Have you visited our Prayer Garden?

There is a small, quiet, sylvan gem in the back of our property. Beautifully landscaped and lovingly maintained, it hosts a stone bench for sitting; Here you can pray, reflect, and enjoy a peaceful pause. Look for it down the hill behind the garage. Each season it holds a different charm- now it is in it's summer glory.

Our Traditional Worship Service has changed to start at 10:30am for the summer. We will resume meeting at 11:00am on September 11th

Annual Clam Bake

LMC will again be hosting our annual Clam Bake. Thank you to Dave and Tina Kvedaras, who will coordinate this event to be held Saturday, September 10th at 4:00pm at the church. You can sign up on the church bulletin board to let us know you are coming and what side you would like to bring or contact the church office. Tickets are $25.00 each and will be $30.00 after Sunday, August 28th. Please note, this is an adults only event.

LMC Book Drop

Keep the books coming and don't forget to check out the Book Swap table. Books will be placed in the donation bin app. 2 weeks after their turn on the table.

LunchBreak Food Collection

Keep those donations coming! Our bins are getting full but we can always use more. Thanks to everyone who is supporting this very special mission!

LMC Church Garden

Check out the progress in our garden! We have a new gate to make it easier to access the garden for maintenance. Thanks to Paul Krosnicki and Pastor Detrie for their hard work in building and installing the gate. We have crops coming in and more work to do to add our watering system. Contact the church office at 732-542-2727 to volunteer to help Victor Russomanno and Bryan Nesci as we spread the love of God by helping to feed our neighbors.
