SONS OF NORWAY

Desert Fjord Lodge

President's Column

I hope this finds you refreshed and invigorated from your activities during the summer—ready to bring new energy to the work of our lodge. Our monthly meetings resume with a great program and menu to complement it. Please come join us and bring along a friend. All the details are on the next page.

I'm pleased to announce a new column coming to our newsletter: "Home is Where the Heart Is". Our Treasurer, Janis Johnson, brought the idea for this and will act as a contributing editor for this project. Each of us has some link through our family and ancestors to a particular farm, valley and area in the beautiful land of Norway. This new column is an opportunity for us to share month by month in our Posten something about where they came from. I imagine our understanding of different parts of Norway will be expanded and enriched. Page 4 tells you a little about this; in October you'll be able to learn from one of our members something about their roots in Norway.

Coming soon is an opportunity for our lodge to attend and be involved in "A Scandinavian Tour", a concert presented by the North Valley Symphony Orchestra. Our lodge has been specially invited to participate—you'll be hearing more about this soon! Page 6 gives you some preliminary details.

Our lodge will be forming a Nominating Committee to present a slate of candidates to fill vacancies and serve in various capacities. Please be ready to consider taking on some responsibility to carry on the good work of Desert Fjord Lodge. Our lodge is a great base of operations to spread the cheerful, winsome Scandinavian spirit in our community. I'm reminded of one of our late members, Sharon Clunk, who served our lodge in many ways. A fellow who worked in her home as a contractor for six months stood up at her memorial service to tell about his experience. Sharon hugged him when he arrived and when he left each day. He never got a complaint from her; she was always cheerful. Because of Sharon he almost became a Norwegian! May we also be that kind of Norwegian!!

Program: AQUAVIT (a.k.a. AKVAVIT)

THE SCANDINAVIAN SPIRIT!

by Don Johnson

New Nordic cuisine has taken the trendy restaurants of the world by storm in recent years, so more and more people are being introduced to the Scandinavian spirit. The name is derived from the Latin aqua vitae, or water of life. Aquavit is a flavored spirit that has been produced in the Nordic countries since the 15th century. The flavor comes from the spices and herbs, which can vary, but the main flavoring must be from caraway or dill in order to be termed aquavit, according to European Union rules.

Don Johnson will speak about the history of home-made aquavit and how to keep warm in Trondheim, Norway: the story of one toe and three-fingered Ole Olmquest, master lumberjack and aquavit maker

"It was a cold, wet, rainy morning in Trondheim with a Nor'Easter blowing in from the west. Ole knew what that meant to logging that day.....double Aquavit for the men.....and why Aquavit was so important" - so sit back and listen to the rest of the story.....First, what is Aquavit?.....

Lodge Good Works—Helping those in our community

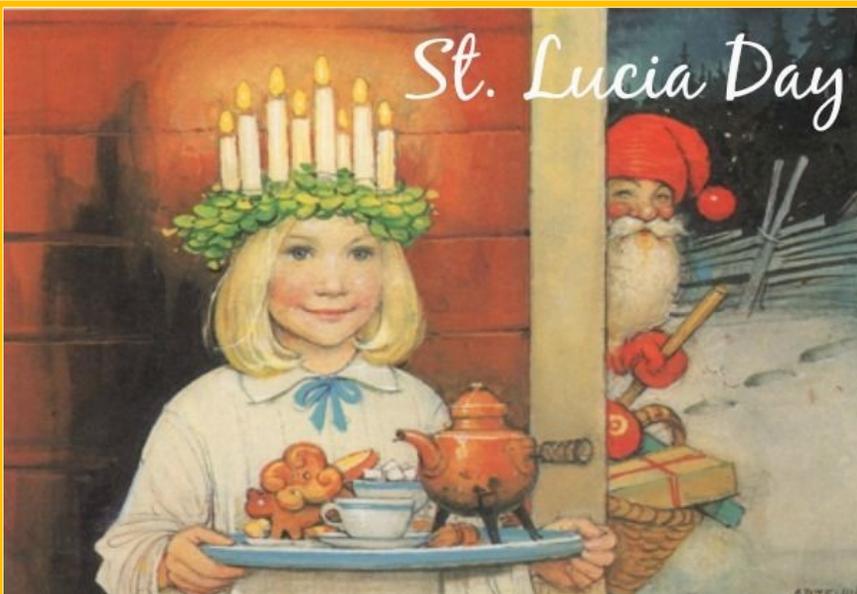

DUFFLE BAGS FOR I-HELP

(you can join Desert Fjord members to help I-Help)

These duffel bags are made to give to homeless women who sleep at the churches in the East Valley. The program is called I-Help. They often bring their belongings in plastic bags or worn out totes. Our lodge members can make a contribution by helping prepare the fabric ... coming to a snip and rip party at the home of Phyllis Bergo. And Desert Fjord gets credit for community service!

Shirley Ouren and her cousin, Roberta, joined Phyllis to make several bags this summer. Those interested in participating & learning how to make these should call Phyllis @ 480-812- 9762 or email phyllisbergo@gmail.com

St. Lucia Day

Dear Members:

We're looking for someone to be a Lucia...a young lady, high school age, for an upcoming Heritage Meeting.

Please email:

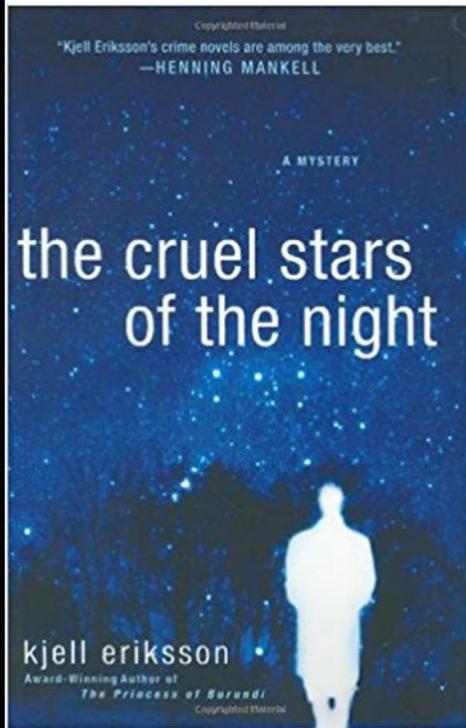

janapeterson@cox.net (or call Jana at 480-326-2927) if you have a relative who would like to do this! Tusen tak!

LIBRARY CORNER

A Book Review by Janis Johnson

(this is to highlight one of the books available in our great Library—please note that we are currently seeking one of our members to get involved with our Library and serve the lodge as our Librarian)

The Cruel Stars of the Night opens one snowy day when thirty-five-year-old Laura Hindersten goes to the police to report that her father, a local professor, is missing. Inspector Ann Lindell and her colleagues can find no motive for the man's disappearance. And when the corpses of two elderly men do turn up, neither of the dead men is the missing academic.

Unexpectedly, the police get help from one of the professor's colleagues, who believes there is an astonishing link between the murders and the disappearance of Professor Hindersten. But as the pressure on Lindell increases dramatically, she is shocked to discover that the killer has many more diabolical schemes in store.

Combining heart-pounding suspense with brilliant psychological insight, The Cruel Stars of the Night moves like a comet as it approaches the cliff-hanging climax.

Home Is Where the Heart Is

Would you be willing to share something about where your ancestors or your native-born Norwegians came from in Norway? Beginning with the October Posten, we will feature a new column about the area of Norway your family called home at one time.

If you'd like to share your family story in one or two paragraphs, please send it to janisjoann41@gmail.com. If there's a picture or two to share as well, they'd be most welcome. Let's see if we can have some representation from all the fylkes in the beautiful land of Norway.

This will be an exciting time of show and tell for our lodge!

ASCENSION Wine & Painting Night with Jana Peterson. Saturday, Sept. 7th, 2019

4:00 PM – 7:00 PM Ascension Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall
7100 N. Mockingbird Lane Paradise Valley, AZ 85253
