CHEYENNE RIVER ANIMAL HOSPITAL
PRESENTS:

EQUINE FIRST AID FOR OWNERS

Ever had a horse with an abscessed hoof? How about a barbed wire cut? What about a colicing horse? Never fear, we are here to help! There are some must-have supplies and skills to help get you to the vet.

Dr. Annamarie Eick will be giving a presentation on basic equine first aid for owners- prizes will be given out at the event to get your first aid kit started!

TUESDAY MAY 3RD AT 4PM
AT CHEYENNE RIVER ANIMAL HOSPITAL

Dr. Annamarie Eick is from San Diego, California. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Animal Science and Management from the University of California, Davis in 2012 and her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from the University of Minnesota in 2020. Throughout school she focused on food animal medicine, but she is also enthusiastic about working with horses and companion animals.
