Preparatory Ādhivāsas & Devotee Participation

As a sacred prelude to the grand Samprokṣaṇa and Prāṇa Pratiṣṭhā Mahotsavam, a series of Ādhivāsa rituals will be performed for the Sila Mūrtis, led by our devoted Ācāryas and temple priests. These include sanctification and spiritual preparation of the deities through Dhānya, Jala, Kṣīra, and Taila Ādhivāsas, invoking the five elements and divine grace into every aspect of the ritual.

Dhānyādhivāsam

7th July (Monday) – 9th July (Wednesday) – From 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM

Rituals begin with Dhānyādhivāsam, where sacred grains symbolising prosperity and fertility envelop the deities in auspiciousness. This marks the spiritual awakening of the Bera Murthis and the utsava Mūrtis.

Jalādhivāsam

10th July (Thursday) – From 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM

The sanctified immersion of the deities in holy water (jala) continues over a day, allowing for meditative recitations and cleansing rituals that honour Varuṇa and the divine element of water.

Kṣīrādhivāsam

11th July (Friday) – From 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM

The deities are lovingly bathed in sacred milk and fragrant substances. This ritual invokes nurturing energy and rejuvenation, preparing the Mūrtis for the final energising steps.
