

Really?????

The People of Yahuah
In the Scriptures
Were Dark Skinned!

Really?????

- The 4 people in the picture on the upper right are also considered “black” by black people, even though they have white skin.
- It’s all about Biblical heritage, and not necessarily skin color.

- PLEASE NOTE! WE USE THE TRUE NAMES OF OUR CREATOR AND SAVIOR!

Did you know that our Heavenly Father's Name Yahuah and His Son Yahusha was removed over 7000 times in our Bibles and replaced with LORD, God and Jesus which are not names but titles. Yahuah is our Heavenly Father's Name

Yahusha is the Sons Name, and it means YAH is Salvation.

Leviticus 22:32, “Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am Yahuah which hallow you.”

Think about this, have we all been brain washed into believing that there are black and white people? In reality, we are all different shades of brown and Yahuah created all people and loves all people equally. The black and white issue was invented by the evil one Satan to cause hatred and racism.

Christianity is the counterfeit religion whitewashing the true people of Yahuah who were made up of all people and nations. Too many people often confuse the word “black” as a literal reference to skin color, but that is not the case. Someone can be considered “black” even if they are mixed or albino with white skin. Some people are considered black, even though they are mixed and have lighter skin.

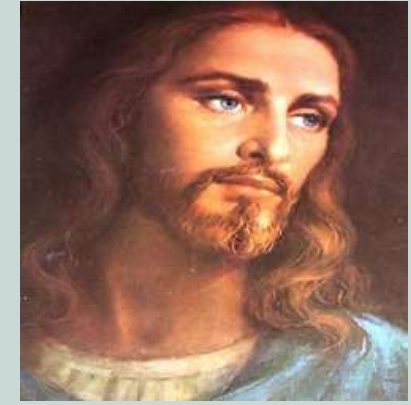

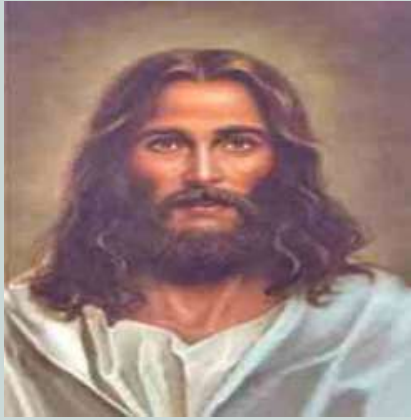

What are the facts?

- We have also been deceived
- Into believing that the true
- Messiah's Name was Jesus
- And that He was of light
- Skin with blue eyes!

THE FACT IS: Our Messiah's Name isn't Brian or Ba'al and it isn't Jesus or Christ either! There was no letter J in the English language until 400 years ago so how could our Savior's name be Jesus? This fake Savior is an invention of Constantine who revived the pagan religion and called it Christianity.

Can you see the resemblance of Je-Zus and Zeus? The Greek Messiah called Jesus is the Anti-Messiah. On the left you see a painting of Cesare Borgia the son of Pope Alexander VI and on the right, you see the image of Jesus as promoted by Christianity to be the Son of YAH (God). All lies and deception. Yahusha is our Savior, and He came in His Father's Name Yahuah. Notice Yah is common to both the Father and the Son.

The Image of Jesus Christ is really Cesare
Borgia

In the early 1500s, Pope Alexander VI employed Leonardo da Vinci to paint his son, Cesare Borgia, as Christ. Michelangelo first painted the most common religious image used in deceiving the world today. It is a picture of a blue-eyes European with blond hair, who they maliciously claim to be Jesus Christ. This false image was modelled after Cesare Borgia, who was the second son of so-called Pope Alexander VI, of Rome. Can you see the resemblance of Cesare and the pictures used to represent the Christian Jesus?

All our lives, we have been taught that the Messiah was blue eyed, blond haired, a man of light skin color. This image of a white messiah appears in churches across the world in the different Christian denominations. But this image of a white skinned messiah as has been presented to us, it is false. Not only was the Hebrew Messiah dark skinned, but most people mentioned in the Bible were different shades of brown. From Adam to Paul, the writings in the book that we call the “Bible” were all written by people of different shades of color. Think about it!

that this has nothing to with racism, it is purely stating the facts according to historical, archaeological findings and the Scriptures themselves.

It will then make sense that because the Messiah was born a Hebrew with a Hebrew mother then He would have a Hebrew name! Is "Jesus" a Hebrew name? No.

Is it just merely coincidence that "Ieso" is the Greek goddess of healing, daughter of the chief deity Zeus?

Research reveals that the name "Jesus" is linked to the Greek Sun-god "Zeus" "exposed in the book - COME OUT OF HER MY PEOPLE, by C. J. Koster"

"It has been all along known well enough that the Greeks occasionally worshipped the supreme deity under the title of "Zeus the Saviour. . ." - The Two Babylon by Dr. Alexander Hislop.

The time of ignorance is over. It is time to return to using the rightful Hebrew Name of Messiah - "Yahshua"

HALLELU-YAH!

YAH IS HIS NAME Ps.68:4 . .

- Isaiah 42:8, “I am Yahuah: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.”
- So, the name Jesus Christ comes from the pagan god they call Je-Zeus Christ, Yea-sus or Yea-Zeus by the early heathen Christians.

Why would Roman Catholicism want to deceive the whole world into worshipping “another god”?

The battle has always been about who do you worship. Satan wants all the worship for himself and has used the Catholic church to blend paganism sun worship mixed with Christianity to teach lies and deception causing confusion. Satan even tempted Yahusha in the wilderness saying, “If you therefore will worship me, all shall be yours.” (Cepher) Luke 4:7

• 2 Corinthians 11:14, “And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.” (Cepher)

How did the ancient Israelites look physically?

Although the Scriptures and other historical documents have left a lot of evidence that confirms the physical appearance of the Israelites, much of this information is still unknown to the masses. The popular belief today among Christians, scholars and theologians, is that the people known as "Ashkenazi Jews" are the direct descendants of the ancient Israelites.

These are the Zionist Jews who hate Yahusha Messiah and follow Rabbinical tradition and the evil Talmud including Kabbalah, instead of the Scriptures. Yahusha exposed these people who say they are Jews and are not as belonging to the synagogue of Satan. Yahusha stated in John 8:44, “Ye are of your father the devil.” They hate true followers of Yahusha who obey Covenant Torah and have no problem murdering innocent people in the name of Yahuah for self enrichment.

They have deceived most of the world into believing that the Israel of today is from Yahuah when it is all part of the New World Order designed to deceive millions into supporting the land of Israel financially.

Israel, the people, is mentioned in Scripture over 2,500 times. The Scriptures contain the Hebrews' entire history. In fact, no other people on the face of the earth have such an extensive recorded history, not even the ancient Egyptians. Everything we need to know about the ancient Hebrews is contained in Scripture.

ISRAEL IN THE LAND OF EGYPT

The Egyptians were dark skinned as can be seen in all the paintings and architecture found and hidden from the public. The history of the Israelite nation began in Egypt, the land of Ham. They entered Egypt 75 in number, (not including Joseph, his wife and two sons who were already in Egypt) and left numbering over two million people.

ISRAEL SPENT 215 YEARS IN THE LAND OF EGYPT!

Some people may wonder why I use 215 years as the number of years the people of Israel were in Egypt instead of 400 and 430 years as stated in Scripture. The time from Abraham's call to Jacob's entry into Egypt was 215 years, being the total of (1) thirty years lying between Abraham's call and the birth of Isaac (Genesis 12:4; 21:5), (2) sixty years lying between Isaac's birth and Jacob's birth (Genesis 25:26), and (3) the age of Jacob at the time of his migration into Egypt (Genesis 47:9). This leaves the remaining 215 years of the 430 as the actual time the Hebrews spent in Egypt. Hence the 430 years of Exodus 12:40 includes the sojourn of the patriarchs in Canaan as well as their stay in Egypt.

One of the facts Scripture gives us about Israel, is regarding their physical appearance. Throughout Scripture Israel is described as looking like the sons of Ham (Khawm in the Hebrew tongue), in physical appearance.

Ham was one of Noah's three sons,

Shem and Japheth were the other two. Noah's descendants repopulated the earth after the Great Flood. Ham's descendants are traced to the families of Africa.

Ham (Khawm) in Hebrew means BLACK, HOT AND BURNT.

Ham had four sons,

1. CUSH (Ethiopians / Cushite's & Nubians),
2. MIZRAIM (Egyptians / Khemet),
3. PHUT (Ancient Libyans or Somalia),
4. CANAAN (Canaanite, the original inhabitants of the land of Israel) Genesis 10:6-19.

All four of Ham's sons and their descendants settled in and around the continent of Africa, this includes the so-called Middle East which is also a part of the Continent of Africa. Ham sons are the people of the African continent, the Ancient Egyptians, Ethiopians, Somalia's, Canaanites etc. The Israelites are descendants of Noah son SHEM, through Abraham, he is the father of the Hebrew Israelite Nation.

The Israelites are descendants of Noah's son SHEM, through Abraham, he is the father of the Hebrew Israelite Nation.

Abraham is the father of Isaac, Isaac is the father of Jacob, Jacob had twelve sons and these sons are the progenitors of the Israelite nation. The Twelve tribes of Israel are as follows:

REUBEN, GAD, SIMEON, ASHER, LEVI, NAPHTALI, JUDAH, ISSACHAR, ZEGULON, JOSEPH, DAN AND BENJAMIN!

Each one of Jacob's sons became a tribal nation, that made up the greater nation of Israel. EXAMPLE: Reuben's descendants became known as the tribe of Reuben. Judah's descendants became known as the tribe of Judah and so on and so forth. The nation of Israel are the descendants of Jacob who had his name changed to Israel by the Most-High (Gen 28:32).

Did you know that the lineage of many of Noah's sons settled in Africa?

I'm referring to the lineage of Ham, the middle son of Noah. While most of Ham's children and grandchildren settled in Africa, you might be surprised to discover that it was his son Canaan and his grandson Nimrod that were instrumental in settling the Middle East. ...

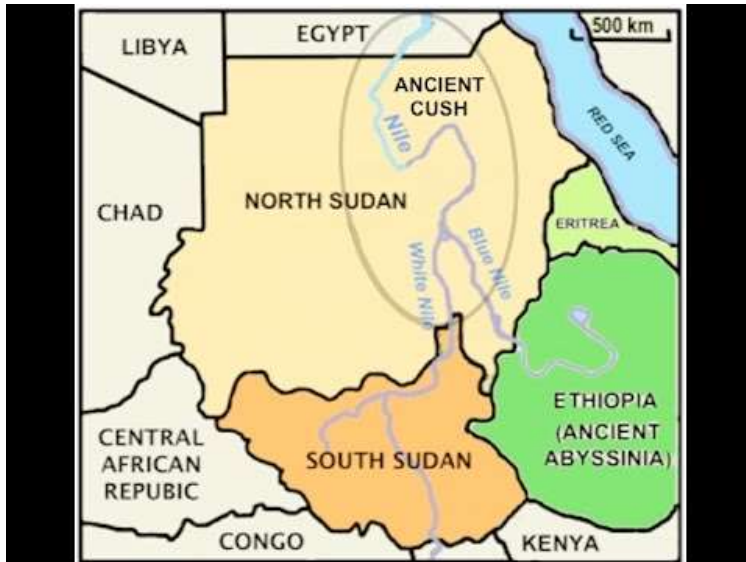

The Founding of Egypt
The Founding of Ethiopia
The Founding of Sudan
The Founding of Libya
The Founding of Israel

These five countries form the foundation from which most of the Bible takes place. Not only are they important geographically, but they also play very important roles in Bible prophecy.

CUSH: The Founder of Sudan

While we don't know how long after the flood that the grandchildren were born, but we know who they were. Cush is the son of Ham, and grandson of Noah. "And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan." – Genesis 10:6 As the sons of Ham began to spread out from "the land of Ham", it is Cush that settles the area currently known as Sudan. It is here that Cush begins to have sons that will also eventually spread out to other areas. The Sons of Cush (Genesis 10:7-8)) Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, Sabtecha, Nimrod

The Queen of Sheba – Solomon's Ethiopian Mistress!

Perhaps the most famous love affair of all time is that of Solomon and The Queen of Sheba. So, who was the Queen of Sheba and why is she important? Let's start from the beginning. “And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.” – Genesis 10:7. To break it down, Sheba was the grandson of Cush and the great grandson of Ham.

When the descendants of Ham began to settle Africa, Seba (son of Cush) settled the portion of Africa now known as Ethiopia.

When Sheba settled, he settled in what is currently Yemen, but at the time it was part of the Eastern territory controlled by Ethiopia. Sheba was essentially a city within the Ethiopian state.

Who Was the Queen of Sheba?

Her name is not given in Scripture, but what we know is that she had heard the fame of Solomon and wanted to test his wisdom with “hard questions”. “And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Yahuah, she came to prove him with hard questions.” – 1 Kings 10:1.

She arrives with a massive caravan full of gifts for Solomon, even though he is already rich beyond belief. After she is satisfied with his answers, The Queen of Sheba gives Solomon unmatched riches from her kingdom. “And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.” – 1 King 10:10

Solomon's Secret Son

While it doesn't appear in the Bible, there is a huge part of Ethiopian culture that does believe Solomon had a son with the Queen of Sheba, by the name of Menelik. The story explains why Judaism and Christianity are deeply rooted in Ethiopian culture. According to part of the legend, after Menelik came to meet Solomon, he was sent home along with 1,000 people from each tribe (12,000 Hebrews), and The Ark of The Covenant. After returning home, Menelik became the 1st leader of the Solomonic Dynasty.

Ham: The Father of Africans!

Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham (Cham), and Japheth, but it is Ham and his lineage that settled Africa and various parts of the Middle East.

According to Scripture, the brothers were born when Noah was 500 years old.“ And Noah was five hundred years old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.” – Genesis 5:32 According to the Strong's Concordance #2526 (Cham) is defined as: a son of Noah, also his descendants, also a name for Egyptians. In ancient Hebrew culture, it was customary to list the children in the order of their birth, which makes Ham the middle son.

Ham was Noah's son

“And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard: And he drank of the wine and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent. And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without. “And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him. And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.” – Genesis 9:24-25

The verse refers to Noah's “younger son”, but he then curses his grandson.

The reason for this is that both sons and grandsons were simply referred to as “sons”. The words grandfather, grandson, grandmother, and granddaughter are not used in the King James Version. They are referred to as sons and daughters. As we learned above, children were usually (not always) listed in the order in which they were born, and Genesis 10:6 lists Canaan as the last son of Ham, which fits with Noah referring to his “younger son”.

The Lineage of Ham

It is through Ham's lineage that we see the development of most of Africa and parts of the Middle East, including modern day Israel and Iraq. Here is a breakdown of Ham's lineage and the countries they founded. We know that Africa was considered the “land of Ham” because of the following verse: “Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.” – Psalms 105:23. For those that believe the Bible is the inspired word of Yahuah, there is no question that major portions of the Middle East were established by dark skinned Africans. Another rarely made connection to Nimrod is Abraham. Abraham lived in Ur, which was in Babylon, and fell under the rule of Nimrod. It is out of Nimrod's kingdom that Abraham was chosen by Yahuah.

Nimrod: The First African (Cushite) World Leader!

The Reign of Nimrod

According to Scripture, Nimrod became a mighty hunter before Yahuah, but there are scholars that point out that both tradition and the Hebrew word “before” indicates he hunted in defiance of Yahuah. “And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. He was a mighty hunter before Yahuah: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before Yahuah. Genesis 10:8-9

Babel – The First African (Cushite) World Capital!

Babel was the center of the first world empire and was founded by Nimrod, the son of Cush and grandson of Ham. “And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. He was a mighty hunter before Yahuah wherefore it is said, even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before Yahuah and the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.” – Genesis 10:8-10 Babel is also the place where the people had advanced to a level where they wanted to build a tower that reached into the heavens, but Yahuah destroyed it. Did you know that Babel was founded by Nimrod, who was originally from Sudan, Africa?

• “Therefore, is the name of it called Babel; because Yahuah did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did Yahuah scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.” – Genesis 11:9

Joshua: Israel's African Leader with Egyptian Blood

Joshua was foundational in establishing the kingdom of Israel after the death of Moses. However, many people, including myself at one time, knew very little about his background. Many of us pick up the Joshua story from his report back to Moses, along with the eleven other spies. Out of the twelve spies sent into Canaan, only Joshua and Caleb left a good report. But his story starts long before he became a spy. During Joseph's stay in Egypt, he married Asenath (Genesis 41:45), the daughter of an Egyptian priest and had two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh. Ephraim and Manasseh were Hebrew and Egyptian (African) from their Egyptian mother. ...

...Upon his deathbed, Jacob adopts Ephraim and Manasseh as his own sons, and gives them Reuben's birthright (1 Chronicles 5:1-2). It is into the tribe of Ephraim that Joshua was born: “Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.” – Numbers 13:8 Further down, we learn that it is Moses that changes his name to Yahusha (Joshua). This turns out to be a small, but very significant change. “These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Yahusha.” – Numbers 13:16 The name Oshea means “salvation”, but by changing it to Yahusha, the meaning changed to “Yahuah is salvation”.

During Joseph's stay in Egypt, as I just had mentioned, he married Asenath (Genesis 41:45), the daughter of an Egyptian priest and had two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh. Ephraim and Manasseh were Hebrew and Egyptian (African). Upon his deathbed, Jacob adopts Ephraim and Manasseh as his own sons, and gives them Reuben's birthright (1 Chronicles 5:1-2). It is into the tribe of Ephraim that Joshua was born: “Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.” – Numbers 13:8

Joshua, leader of Israel descended from Africans. Moses' Apprentice

When we think of the Exodus, the most used names are Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, but the entire time, Moses was training Joshua to take his position. When Moses went up Mount Sinai to receive the 10 commandments, statutes and judgments, only Joshua was allowed to accompany him to receive the word: “And Yahuah said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them. And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of Yahuah. And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.” – Exodus 24:12 – 14

Zephaniah: A Prophet and Son of a Cushite Man

“The word of Yahuah which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.” – Zephaniah 1:1

At first glance there’s nothing “special” about the verse, but when we look at the names, we find something odd. The name “Cushi” is an ETHNONYM:

Ethnonym: A name used to refer to an ethnic group, tribe, or people. – Merriam Webster

I will readily admit that I'd never heard of an ethnonym until I started research into this subject. However, the above sources make it clear that it is a description of an ethnic group. With that in mind, let's look at what the name Cushi means in Hebrew.

Cushi (Strong's #3569): Patronymically from Kuwash; a Cushite, or descendant of Cush — Cushi, Cushite, Ethiopian(-s).

Kuwash (Strong's #3568): Probably of foreign origin; Cush (or Ethiopia), the name of a son of Ham, and of his territory; also of an Israelite — Chush, Cush, Ethiopia.

When we digest the information presented and break it down, we are left with two possible, logical conclusions, as to why

Zephaniah's father was named Cushi:

He was possibly a Hebrew with dark skin that resembled Kushites and was named such because of his skin.

Kedar, Abraham's grandson was also named so, because of his dark skin.

Tamar: The African Mother of Juda's Son Pharez

The story of Tamar is brief, but important in the grand scheme of Scripture. She first appears in the Bible after Judah moves to Canaan and takes a wife for himself. He then chooses Tamar, a Canaanite woman, as the wife for his oldest son Er. “And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar.” – Genesis 38:6 After the death of Er, Onan is expected to have children with Tamar, according to tradition, but he pulls out and spills his seed, after having sex with her.

Tamar ... Continued

“And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother’s wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother. And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother’s wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother. And the thing which he did displeased Yahuah: wherefore he slew him also.” – Genesis 38:8-10

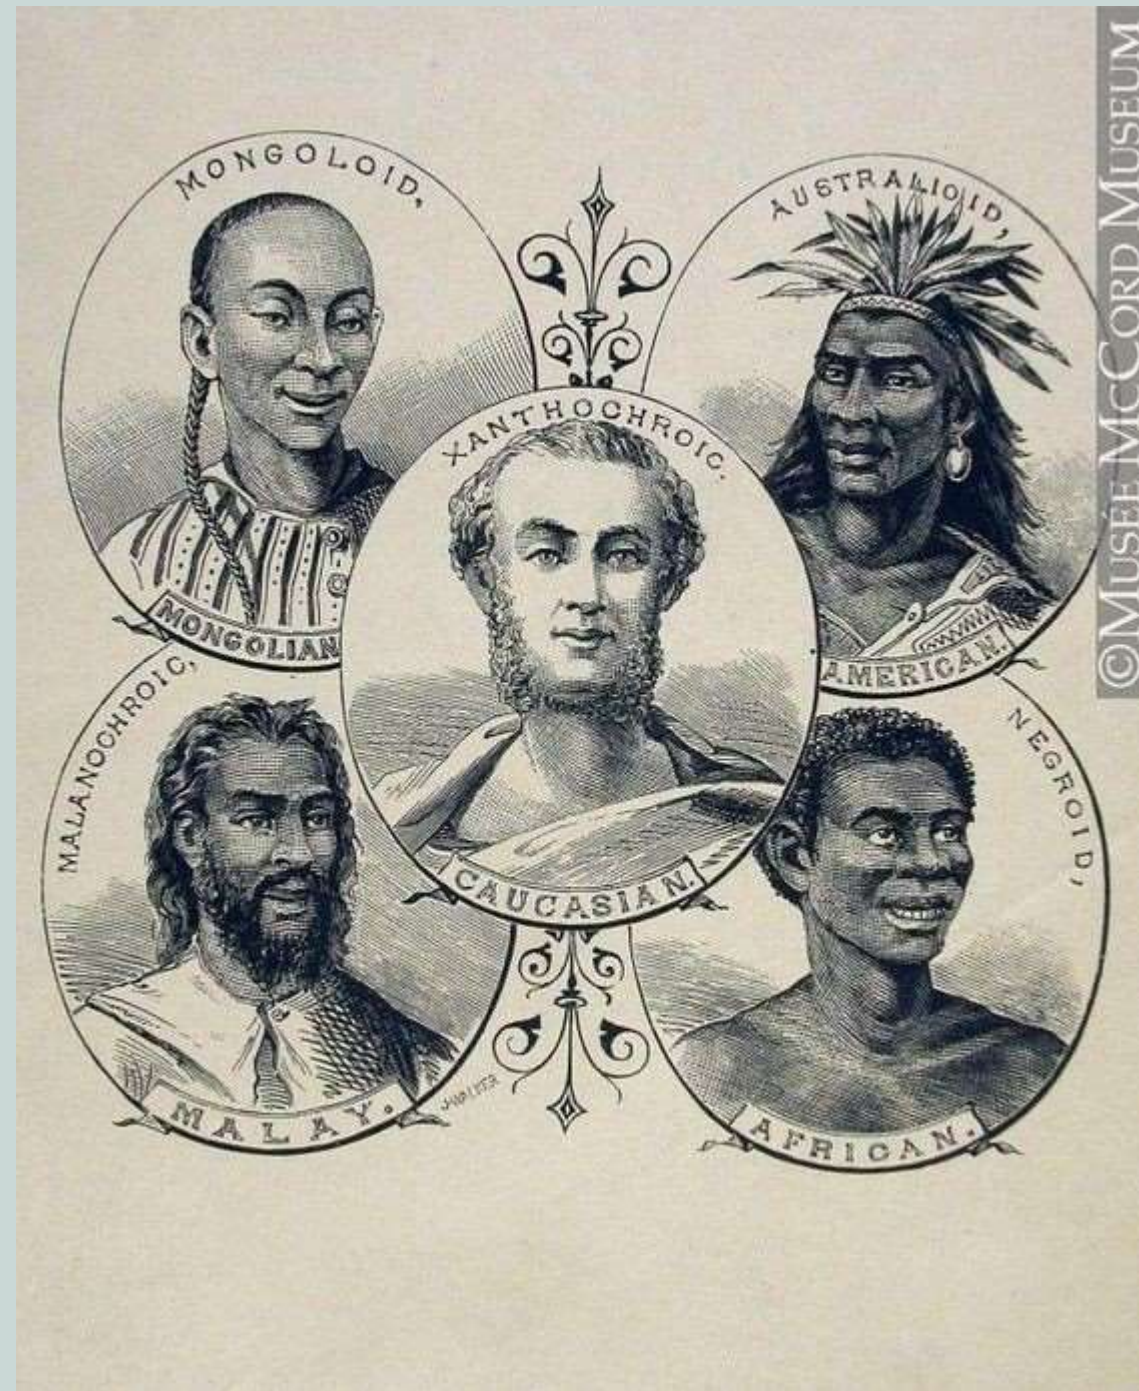

After the death of his second son, Judah tells Tamar to wait until his third son grows up, but he doesn't keep his word (Genesis 38:11-14).

Because he hadn't kept his word, Tamar dressed up like a prostitute in order to trick Judah into getting her pregnant. “When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face. And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me? And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it? And he said, what pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.” – Genesis 38:15-18

This story wouldn't be important except for the fact that one of the sons (Pharez) that Tamar gives birth to, ends up being the line from which David, and Joseph (Mary's husband) would come from. “And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore, his name was called Pharez. And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.” — Genesis 38:29-30 Tamar, being a Canaanite, means she was related to Ham by blood, and Ham was the father of the African nations. Because Tamar shared the same blood as Africans, it means that Pharez had African blood as well.

Ephraim: The Half African Tribe

When Joseph was enslaved in Egypt, he eventually rose to power and married an Egyptian woman named Asenath. Two children resulted from this marriage, and they were Ephraim and Manasseh. “And the name of the second called he Ephraim: For Yahuah has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.” – 41:52

During the blessing ceremony, Joseph places them before Jacob, and Jacob adopts both boys as his own children, thus making them “tribes” of Israel. “And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.” – 48:5. During the ceremony, Jacob blesses both boys, but he places Ephraim before Manasseh, even though he was the youngest and Joseph objected.

“And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father’s hand, to remove it from Ephraim’s head unto Manasseh’s head. And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.” – Genesis 48:17-19. It isn’t until later that we find out that the ceremony was actually the passing of the birthright from Reuben to the sons of Joseph.

“Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but forasmuch as he defiled his father’s bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph’s:)” – 1 Chronicles 5:1-2

Why the Birthright Is Important

The birthright was usually passed from father to the eldest son, essentially making him the “man of the house” after the passing of the father. The oldest son would have all rights to the money, land, slaves, etc. This status was usually assumed by the eldest son unless the father intentionally passed it onto someone else, such as what happened with Ephraim and Manasseh. Because of this ceremony, it is the half Egyptian tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh that gained all the rights of the father after the passing of Jacob.

Asenath: Joseph's Egyptian Wife

The Bible doesn't have much to say about Asenath, but in the three verses in which she is mentioned by name, we learn a few things.

She was married to Joseph (Genesis 41:45)

Her father was Potipherah, Priest of On (Genesis 41:50)

Her sons were Ephraim and Manasseh (Genesis 46:20)

Her sons Ephraim and Manasseh would eventually be adopted by Jacob and receive the birthright.

Hagar: Abraham's Egyptian Wife

- When Sarah failed to get pregnant, as Yahuah promised her, she would, she decided to take things into her own hands, and give her Egyptian handmaid Hagar to Abraham, so that he could get her pregnant. “And Sarai Abram’s wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife. And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.” – Genesis 16:3-4.

It was this union that led to the birth of their half Egyptian son Ishmael, the father of the Ishmaelites. Abraham was 86 years old when Ishmael was born. “And Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called his son’s name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael. And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.” – Genesis 16:15-16.

After the birth of Ishmael, Sarah began to hate her, and in order to deal with the situation, he sent Hagar and Ishmael away.

“And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.” – Genesis 21:14.

The very last we hear of Hagar in Scripture is when Yahuah finds her and baby Ishmael ready to die in the wilderness.

Yahuah promises her that he will make Ishmael a great nation, and she eventually chooses an Egyptian wife for him.

After that she is never mentioned again. “And Yahuah heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of Yahuah called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for Yahuah has heard the voice of the lad where he is. Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation. And Yahweh opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink. And Yahuah was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.” – Genesis 21:17-21 .

Pharez: The African Son of Judah

It may surprise you to learn that all of Judah's recorded children had African blood, including the chosen son Pharez. Pharez was Judah's son that was conceived with his daughter in law Tamar, a Canaanite woman.

“And Tamar his daughter in law bare him Pharez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.” – 1 Chronicles 2:4

As we follow the bloodline of Pharez, we learn that it is his line that eventually leads to the births of David and Solomon.

The Lineage of Pharez

“Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron, and Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab, and Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat Salmon, and Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.” — Ruth 4:18-22

Cush: The Founder of Sudan

While we don't know how long after the flood that the grandchildren were born, but we know who they were. Cush is the son of Ham, and grandson of Noah. “And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.” — Genesis 10:6

- As the sons of Ham began to spread out from “the land of Ham”, it is Cush that settles the area currently known as Sudan. It is here that Cush begins to have sons that will also eventually spread out to other areas.
- The Sons of Cush (Genesis 10:7-8)

- Havilah
- Sabtah
- Raamah
- Sabtecha
- Nimrod

One thought on “Cush, The Founder of Sudan”

The truth is in the Word. Ham has been identified as black or coloured; therefore, his brothers must have been black or coloured as well. Since all three brothers had the same mother and father, all three shared the same genetic pool and must have had similar characteristics. Where was Eden really located, and why is Africa always completely ignored when “experts” speculate on where it may have been? Well, I’m going to break it all down for you.

- Canaan

- The geographic area currently known as Israel was originally known in the Bible as Canaan. The area was named after the cursed son of Ham, because that is where he eventually settled after leaving Africa. Canaan (the person) was cursed by Noah, to become a servant to his brothers, which explains why he left “the land of Ham” and moved to the Middle East. Traditionally, church leaders teach that Canaan was a country of Middle Eastern descent, but it was an extension of Africa, as it was founded by Canaan, who was from Africa

- It is this area that Yahuah promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. It is also the same place that Moses and Joshua would eventually conquer and claim for the Nation of Israel. However, before it's conquest, it was populated by the following tribes:

- “And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza; as thou goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha. These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.” — Genesis 10:19-20

- Make no mistake, these were African tribes that inhabited the land of Canaan, and because of that, anyone mixing with Canaanites prior to its conquest, would then have children that were part African as well. One such mixing occurred between Judah and Tamar, resulting in their son Pharez, an ancestor of King David.

Egypt as a Refuge In Scripture

- Early in Scripture, Yahuah uses Egypt as a refuge for his people in times of trouble. Not only do they take refuge in Egypt, but it is also a source for riches as well. Yahusha also hid in Egypt as a small child to avoid being murdered by King Herod. If Yahusha was white skinned, He could never have hid in Egypt as they were all dark skinned, so Yahusha had to also be dark skinned in order to be hidden from King Herod.

Abraham in Egypt

When Abraham and Sarah sought refuge in Egypt, Pharaoh took a liking to Sarah, and took her as his wife. After Yahuah appeared to Pharaoh in a dream, Sarah was restored to Abraham (Genesis 12:1-18), and they left Egypt with riches. “And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south. And Abraham was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.” — Genesis 13:1-2

• Jacob in Egypt

- When Jacob and his family had to endure the famine, he sent his sons to Egypt, where his son Joseph had been sold into slavery, but had risen to power. “Now when Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?” – Genesis 42:1

• Joseph in Egypt

After being sold into slavery to Egypt, Joseph slowly rose to power and eventually used his power to provide a safe place for his family to live. “And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him:” – Genesis 46:6

Yahusha in Egypt

Most of us know that when Yahusha was born, he and his family were forced to flee the persecution of Herod. However, many times we tend to forget that they escaped by fleeing to Egypt. “And when they were departed, behold, the angel of Yahuah d appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.” — Matthew 2:13

Egyptian-Hebrew Intermarriage

From the very beginning, Hebrews mixed and married with Egyptians, and there were even Egyptians that left Egypt with the Hebrews during the Exodus. “And the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelite woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;” – Leviticus 24:10

- Abraham and Hagar
- Hagar was Sarah's Egyptian handmaid. When Sarah failed to get pregnant, she offered Hagar to Abraham, and she bore Ishmael. “And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.” – Genesis 16:3

- Joseph and Asenath
- After rising to power in Egypt, Joseph was given an Egyptian wife named Asenath. She bares him Ephraim and Manasseh, who will eventually be included into the tribes of Israel. “And Pharaoh called Joseph’s name Zaphnathpaaneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.” – Genesis 41:45

Solomon and Pharaoh's Daughter

Solomon had many women, but there are only three that were singled out in scripture. One of these three was the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Solomon married for political reasons. “And Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought Her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of Yahweh and the wall of Jerusalem round about.” — 1 Kings. Although all this is good to know and helps you understand that Yahweh is not have a favorite race group but loves all people He created them all in His image no matter what language, tribe or nation they came from. What is really important is to love all people and reach out to all people with the Good News! that they may be saved and receive eternal life.

We are All to Become Israelites!

True followers of Yahusha Messiah will totally surrender their life and all their possessions to Him. They will become His servant. The term “servant” also needs some clarification. Unlike today, a servant in those days would be owned by the master. He, his family, his possessions, all belonged to the master. Likewise, anyone who is the servant of Yahuah or as Paul puts it, a bond slave of Yahusha Messiah, no longer is his or her own; they have been bought with a price, the blood of Yahusha, and are now under his absolute authority. It does not matter what skin colour you are or which nationality you come from or what language you speak all that matters is that you overcome sin through the blood of Yahusha and then you are grafted into “Spiritual Israel”. The Scriptures reveals the truth of who Israel really is ...

- Since this is a name given by Yahuah to Jacob in Genesis 32:28, where it says, "...Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with Yahuah and with men, and hast prevailed." In other words, those that prevail and overcome their sinful life, repent, obey and seek Yahusha as their Saviour will also carry the name of Israel throughout eternity. ...

... In Hosea 2:23 Yahuah Elohim states, "...I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my Elohim." Yahusha Messiah Himself said in Matthew 21:43 when He is speaking to the Jews. He clearly says that, "The kingdom of Yahuah shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." ...

... No longer is your physical blood line important and it could never buy you eternity without true repentance and obedience to the Torah. Paul and Barnabas turned to the Jews that were speaking out and said, “...It was necessary that the word of Yahuah should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.” ...

...In Romans 2:28,29 we learn that, “...he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of Yahuah. “A few chapters later in Romans 9:6-8 it says that, “...they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

.... That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of Yahuah: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.” In other words, you are not guaranteed Heaven simply because we have Israelite blood line. As Believers we know that the “flesh” has no claim on Yahshua. John 4:24 says "Yahuah is Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.“ ...

.... And finally, Galatians 3:26-29 says, "For ye are all the children of Yahuah by faith in Yahusha Messiah. For as many of you as have been baptized into Yahusha have put on Yahusha. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Yahusha. And if ye be Yahushas , then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." ...

...Finally, Scripture tells us, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:" (Romans 9:27).

Will you surrender your life to Yahusha Messiah today, repent and turn away from your sins and be grafted into the twelve tribes of Israel so you can receive eternal life?

IT DOES NOT MATTER IF YOU ARE AN ISRAELITE
BY BLOOD LINE, ONLY OBEDIENCE TO THE
TORAH WILL GRAFT YOU BACK INTO ISRAEL WITH YAHSHUA AS THE ROOT OF THE TREE.

"...For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel... That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of Yahuah" (Romans 9:6,8). The Israelites were Yahuah's chosen people; but sadly, most are not Yahuah's children. Israel ceased to exist as a nation in 586 B.C. when Babylon destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews into captivity for 70-years. Since then, Yahuah has set Israel aside for a time, turning instead to the Gentiles (pagans) to preach the Good News. (i.e., "the times of the gentiles" - Luke 21:24).

The false Messiah called Jesus the world loves!

Here are some of his attributes:

1. He will allow everyone into heaven
2. He came to bring peace, not division
3. He doesn't require obedience to the Torah
4. He doesn't require Holiness
5. He doesn't require Repentance
6. He only preaches on Love
7. He never says anything Offensive
8. He never tells anyone they're wicked
9. He calls everyone His children
10. He will not send anyone to Hell
11. He wants you to do your own will
12. His commandments are suggestions

If you are following this Greek Messiah by the name of Jesus Christ, I thought I'd let you know ... his real name is ... Satan!

There are 12 gates in the New Jerusalem named after the 12 tribes of Israel.

Notice there is no Christian gate.

- Christianity is the counterfeit religion created by Emperor Constantine who also created a fake Messiah called Jesus Christ the lawless one. (Ask for the Booklet The Two Beasts of Revelation 13) so you can understand this topic more fully.

- Unless you COME OUT of Christianity and the lawless Messiah Jesus Christ, your name will be taken out of the Book of Life, and you will lose your eternal life. Only those that OBEY COVENANT TORAH with Yahuah's Commandments, statutes and Judgments will enter into the New Jerusalem.

We are not to follow the fake religion of Christianity. We need to Repent and turn away from our sins and be grafted into Israel (the people of Yahuah) to love and obey Yahusha Messiah and be called Israelites. Yahusha is the ROOT of the tree ISRAEL, and we are the BRANCHES.

BELIEVERS=THE BRANCHES
(NATIVE-BORN AND GRAFTED IN FOREIGNER, ROMANS 11:17-27)

ISRAEL=THE OLIVE TREE
(JEREMIAH 11:16-17, HOSEA 14:5-6)

MESSIAH=THE ROOT
(ISAIAH 11:10, REVELATION 5:5, REVELATION 22:16)
