FATHER'S CORNER:

Gratitude is one of the sweet shortcuts in finding peace of mind and happiness inside. No matter what is happening outside of us, there's always something we can be grateful for.

MEDITATION:

To the Church of God ... to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours. (1 Corinthians 1:2) At the beginning of his First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul says that he was "called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God." (1 Corinthians 1:1) That calling changed him and reoriented his life. Then he goes on to tell the Corinthians that God had called them, too – to be holy, with everyone else who calls upon the name of Jesus. (1:2). Through Baptism, they had been called to see and love each other as fellow members of Christ's body.

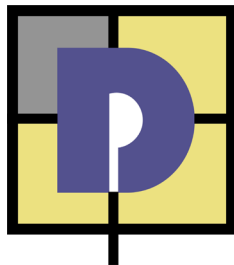

This was an important reminder for the Corinthians because Paul goes on to tackle some problems he has heard about in their community, starting with factionalism and disunity. Paul urges them, in light of their calling, "that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose." (1 Corinthians 1:10) God had called them to be part of His own family, and that meant allowing Him to uproot any selfishness or pride that would give rise to prejudices, divisions, and other barriers between them.

Today, we begin the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, and this year's theme comes from Ephesians 4:4: "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling." That might remind you of today's first reading. We are called, and that calling changes us. It's meant to lead us to unity with everyone who belongs to Jesus. It's meant to urge us to love each other to the point that we're united.

So how do we start? A first step is to let Jesus help you see and love other Christians as fellow members of His body. So, for the rest of this week, join believers around the world in praying ... for unity.

"Lord Jesus, on the night before You died for us, You prayed that all Your disciples may be perfectly one, as You are in Your Father and Your Father is in You. Make us painfully aware of our lack of faith in not being united. Give us the faithfulness to acknowledge, and the courage to reject, our hidden indifference, distrust, and even enmity towards one another. Grant that we all may meet one another in You, so that from our souls and our lips there may ever arise Your prayer for the unity of Christians as You will it and by the means that You desire. In You, who are perfect Love, grant us to find the way that leads to unity, in obedience to Your love and Your truth. Amen"
