

HOMEMADE DIP SELECTION

|                                                                                                                                                                         |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| CACIK v gf*                                                                                                                                                | £7  |
| Greek yogurt, shredded cucumber & garlic dip.Served with warm Greek style pitta.*gf bread option also available                                   |     |
| ESME v vgn gf*                                                                                                                                             | £7  |
| A spicy dip made with fresh chillies, onions, garlic, bell peppers & olive oil.Served with warm Greek style pitta.*gf bread option also available |     |
| HUMMUS v vgn gf* CONTAINS SESAME                                                                                                              | £7  |
| Chickpeas blended with garlic, olive oil, lemon juice & Tahini.Served with warm Greek style pitta.*gf bread option also available                 |     |
| HAYDERI WHIPPED FETA DIP v gf*                                                                                                                             | £7  |
| Feta & Greek yogurt dip with garlic & mint, topped with chilli honey.Served with warm Greek style pitta.*gf bread option also available           |     |
| HOMEMADE DIPS PLATTER v gf* CONTAINS SESAME                                                                                                   | £12 |
| A selection of all the above homemade dips accompanied with warm Greek style pitta.*gf bread option also available                                           |     |
| All of our homemade dips are served with warm Greek style pitta.Extra baskets of Pitta £4   *gf bread also available                                  |     |
| House Special HUMMUS SUCUK CONTAINS SESAME                                                                                                          | £9  |
| Our homemade hummus topped with pan fried Turkish garlic beef sausage.Served with warm Greek style pitta.                                                    |     |
| MIXED OLIVES                                                                                                                                                            | £5  |
| A portion of our delicious mixed olives to nibble on!                                                                                                                   |     |

TURKISH TAKEOVER MENU

Available Mondays throughout the summer

*Our regular menu is available
Tuesday – Sunday only*

MEZE STYLE DISHES

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| SARMA v gf vgn*                                                                                                                                                                                                | £8 |
| 3 large vine leaves filled with a sweet & savoury basmati rice, currants & a splash of pomegranate syrup. Served with a yogurt, cucumber &amp; garlic dip.*Vegan dips are also available see dips section |    |
| PATATAS v                                                                                                                                                                                                      | £8 |
| 3 fluffy, oven baked, cheese & potato patties with a hint of garlic, spice & topped with Nigella seeds.Served with a yogurt, garlic &amp; cucumber dip &amp; side salad.                                         |    |
| SIGARA BOREGI v                                                                                                                                                                                                | £9 |
| Filo pastry cigars filled with feta cheese and onions, shallow fried.Served with a yogurt, garlic &amp; cucumber dip &amp; side salad.                                                                           |    |
| MERCHANT’S MIXED MEZE PLATTER FOR ONE v                                                                                                                                                                        | £9 |
| An individual platter containing one each of Patatas, Sarma & Sigara.Served with a yogurt, garlic &amp; cucumber dip &amp; side salad.                                                                           |    |
| GREEK SALAD v gf                                                                                                                                                                                               | £9 |
| A medley of leaves, onions, peppers, tomatoes & cucumber, topped with Feta cheese & olives, tossed in olive oil & lemon juice.                                                                                              |    |
| HOORAH FOR HALLOUMI v gf                                                                                                                                                                                       | £9 |
| A Mediterranean favourite! Grilled Halloumi slices layered with sliced fresh tomatoes & a balsamic drizzle.                                                                                                                 |    |

BREAKFAST STYLE DISHES

Available all day

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |        |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| MENEMEN v gf*                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | £14    |
| Tomatoes, garlic, black pepper, onions, bell peppers & a hint of spice cooked with eggs, served with toasted Sourdough.*gf bread also available, not sourdough                                                                                                                                                                                               |        |
| TURKISH DELIGHT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | £16.95 |
| Eat like a Sultan & enjoy one of our traditional Turkish breakfasts, any time of the day!This feast consists of 3 whole eggs cooked with a garlicky beef sausage called Sucuk.Served with Feta cheese, fresh tomatoes, cucumber, mixed olives, honey & warm bread.Accompanied with an individual pot of Turkish black tea or a black Turkish coffee. |        |
| TURKISH EGGS IN BUTTER & PAPRIKA v gf*                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | £9     |
| Hard boiled eggs cooked in melted butter & paprika.Served with warm Greek style pitta.*gf bread also available, not sourdough                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |        |
| SOURDOUGH SMASH v gf* vgn*                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | £9     |
| Our delicious avocado smash, homemade hummus, olives & side salad accompanied with crunchy sourdough toast & butter.*Please ask for plant based spread / *gf toast (not sourdough) to make this dish suitable for your dietary needs.                                                                                                                        |        |

DIETARY KEY

v VEGETARIAN / vgn VEGAN / gf GLUTEN FREE

vgn* CAN BE MADE VEGAN PLEASE ASK
gf* CAN BE MADE GLUTEN FREE PLEASE ASK