

Part Two, Episode Two- Tensions And Taxes Escalate

- 1) Of the many taxes imposed on the American Colonies by the British and then rescinded, what significant tax was continued to be levied?
- 2) Americans' displeasure with this tax ultimately led to what event of December 16, 1773?
- 3) What was the name of the group that led the "insurrection"?
- 4) This event and others like it ultimately led to the British passing what they called the Coercive Acts in 1774, referred to as what by the American Colonists?
- 5) What did George Washington call the Administration of Justice Act?
- 6) The First Continental Congress of the Thirteen Colonies met in 1774 in what city?
- 7) When British troops marched to disarm colonists in Lexington and Concord, who was the most famous rider to go out and warn them?
- 8) When the Americans and British traded gunfire it became known as what?

9) What was the term used for militiamen who could be ready at a moment's notice?

