

PAA Regular Meeting , January 27, 2022

Present: Pat Denney, Sharon Brocha, Becky Schuyten, Robyn Patterson, Deb Hart, Diane Gardner, Ann Mecham, Larry Harbaugh, Dianna Worth, Brian Buntain, Annie Jones, Carmelia Meyers, Kathy Magneson, Elinor Lindquest, Linda Both, Steve Charles

Pat: Dues are due. 11 people paid. Jora Lee is still the treasurer but we need a new one. How do we spend our money? No comment except we all agreed that it was worth it to pay our webmaster, Renee Olson her fee of $75/month. Also encouraged everyone to send her images. Talked about the Spring Show. There was a strong census to have a members only show. After some discussion, we still like the Civic Center for the venue. Carmela suggested having a working artist on site. We also talked about places to hang art. Elinor would ask CJ's (Sisters) restaurant. Annie Jones suggested a project of painting Shelton sites and businesses and then they could hang in the businesses. Ann M also mentioned having art in the park some time. Next meeting is February 10th at 1:00, civic center.

Show and Tell: Diane G: colored pencil of bunnies, Steve C: wooden plane and car, Becky S. acrylic woods pic, Anne M: watercolors of several scenes, Larry H: 2 duck carvings and bowl in coastal indian style, Linda B: Oil of parrots and bird, Sharon B.: acrylic of trees and watercolor of flowers, Pat: wc of indigenous person, Deb H. horse image on her sweatshirt done with sprayed on bleach.

Pat gave away some spray on tree paint.

Program: Brian Buntain who use to teach about the indigenous coastal people,s art, gave us the history of it. Talked about the shapes, lines, and colors that make up their designs. He showed some examples that he had done and then we got to try to draw one.

Submitted, Becky Schuyten
