

ALYSSA HURLEY

SCREENWRITER

Profile

Driven by a lifelong passion for storytelling, I've honed my craft as both an artist and writer. After earning an advanced diploma from West Springfield High School in May 2023, I continued my academic journey at SCAD, specializing in Dramatic Writing. With a clear vision for my future, I'm fervently pursuing a path to become a distinguished showrunner, animated television producer, and television scriptwriter.
