Rene Magritte (my influencer)

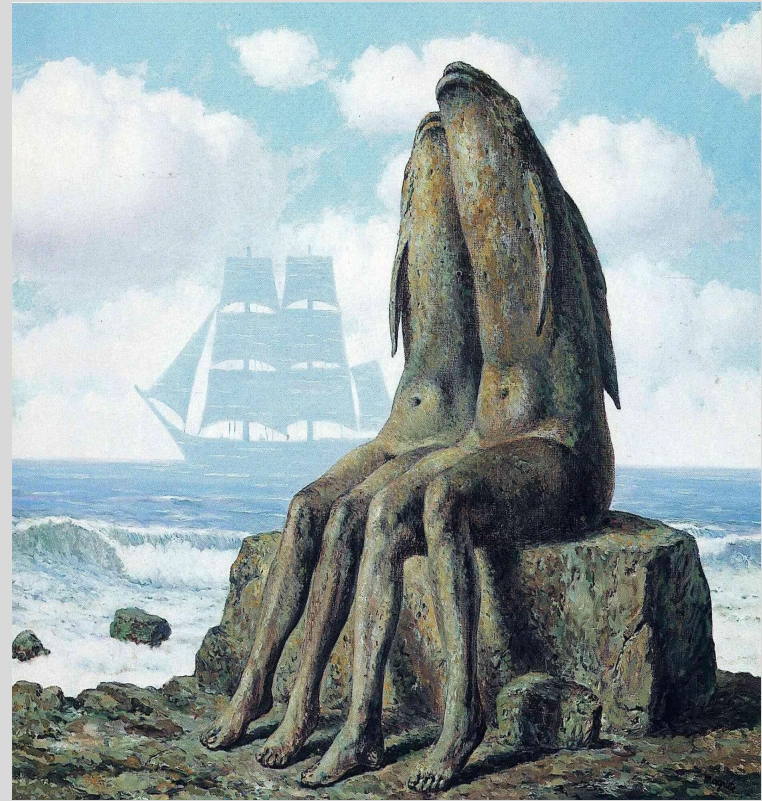

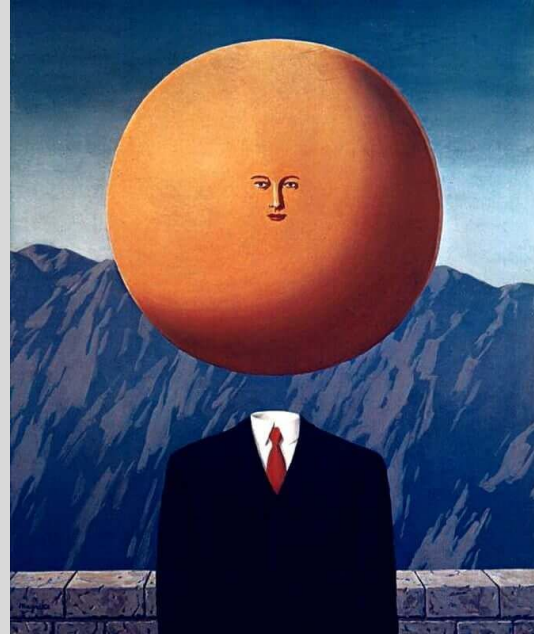

Biography:

Rene Magritte was born in Brussels Belgium, he's an artist who was known for his work with surrealism as well as his thought of provoking images. After attending art school in Brussels, he worked in commercial advertising to support himself while he experimented with his artworks. In the 1920s, he began to paint in the surrealist style and became known for his witty images and his use of simple graphics and everyday objects, giving new meanings to familiar things. With a popularity that increased over time, Magritte was able to pursue his art full-time and was celebrated in several international exhibitions. Magritte evoked themes of mystery and madness to challenge the assumptions of human perception.

Fake me: Lariz Carson

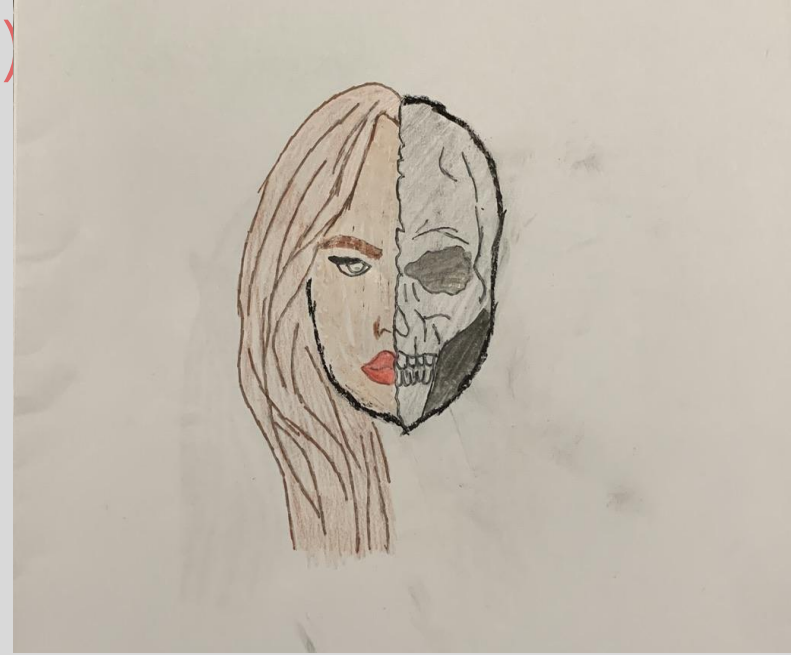

Biography:

Slipping down a slope. Pushed in place again. Hair covering both her ears. The soft light of the damp sun sparkle on her shield. Her natural eyelashes pressed against the window, in which you see through and in which she uses to secret. Perspective is a part of her identity. Her double shades so dark. She's forgotten her own identity. When looking at her, all you see is a reflection of yourself-wondering whos behind this camouflage dark mirror. She must keep both faces; dare to be different. God forbid her mask fades and all your left with is her vicious, vile surface. Although that's never happened, Lariz Carson is most responsive when introduced to art. She dreams of critiquing art for individuals who travel the world to see her. When looking at a painting, you see colors, and maybe a specific image; she sees the intensity and sorrow behind every stroke made by the brush. She examines this with her dark lenses no one has seen through-everybody is forbidden to see through,for it is used to disguise her true narcissism.

Some of My artworks: (Lariz Carson)

- Butterfly

- Woman-skull

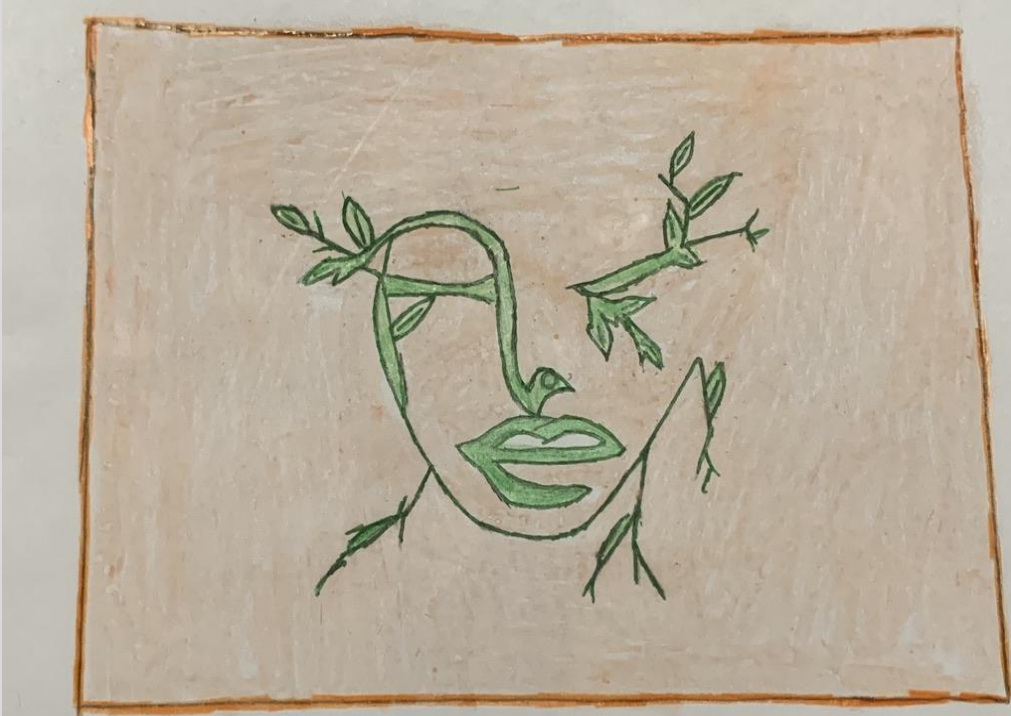

These drawings represent my artist because they are both showing two images in one. In the first artwork there is a butterfly and two faces looking at each other and in the second artwork there is a woman's face and a skull representing the fake personality she puts on.

Some of My artworks: (Lariz Carson)

The first artwork is a representation of Lariz Carson, how she has very big dark glasses that prevent people from seeing her true self. The second artwork is a representation of the good and bad in a person's heart/head (again shows representation of two faced/ coverage from others just like Lariz).

- Nature Woman

This artwork is also a representation of identity being hidden just like all the others, this artwork is a woman's face drawn with tree branches and leaves.

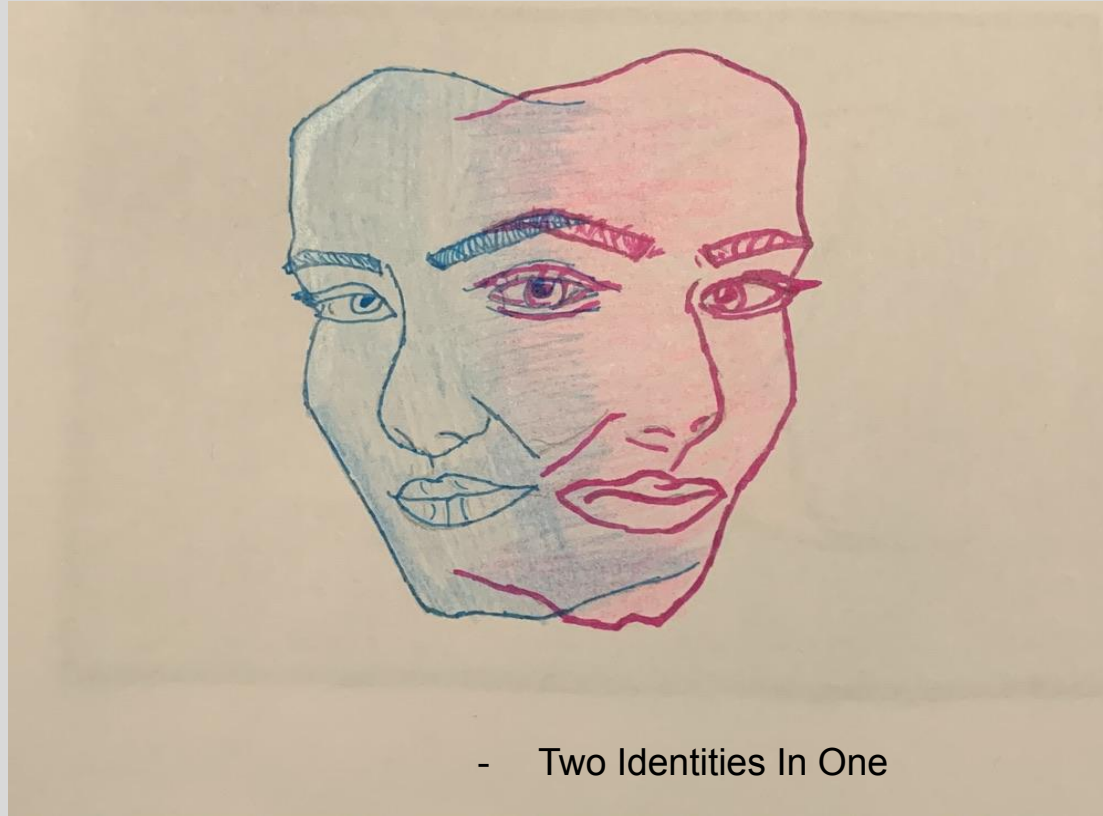

Site Plan:

The way i would put my art show together is by having the picture (The Lariz Carson) of my artist and her biography where you enter the very first room, have the next two pictures which would be the “Butterfly” and the “Woman-Skull” in the second room with little explanations as provided on the slide, followed by the next two art works; the “Nature Woman” and the “Two Sided Love” also with an explanation provided on the slides, and in the last and final room i will display the “BEST IN SHOW” artwork which is called “Two Identities In One” with a description.

Best In Show:

This piece of artwork is my best work in chapter 4. I consider this my best because it took the most time and effort and i am very proud of it. This represents the act Lariz Carson is putting on very well, with the show of her two identities.

- Two Identities In One
