IS TRAVEL INSURANCE RIGHT FOR MY TRIP?

From the U.S. Department of State - Passports

"Before you go, consider your insurance options"

Why to consider a TravelSafe protection plan:

In general, many health insurance plans, Medicare and Medicaid do not cover medical costs overseas.

- Check Your Health Insurance - Are You Covered Abroad?
- What about Medicare?
- Get Help with a Medical Emergency Abroad

Will your Medical plan pay up front for hospital admission, treatment, or release?

Many won't, but TravelSafe plans offer this service as a non-insurance feature. Our multilingual team is trained to assist you in finding and securing medical care, transportation, and payment.

If you are not satisfied for any reason, you may cancel your plan by providing written notice within 14 days of your plan's effective date.
