A very warm welcome to "DAR on the Road" and to all of our Guests joining us today. May God abundantly bless our worship together!

RADIO SAVES LIVES

EVERYWHERE OUR SIGNAL REACHES, there are hurting people living a life of quiet desperation—a life without hope and without Jesus. They know nothing of the greatest Gift that can be theirs.

God longs to reach those people, and He promises that if you and I become His voice to guide them, we will not be disappointed, but will be rewarded beyond belief!

This quote is taken from an Adventist World Radio article by AWR's retired president, Duane McKey. The ideas expressed here apply to Adventist World Radio, Diné Adventist Radio, and to Bisti Broadcasting. Our local Bisti Broadcasting LPFM station is a developing vehicle through which we can join others to "become His voice" in proclaiming the Gospel message.

Shout from the Rooftop!!!

On the Google Earth photo of the top of PHSDA church there is a small red circle. In the photo of the trees and church window you will notice a black vertical line. The circle and the black line represent the proposed location of our radio tower. These photos are part of the information submitted by engineer Jim Burt to the Albuquerque tower construction company. The company's quote for construction is expected within a few days.

The contributions recorded by our "FUNDING" graph will suddenly become very significant!! The PHSDA and Aztec SDA church members have continued for more than a year to faithfully share the vision, pray, and bring offerings in support of the development of Bisti Broadcasting. God continues to bless this witnessing project and all glory goes to Him! Only in heaven will we know the results of this soul saving endeavor!!

Please continue your prayers for electricity to be supplied to DAR Station KDHP 91.9 FM which is ready and waiting to begin broadcasting!

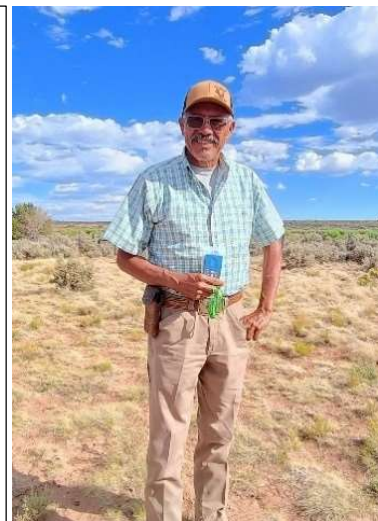

GodPod Stories

Gleaned from DAR "Navajo Waves"

John Boyd, Jr., Champion Team Roper and break-away roper, received a GodPod from Diné Adventist Radio editor Kietel Jones. Boyd, Jr. is a lifelong rodeo competitor based on the Navajo Nation. He had long wished to hear Scripture in his native tongue. The GodPod preloaded with the entire Bible—Old Testament in Navajo, New Testament in English—immediately became a prized possession.

At every rodeo, Boyd, Jr. tucks the GodPod into his saddlebag and carries it with him to the stables. While tending his horses, he presses play on the compact device and listens to passages in Navajo. Fellow Navajo cowboys often wander over, curious about the audio emanating from his trailer. Boyd, Jr. simply turns up the volume, and the group gathers on hay bales to hear familiar verses in a fresh way.

Moved by the impact this small player has had on his friends, Boyd, Jr. is now requesting additional GodPods in Navajo. He hopes that each cowboy on the reservation can carry the Word of God with them—whether they're in the arena or on the range.
