GINJO AWARD

In 1986 and on the fifteenth anniversary of the NZCMA, I wish to establish an annual Founders Award, to be known as the Ginjo Award.

(The name is a combination of the names, Ginger and Joe).

I request it be awarded to the one person or group whom the association feels has done the most, during the year, to keep the organization going or promoted, as originally intended.

There are always individuals who spend endless hours working for an organization and never seem to get any thanks or recognition for it.

I hope this award will help to correct some of this.

It is also my sincere desire that this award will serve as a new goal or challenge for all of you to work even harder for the NZCMA and possibly this award will be yours someday, on an individual basis.
