Virginia Boulay Hospitality Award

Patty Mills

This Award is named in memory of Virginia Boulay, a deceased charter member of the Parade Committee whose warmth and generosity truly personified the Irish greeting, “Cead Mile Failte,” or “One Hundred Thousand Welcomes.”

Given to a St. Patrick's Parade Committee member, the Virginia Boulay Award honors one who is always welcoming to others. The Parade Committee is honored to recognize Patty Mills as the recipient of this award.

Patty Mills was born and raised in Worcester, Massachusetts. She is the eldest daughter of the late John and Jean Mills. Her family's Irish heritage hails from County Kildare. Patty was educated through the Worcester Public School System and graduated from Doherty Memorial High School. Patty continued her education in several different interests. She is a graduate of the Salter Business School and holds a degree in Criminal Justice from Quinsigamond Community College. She developed this interest further and attended Westfield State College's Criminal Justice Program. Patty is retired from the Massachusetts State Police, Division of Administrative Services.

Patty has a long history of volunteer work spanning fifty-four years. She began volunteering after completing her Advanced First Aid Certificate from the American Red Cross and joined the National Ski Patrol System at Ward Hill in Shrewsbury Mass. As an Emergency Medical Technician, she continued to volunteer at Ward Hill. With her medical knowledge, she next volunteered as a Lamaze Childbirth Assistant at Hahnemann Hospital in Worcester. Patty was there when the new mothers delivered their babies.

Patty also was active in environmental interests. She began with the Watershed Association in Uxbridge MA. Here she instructed and oversaw School Groups participating in the Blackstone River Watershed. She later became the Director of Water Quality Monitoring for Blackstone River Watershed Association overseeing WATER Quality Testing by teams of volunteers consisting of private citizens and the School Groups. .Patty was also the Canoe Race Chair for the Blackstone River Watershed Associations Canoe/ Kayak Race for three consecutive years. She was a member of Expedition 2000 , a group of 25 Core Canoe Paddlers who embarked on a mission paddling 46 miles in four days down the Blackstone River in order to observe, test, and document their findings. As a result of their findings, Greenways were created and new Canoe Portages were created.

Patty has been an active member of The Worcester County Saint Patrick's Day Parade Committee. She has volunteered on parade day in different capacities. She is always open and welcoming to new members and easily works with other committee members. Patty's love of her heritage has recently lead her to join the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians.

The Cathy Donahue Good Neighbor Award

Harry Kokkinis

The Cathy Donahue Good Neighbor Award is named in memory of the late Cathy Donahue, a Parade Committee member and past chairman. Cathy promoted the growth of the parade in its early years by helping to establish a financial framework for the Parade Committee organization. Cathy was an active individual who was a friend to all. This award is given to a friend of the community who through their work, warmth and generosity has helped their community.

Harry Kokkinis is the President of Table Talk Pies, a family owned business that has been part of the Worcester community for almost 100 years.

In 1924 two Greek immigrants, Harry's grandfather—Theodore Tonna—and Angelo Cotsidas started a bakery in a small kitchen, baking pies at night and delivering them by horse drawn wagon during the day. After being sold, closed, and then reopened in 1986, Harry's father, Christo Cocaine, brought the business back from obscurity by refining and cornering the snack pie market. With the help of loyal employees and customers, Table Talk Pies now offers pies enjoyed by people all over North America.

When Harry was 4 years old, his father took him on a visit to the bakery on a Sunday and during that visit his grandfather let him eat a whole pumpkin pie. This was the beginning of his love of the business.

Harry joined Table Talk Pies in 2003. Learning the business from the ground up, Harry brought his experience restructuring and growing manufacturing businesses to help build a thriving future for Table Talk Pies. Harry has overseen the opening of three new baking locations and a cold storage warehouse—Bowditch in Shrewsbury in 2015, Southgate in 2017, Armory Street Cold Storage in 2019, and a new 135,000 sq. ft state of the art facility on Gardner Street here in Worcester in 2022 - increasing the production capacity of Table Talk Pies to almost 5 million pies a week and creating economic opportunity in Central MA.

In addition to expanding the business, Harry has a passion for community involvement as a way of giving back to the city that has given so much to the company. With a focus on fighting hunger, combating addiction, supporting immigrants, and thanking our first responders, Table Talk Pies donates thousands of pies a year.

Harry has made his mark on the family legacy with his unwavering commitment to the long-standing traditions of putting quality first while focusing on serving the customer and the community.

Judy Wilkinson Award Winners

The Judy Wilkinson Award was instituted in 1997 in memory of Parade Committee member, Judy Wilkinson, who passed away in 1996 after a seventeen-year battle with cancer. Judy was the most generous person you could ever meet, often giving what a friend needs before that friend knows it's a need. Judy usually worked behind the scenes on the operational items that contributed to the Parade's success.

Sheila and Leah Caggiano

Sheila and her daughter Leah are proud to be Irish, and proud to be members of the St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee.

Sheila and Leah have worked tirelessly to support the parade operations, while attending all functions, fundraisers, and community activities. They are always willing to volunteer and work behind the scenes. They are on the 'front lines' of the Parade, as part of the Operations Team.

From volunteering to Judge the "Best in Parade," to running in the Celtic 5K, to serving the young trick or treaters up on Vernon Hill, this mother-daughter duo is the epitome of Irish spirit and selflessness.

The Caggianos are longtime residents of the city of Worcester; parishioners at Our Lady of the Angels and Catholic school graduates. They are dedicated to their community and exude the ideals of this award in honor of Judy Wilkinson.

Quiet Hero Award

Kathleen (McTigue) Gervais

Kathleen (McTigue) Gervais is the recipient of the Stephen P. Trainor Quiet Hero Award.

A lifelong Worcester resident and retired occupational therapist, she understands health care complexities and exudes compassion for the challenges people in need face daily.

Kathy's community involvements are numerous. For sixteen years she has been a volunteer at St. John's Soup Kitchen. An active member of the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians, she coordinates their Thanksgiving food drive for distribution to St. John's as well as other food banks.

A champion for the homeless, Kathy is a foster care case reviewer for the Department of Children and Families (DCF). She is also an Outreach worker for Stand Up For Kids. This organization assists homeless youth from ages fourteen to twenty-four.

At the Visitation House, Kathy counsel pregnant women in crisis, as well as at the emergency shelter at Hotel Grace. She is a Street Outreach Worker volunteer and counsels the victims of human sex trafficking.

When Sowing Seeds of Hope organization helped at a temporary emergency shelter at Blessed Sacrament Church in Worcester, Kathy was there. Within five hours in December 2022 of the first opening, the shelter was at full capacity, proof of just how much need there is in our community.

Unassuming, humble, and energetic, Kathy Gervais' passion for providing support to those struggling with often insurmountable odds is inspiring. One can not measure the extent of tremendous impact she has had in the lives of people she has touched.

Our committee and the community is thankful for her service and belief in the Bible question "Am I my brother's keeper?" Kathy believes the answer is, "I am."

Agnes Sheehan Community Service Award

Donna C. Wrenn

The Agnes Sheehan Community Service Award is dedicated in loving memory of the late Agnes Sheehan, a charter member of the Parade Committee, and the first woman to be chosen as the Parade's Grand Marshal. In keeping with the traditions of Agnes, this award recognizes an individual who has given of him or herself to help improve the community.

Donna Wrenn grew up on Vernon Hill in Worcester, and graduated from St. Peter Central Catholic High School. She began her professional career at the College of the Holy Cross in the Treasurer's Office. In 1972, Donna was promoted to Director of Personnel by President Rev. John E. Brooks, S.J. After 55 years of service, she retired from the college as Director of Human Resources in 2016.

At her retirement party, Mayor Joseph M. Petty presented Donna with the Key to the City Award stating, "through your attention to the college, as well as to numerous other charities in Worcester, you have exemplified the Jesuit ideal of 'men and women for others.' As a board member to the Ignatian Volunteer Corps, you have helped retired men and women to continue to bring their skills and talents to the underserved members of this community. Thank you for your compassionate heart in the treatment of others."

Donna has served on many other city boards including: United Way Allocations Committee and the YWCA Board. In addition, she visits Campion Center in Weston, bringing retired Holy Cross staff and faculty to assure the aged and infirm Jesuits that they are not forgotten. She is a weekly hospice volunteer at Notre Dame Long Term Care Harmony Unit.

Donna serves as president of the Guild of Our Lady of Providence, which promotes and advances the educational, health and charitable needs of the Diocese of Worcester by sponsoring events, which include the Annual Baby Shower for Pernet, Problem Pregnancy, and Visitation house; support to St. Peter Free Medical Program and the Adopt-A-Student program.

Donna also serves on the board of directors of Auburn Youth and Family Services, Inc. Their mission is to support families through empowerment and community collaboration. This past year countless individuals received food assistance, nearly 230 clients and students received counseling services, 90+ children received backpacks with school supplies, more than 200 people received Thanksgiving food baskets, and more than 400 had brighter Christmas celebrations through gifts and food baskets.

Donna also is president of the Parish Council and lector at North American Martyrs Church in Auburn, and is a member of Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians (LAOH).

Sean J. Gilmartin

Sean J. Gilmartin, was born in Boston, Massachusetts in April 1969. Sean's parent were born and raised in Ireland. His father, Seamus Gilmartin, hails from Sligo, and his mother, Bridget Martin, from Galway. Sean recalls his fondest childhood memories from his time spent in Sligo with his paternal side of the family on their farm. Sean's extended family raised horses and are well known in the equestrian community there. In his teen years he attended high school in Hanover, Massachusetts where he graduated in 1988.

Sean will admit that he gets his love of music from his mother Bridget. As a young boy he remembers her singing all the time and she was well known for her band "Bridget and the Clover Show". Sean states that he followed in her footsteps singing rebel music and eventually started his own band. Sean has a love for Irish music and his Irish heritage runs very deep.

Sean served in the United States Army, joining in 1991 and being stationed in Fort Irwin California and in K-town Germany. After six years in active service he left the Army to raise a family. Sean has three adult children that reside in Massachusetts; Richard and Sean are employed fulltime and reside in the South Shore, and his youngest Mary is a Political Science major at Bridgewater State University where she has maintained a regular spot on the Dean's List and is due to graduate this May 2023.

Sean moved to the Worcester area in April 2020 and immediately sought out the Irish Music scene, as well as others who support his love of everything Irish. Sean started frequenting Fiddlers Bar for Queen's tickets on Tuesday evenings, and his musical talents can be heard during the Sunday afternoon Seisuns. Sean joined the Hibernians in 2021 after COVID restrictions were lifted and is an active member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. He currently serves on the Foundation Board.

Sean was recruited by a former Mayor to run for Mayor of the 2023 St. Patrick's Parade and is thrilled by the honor bestowed upon him.

Ann Irene Quinn

When I come to the end of my journey,
and have traveled my last weary mile,
please forget if you can, that I ever frowned,
and remember only the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had heartache,
but remember I've had lots of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered,
and sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought hard battles and won,
at the end of each good day.

Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day.
But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay.

And in the shade of an evening,
when the sun paints the sky in the west,
stand for a few moments beside me,
and remember only my best.

"If you love somebody enough, you can still hear the laughter after they are gone."
