

Author bio and Images for Paul Circosta

Long bio

Paul Circosta is an author, historian and storyteller who delves into the stories and lives of distinctive but less well-known sporting people and events.

Vanishing Footsteps is his first biography. It tells the engrossing life stories of two Australian long-distance runners from the 1920's who challenged the world's best long-distance athletes throughout North America. He is a member of the Queensland Writers Centre, Australian Society for Sports History, and the International Society of Olympic Historians. He has had a long career as a competitive runner and lives in Brisbane, Australia where is a member of several running groups.

Medium bio

Paul Circosta is an author, historian and storyteller who delves into the stories and lives of less well-known sporting people and events. Vanishing Footsteps is his first biography and tells the engrossing life stories of two Australian long-distance runners from the 1920's. He has a long career as a

Short bio

Paul Circosta is an author, historian and storyteller. He writes historical stories of distinctive sports people and events.

Author Image and Book Cover Image

To contact Paul:

e: PaulCircosta@outlook.com

w: www.PaulCircosta.com