Chelmsford Sri Srinivasa Perumal Temple

Dear Devotees and Supporters,

With immense gratitude, we are thrilled to share that the Chelmsford Sri Srinivasa Perumal Temple has achieved remarkable progress thanks to your unwavering support and dedication. Together, we have come so far on this journey of creating a spiritual sanctuary for our community.

The final and most sacred task now upon us is the construction of the Garbhagriha (sanctum sanctorum) and the Sannidhis for our deities, including Lord Srinivasa Perumal. These divine sculptures, meticulously crafted by renowned Shilpa artists in India, are already on their way to becoming the heart of our temple.

With great reverence and joy, we are targeting the sacred ceremonies of Samprokshana and Kumbhabhishekam this coming July. These rituals will consecrate the temple, marking the culmination of our collective efforts and fulfilling our long-standing dream of a year-round place of worship in Chelmsford.

Dhanyavad CSPT

Essex is home to a growing and vibrant 15,357 Hindu community (2021), with many of you residing in towns like Braintree, Maldon, Chelmsford, and Colchester. CSPT stands as a symbol of our shared heritage, providing countless benefits to our families and future generations.

A Spiritual Anchor

CSPT offers a sacred space for worship, connecting us to our traditions and offering solace in times of joy and challenges.

Regular pujas, aartis, and spiritual discourses provide opportunities for spiritual growth and inner peace.

Cultural Preservation and Celebration

Participate in cultural programs that teach our children about our rich traditions through music, dance, and drama.

Community Learning and Support

Attend educational workshops and spiritual classes for both children and adults.

Youth programs and language classes help younger generations stay connected to their roots.

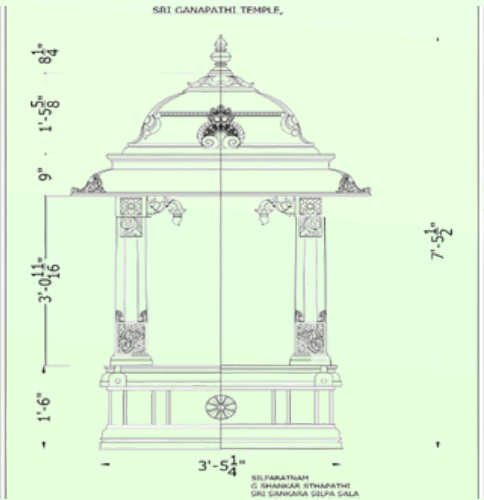

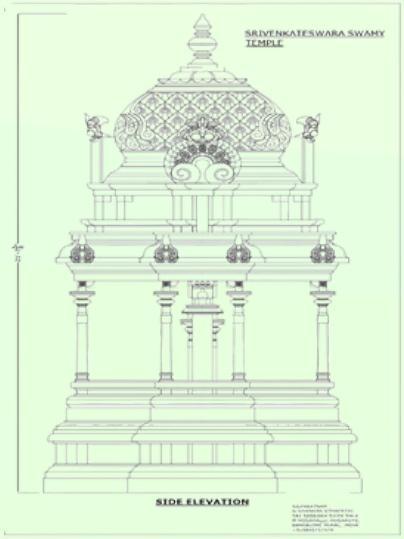

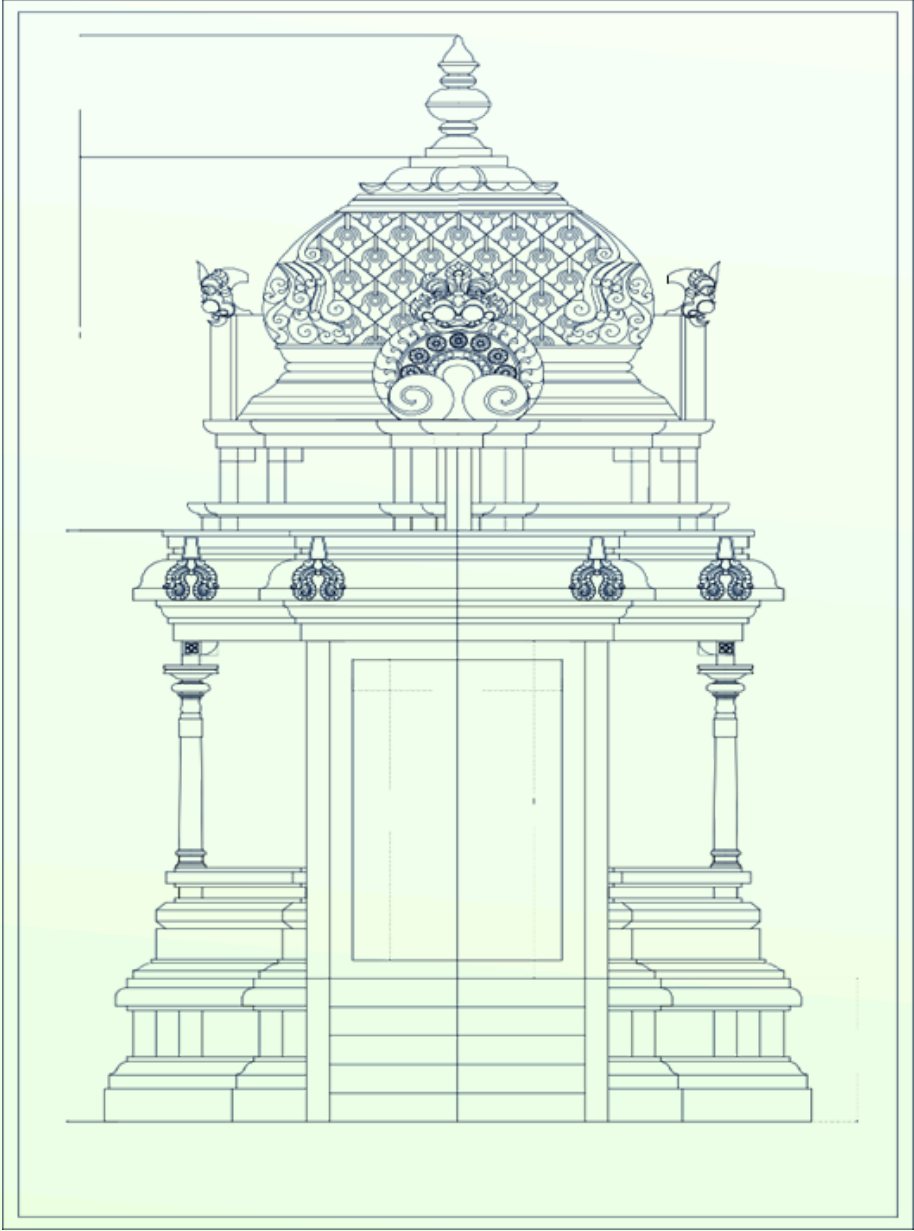

Giving Back and Social Service

Participate in charitable activities organised by the temple, from food drives to supporting local causes.

Your involvement helps CSPT serve not just the Hindu community but the broader Essex society.
