Recap previous teachings:

The Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-12)

The Beatitudes, which are part of the Sermon on the Mount, are a series of eight blessings proclaimed by Jesus. They outline character traits that are indicative of a relationship with God and His kingdom. Essentially, the Beatitudes serve as a guide for living a life that reflects the values of God's kingdom, promising blessings to those who embody these qualities.

The 7 I AM Statements

The "I am" statements found in the Gospel of John are:

The Bread of Life (6:35),

The Light of the world (8:12),

The Door (10:7),

The Good Shepherd (10:11, 14),

The Resurrection and the Life (11:25), The way the truth and the life (14:6) The True Vine (15:1).

The recorded Miracles Jesus did

The eight astonishing Events After Jesus Died

God in the beginning, Sin, and why we needed a Savior, Jesus.

The need and reasons for love and forgiveness.

All of these teachings and topics listed, as well as every other one we've covered that aren't listed are either directly from the Bible or inspired by 'life and life's varied subject matter' but strictly supported by scripture references.

Who Are You In The Bible?

You, are you!

How many times does the word 'you' appear in the Bible?

As noted on Quora:

- You occurs 14,399 times in the English Standard Version. (ESV)
- You occurs 14,480 times in the New King James Version. (NKJV)
- You occurs 2616 times in the King James Version - 11,917 if you count you or thou or thee (KJV)

This is not intended to fill your head with meaningless stats, but to reveal the full measure of your importance and value to the Father through Christ Jesus.

Who am I? What is my identity?

I am a Christian!?

*When I say that "I am a Christian," I am not shouting that "I am clean living." I'm whispering "I was lost, but now I'm found and forgiven."

*When I say "I am a Christian," I don't speak of this with pride. I'm confessing that I stumble and need Christ to be my guide.

*When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not trying to be strong. I'm professing that I am weak and need His strength to carry on.

*When I say "I am a Christian," I am not bragging of success. I'm admitting I have failed and need God to clean my mess.

*When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not claiming to be perfect. My flaws are way to visible, but God believes I am worth it.

*When I say "I am a Christian," I still feel the stings of pain. I have my share of headaches, so I call upon His name.

*When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not 'holier-than-thou.' I'm just a simple sinner who received God's good grace, somehow!

Yet, Just to survive in this cruel world, we often withdraw from forgiveness, repentance and the vulnerability of love.

We cannot choose to be cautious or selective in love, forgiveness or repentance and also walk in the power of God's Kingdom in Christ Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

To counter pain, we unconsciously shut down our love, because it is love itself that makes us vulnerable. God wants us to be a people whose capacity to love is growing; ever increasing, by way of His endless outpouring of love upon us, and into us, to overflowing in trust and in truth. To grow hot, not cold.

So, then who am I In the Bible?

*Psalm139:14 ...I am fearfully and wonderfully made;

*2 Corinthians 5:17

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

So, let us ask again:
