Lovingly crafted by Universe, Cosmos, and Divine Beings, these totes are made to be your companions — the ones that walk beside you when you're creating, reflecting, or simply existing in your magic.

Design & Energy

Each tote is DTF printed in bright, cosmic pastel hues — from lavender dreams to mint serenity and sunshine yellow joy. The colours are chosen intentionally to match the message, blending energy and emotion into something tangible.

Made from 100% natural cotton canvas and printed with CMYK inks, every piece is made to order — created with care, intention, and a touch of stardust.

These totes aren't just accessories; they're reminders — to pause, to breathe, to trust, to speak, to love, and to honor your divine self.

Carry the Universe with You.

Each tote is a small act of love — for yourself and for the world around you. Because when you heal, rest, and trust yourself... the whole cosmos feels it.

Created with love. Guided by the cosmos. Shared with the world.

A note from the creator:

“Every design in this collection was born from my heart — from lessons I've lived, feelings I've healed, and dreams I still hold. I wanted to create something that reminds people that they are divine, powerful, and worthy of love — in every phase of life.”
