A Message from your Exalted Ruler

Hello members all. I hope this note finds you all home, safe and sound. As mentioned last month, the Lodge is closed until further notice. I feel this is necessary given the dire circumstances we are enduring.

We have Grand Lodge's blessing to stay closed as long as we feel it necessary. No reason to take any chances.

We did hold our regular meetings in April but with just the absolutely bare minimum of people present. According to our statutes, we still have certain obligations to fulfill, case in point, paying the bills. We also installed the new Officers keeping plenty of distance between us. Larry White did the honors. Thank you, Larry.

I mentioned last month that even though the Lodge is closed, we still acquire certain bills that must be paid, i.e.: electric, insurance, water testing, gas, etc. etc. I would ask again, if you can, please help us offset these expenditures by sending a gift to the Lodge and in the memo, please write in "general fund". It will be much appreciated.

Also, just to keep you up to date, the contract to sell a portion of our property has been signed and the ball is rolling. Surveying is started and not too far from now, we should start seeing machines and equipment doing their thing.

In closing, please stay safe. We will get through this together, I promise.

Fraternally Yours,

Phil Rafferty E.R.
