build decks of 60 Pokémon cards to battle against each other.

Amtgard is a live action role-play (LARP) game that combines medieval fantasy themes with combat and crafting. Players engage in battles using foam weapons, participate in role-playing scenarios, and explore various creative activities like sewing, sculpting, and storytelling. It emphasizes community, encouraging participation in both combat and non-combat aspects of the game.

Boozy Board Games is a bi-weekly spirited game night at our next door neighbors, Snitching Lady Distillery! Play a selection of booze themed and award-winning board games. Enjoy distillery favorites or try our signature cocktail, the Wizards Elixir!

Catan Group is a gathering for Catan enthusiasts. We have the base game and attendees can bring extensions and expansions as desired.

Call of Cthulhu is a tabletop role-playing game based on the world of H. P. Lovecraft. It's a game of secrets, mysteries, and horror. Players are steadfast investigators, traveling to strange and dangerous places, uncovering foul plots, and standing against the terrors of the Cthulhu mythos.

Chess Group is a gathering for chess enthusiast. Players of all ages and skill levels are welcome!

D&D or Dungeons & Dragons is a fantasy role-playing game that focuses on storytelling and collaboration. Players create characters, and work together as a group to explore a fantasy world, and go on quest. Games can be ongoing campaigns or one shots.

D&D GWOW or Glorious Warriors of Wrestling is a 5th edition homebrew based in the Radiant Citadel setting. Players get ready to rumble in this professional wrestling-themed campaign! Play as a champion, coach, manager, superfan, commentator or other related character in this fun-filled original storyline.

D&D Solasta is a 5th edition game set in the year 1024 after an event known as the cataclysm. New states have arisen around the Badlands and crave its treasures. A newly discovered road offers a safe route in the heart of the elven empire. The legacy council issues a call for agents to explore the badlands in its name. Will you answer the call?

D&D Spelljammer is a campaign setting that allows players to have adventures in outer space! Players captain ships that travel through space, visiting planets, moons, and other celestial objects. The ships, called Spelljammers, are magically powered and can travel great distances, some even to other planes of existence.

Junior Adventurers League is FREE biweekly D&D for teens (ages 12-18), held at the South Park Recreation Center. Beginners welcome! All materials are included. Snacks will be provided. This program is sponsored by the South Park Prevention Coalition.

Learn to Play Thursday is a weekly offering to try a new monthly featured board or card game. Our team of friendly wizards will lead you through the game step by step. You can arrive anytime during the evening and play as many times as you like.

Magic or Magic the Gathering is a collectible card game where players battle each other by casting spells, summoning creatures, and using artifacts. Players build decks of 60 cards and design them for specific strategies. The game takes place in a multiverse of different worlds called planes, each with its own characters, stories, and mysteries.

Monster of the Week is a roleplay heavy game inspired by paranormal mystery TV shows like supernatural, X-Files, Fringe, and Buffy the Vampire Slayer. Players are Monster hunters working together to investigate strange circumstances, act under pressure, protect bystanders, find the monsters and stop them.

Word Game Group is an all-ages gathering for enthusiasts of word games like Scrabble and Bananagrams. Feel free to bring your other favorite word games!

Youth D&D are biweekly D&D games specifically for junior adventurers, ages 8-11.

Zombicide w/ Miniature Painting is a biweekly program, FREE for teens (ages 12-18). Participants will learn the art of painting miniatures for gaming and will use their new skills to paint the minis in the Zombicide board game which will be played on our last day. All materials are included and snacks will be provided. This program is sponsored by the South Park Prevention Coalition.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

GM or Game Master is the referee and storyteller for role-playing games, describing the world, non-player characters (NPCs), and challenges for the player characters (PCs). The GM also sets the framework for the players to interact and make decisions.

TTRPGs or Tabletop Role-Playing Games also called Role-Playing games or RPGs are interactive, collaborative storytelling games where players create and play characters in a fictional world. Players sit around the table, often led by a game master, using their imaginations, verbal and nonverbal interactions, and other choices to shape the story.

A Campaign is a series of adventures that form a continuing storyline over regular gaming sessions.

A One Shot is a role-playing game session designed to offer an engaging play experience until a satisfying story within a single sitting.
