Summer's Here and the Pool is open.

Pool safety is important to review each year. Taking practical steps to prevent child drownings is important for all families, especially those with a child who faces a heightened risk – such as a child with special needs.

Does the color of your pool bottom affect the ability of your lifeguards to see a person on the bottom of the pool?

Research from the Lifesaving Society has answered this question with a definitive "Yes".

Tots to Teens is Growing

Tots is excited to announce we will have several new faces joining us this Summer.

Emily LeVan (SLP) - June 9th

When she is not working or planning her September 2026 wedding, she loves exercising, catching up with family and friends, exploring new places, and spending time with her adorable German Shepherd puppy, Lexi.

Anoli Mehta (SLP) - June 30th

Anoli loves to do any kind of art, and she specifically enjoys doing calligraphy (wedding signage, seasonal cards, etc). She is a huge Swiftie and also loves to play pickleball.

Leena Sayed (SLP) - July 7th

Outside of work, she enjoys nail art, Marvel movies, and exploring new coffee shops with friends.

Brian Jackson (OT) - July 7th

Brian volunteers for organizations like Soccer Buddies and Special Olympics, loves animals and is passionate about service animals and therapy dogs. Also enjoys sports, particularly volleyball and basketball.

Davina Lane (PT) - July 14th

Outside of the clinic, she loves reading, spending time with her playful pitbull, Titan, and taking well-earned power naps.
