TPAS, LLC and WebCE Forge Powerful Partnership to Elevate Claims Adjuster Licensing & Training

September 7, 2023 – TPAS, LLC, a leading force in Property & Casualty education, is thrilled to announce its strategic partnership with WebCE, a seasoned provider of online education. This dynamic collaboration aims to revolutionize the training, licensing, and mentoring of claims professionals, with a specific focus on claims adjusters.

WebCE, a trusted name with over 25 years of experience, has successfully delivered over 1.5 million online courses annually to more than 1 million professionals nationwide across various industries. Their commitment to innovative educational experiences aligns seamlessly with TPAS, LLC's mission to empower claims professionals and help them excel in their careers.

As part of this groundbreaking partnership, TPAS, LLC and WebCE present the TPAS x WebCE branded portal, a dedicated platform designed to enhance the learning experience for claims professionals. This portal will be the go-to resource for top-notch online education tailored to meet the specific requirements of the industry.

To further sweeten the deal, all claims professionals enrolled through the TPAS x WebCE portal will enjoy an exclusive 10% discount on WebCE's extensive range of online pre-licensing and continuing education courses. This discount underscores the commitment of both TPAS, LLC and WebCE to make high-quality education more accessible to aspiring and seasoned claims professionals alike.

We are excited to join forces with WebCE to bring unparalleled educational opportunities to claims professionals," said Charleen Hoskins, Founder & CEO at TPAS, LLC. "This partnership signifies our dedication to providing top-tier training and resources, equipping individuals with the skills they need to thrive in the competitive field of insurance claims."

The TPAS x WebCE partnership marks a significant leap forward in advancing the education and career prospects of claims professionals. Both organizations are poised to make a lasting impact on the industry by fostering excellence and innovation in online education.
