Meeting minutes

June 11, 2026

Recorded by Diane Garner

Board meeting 12:00 pm

Members present: Becky Schuyten, Diane Garner, Bonnie Jubb, Kathy Jacobson, Elinor Lindquist, Stefanie Herman, Sue Saatoff, Jim Dunithan, Dave Pierik

There was concern that some folks would try to drop off their artwork on Friday, June 19 when the Civic Center is closed. We need to make a sign for the door of the Civic Center allowing folks to bring their artwork in Monday morning if they missed the chance on Thursday.

The board decided to not limit how long ago an artwork was created, if it has not been shown before.

Take in artwork on THURSDAY JUNE 18 from Kathy and Bonnie have a system for taking in artwork and making sure it is tagged and numbered.

We need volunteers to help keep things organized during the take-in process. If they are not pre-registered, folks will need to fill out entry forms and pay or fill out a membership form and pay. Applications and registration forms will be available at check-in.

MONDAY JUNE 22 8:30 AM All hands on deck to help put up the panels and hang the artwork. The more of us who show up the quicker the process will be.

Monday – Friday June 22- Art show. If you would like to volunteer to be a docent at the show, please contact Kathy Jacobson (503)539-2274. She'll add you to the list.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 24 4:30-6:30pm Artist reception. Invite your friends and family to come help celebrate the artwork.

The board decided to only award the Mayor's choice award at the Wednesday reception, because the votes will still be coming in for People's choice.

Becky will investigate ribbons for the winners. The board decided to award $50 gift certificates to Graffiti Art Works as prizes.

Becky will bring tablecloths.

Diane will bring the guestbook.

Becky will look into contacting Jeff Slakey at KMAS to help spread the word.

Youth Connection Rising stars – Nick Altieri was planning to contact the Youth Connection folks. Nick was not at the meeting, so we don't have an update on that.

Becky made several sandwich board signs she will post around the area.

Our July meeting will consist of a general meeting, followed by a Plein Air outdoor art session for those who wish to participate.

In October we will host Sue Barnard who will show us how to make greeting cards from napkins.

August and September meetings are still open if anyone has suggestions for programs.

Becky reminded us of the Oysterfest Poster Contest deadline June 12, however they may accept late entries.

ART WALK JULY 25

PAA has been offered three 10x10 spaces to display artwork – lots more room this year! We will need tables and canopies. We'll need to arrange our space to allow for guests to walk around and take a good look at the artwork. Art Walk organizers would like PAA members requesting their own booth to make a note of their membership so they can give them spaces nearby. Graffiti Art Works has also offered to showcase artwork for PAA members. More information to come. Our contact person for Art Walk is Bonnie Jubb.

GENERAL MEETING 1:00 pm

See above Board meeting minutes for details about the upcoming art show.

Welcome new members:

Jody Holm. Jody's favored medium is mosaic, and she has just opened her home studio – Creative Chaos Makers.

Joan Christy – Joan likes to work in black and white, pen, ink and pencil.

We further discussed ideas for finding a less expensive venue for meetings. The senior center is an option but we'd have to work out the details.

Jeff Meyer recommended an America 250 theme for Arts Walk.

Today's meeting presentation is Dave Pierik, showing us how to flock miniatures. It will be flocking amazing.

Our July meeting will be at the civic center, and afterward those who are interested can join us outdoors for a session of Plein Aire artwork.

Other suggestions for meetings include a field trip to visit galleries in Olympia.

Greg Bartol recommended we visit the Carpenter's House 212 Legion Way to see some amazing woodwork.

Pamela Roebuck mentioned that the old T's café is now known as Tolly's place, and owner Eric Onisko is very interested in featuring local artwork. He would even be willing to sell it for you.

She is also reading Jeff Meyer's new book Out of Darkness, and highly recommends it.

Pat Denney suggested the clubhouse at Christmas Village for our annual Christmas party.

SHOW AND TELL

Stefanie Herman shared a watercolor on canvas of an amusing duck face.

Bonnie Jubb brought in a colored pencil drawing of poppies.

Pat Denney shared a print of her submission to the Oysterfest Poster Contest. It was a watercolor drawing of an octopus and some crabs sharing an oyster.

Jim Dunithan shared a painting of Railroad Ave featuring Tolly the steam engine. He also brought another acrylic painting featuring dark colors and symbolic designs.

Pamela Roebuck brought a cypress knee carving of an “ugly man”. In lore, the ugly man, or green man is said to bring growth and rebirth.

Diane Garner shared a watercolor seascape. She is attempting to improve her watercolor skills by putting “miles on the brush”.

Kathy Jacobson brought a lovely fused glass plate.

Stefanie Herman brought in an interesting conglomeration of stones and shells she found at Pacific Beach.

Dave Pierik shared a collection of miniature figurines he created for gaming.
