GRADE 9

Chapter 12

Responsibility

Preparation for the chapter Responsibility

Lesson Outline

- We all have talents given to us from God to be used, multiplied and to bear fruits. The Parable of the Talents presents two types of behaviors that we can learn from.
- One – Those who work hard and honest in everything such as studying, worship and selfless service towards others.
 - † They make use of their leisure times in practicing hobbies and improving their talents.
 - † They make use of their health to serve their families, the Church and those in need.
 - † Such individuals want to hear the Lord say to them "Well done, good and faithful servant".
- Two – Those who are lazy, give excuses and justify their laziness.
 - The Lord will say to them "You wicked and lazy servant".

Memory Verse: “I say to you to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him”

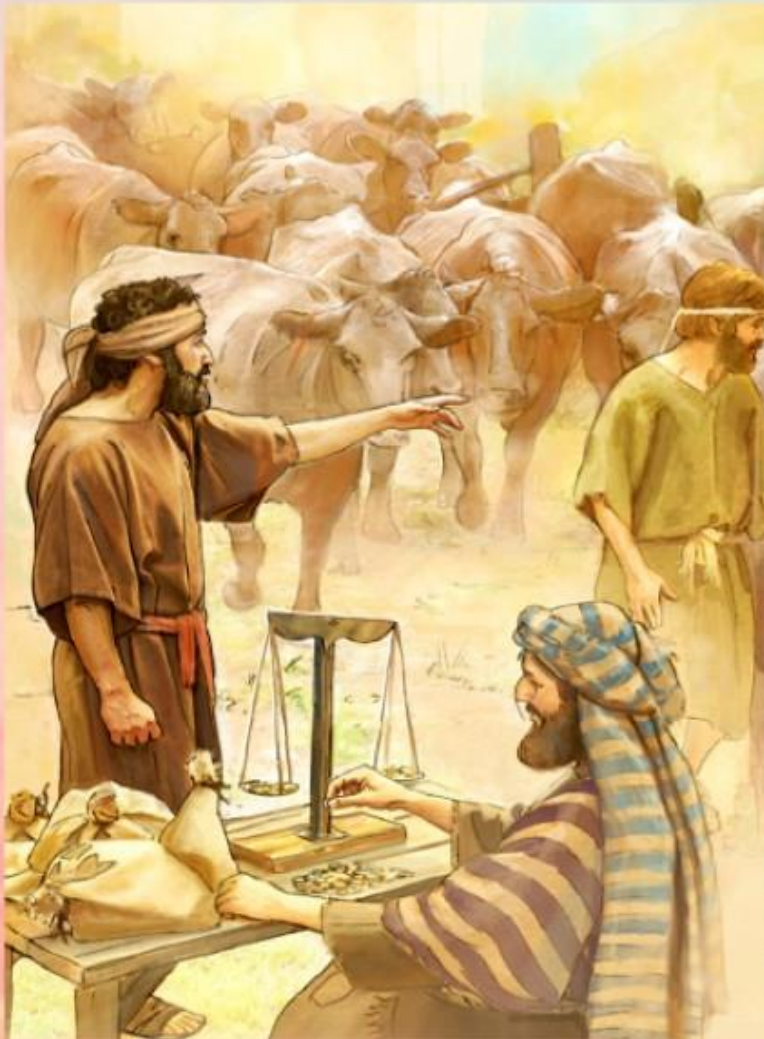

(St. Luke 19:26)

We all have talents given to us from God to be used, multiplied and to bear fruits.

The Parable of the Talents presents two types of behaviors that we can learn from.

One – Those who work hard and honest in everything such as studying, worship and selfless service towards others.

They make use of their leisure times in practicing hobbies and improving their talents.

They make use of their health to serve their families, the Church and those in need.

Such individuals want to hear the Lord say to them
"Well done, good and faithful servant".

Two – Those who are lazy, give excuses and justify their laziness.

The Lord will say to them “You wicked and lazy servant”.
