Meet AWR's Jim Howard, President

As you know, Bisti Broadcasting is part of a Radio Ministry network of stations which will be broadcasting programs produced by Diné Adventist Radio (DAR) to the Four Corners area and the Navajo Nation. Providing great assistance to DAR and the network of local stations we find Adventist World Radio (AWR) the international ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist church. AWR's financial assistance and radio engineering expertise are truly God's gift to the ongoing local progress!

In 2025 Jim Howard was appointed president of AWR. In a recent interview, Jim's history and vision for AWR included human interest and evangelistic vision.

As an adult, Jim became a Christian by reading his Bible – no lessons to follow, no Bible worker, no evangelistic meetings. Just diligent, private study of God's word! His newfound faith prompted him to become active in personal ministries and in giving Bible studies. He had no formal education in theology, but eventually became a bi-vocational pastor. Later he became a Bible worker, and finally accepted a call to full-time ministry. Over time, Jim's success in reaching souls was noticed and he was elected as Sabbath School and Personal Ministries Director at the General Conference (GC) level. From this GC position, Jim has now transitioned into the position of President of AWR.

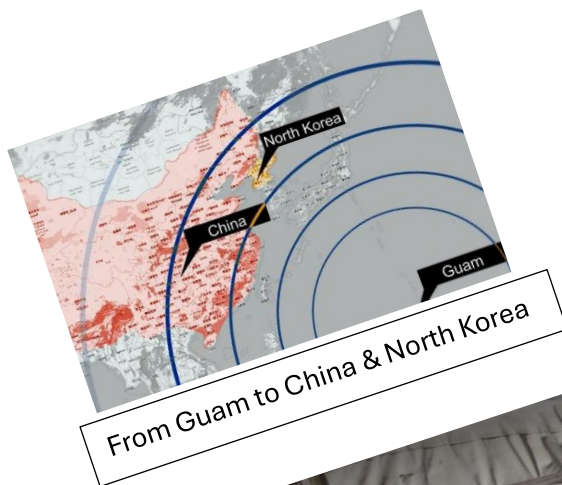

Enthusiasm for winning souls can be heard in Jim's voice as he reports how radio ministry passes walls and closed borders into "hard to reach" areas. The AWR goal of "Broadcast to Baptism" is dear to Jim's heart. He related stories of conversion resulting from AM, FM and Short Wave radio as well as the distribution of solar powered GodPods and expanded ministry through the internet.

Adventist Media Generates
Millions of Bible-Study Interests.

Most Never Make it
To a Local Church.

Jim emphasized the necessity of nurturing the interests created by radio and the absolutely essential involvement of local membership in bringing radio listeners from “broadcast to baptism”. Interested listeners do not join the radio station – they join the local congregation. This is where discipleship and grounding take place. AWR is dedicated to helping churches with personnel and resources to assist in evangelism at the local level. Jim makes an appeal to all church members to support radio ministry with prayers and financial gifts and “be ready in your local church to give Bible Studies, to minister to these people, and make soul winning the real mission of your local church.”

Bisti Broadcasting – our local radio ministry – gives our PHSDA and Aztec churches the opportunity to be a part of this worldwide effort of sharing the good news of Jesus love with all who receive our signal.

... A great mistake is made when an interest is awakened, and the work is left incomplete."
