GRADE 10

Chapter 8

The Good Samaritan

Preparation for the chapter

The Good Samaritan

Lesson Outline

- The Jews did not like the Samaritans and considered them to be less than them. Jesus told them a parable.
- A travelling man was beaten up and robbed by some thieves. The thieves represent the devil. The man represents a sinner.
- A priest and a Levite passed the injured man and ignored him. They are the law and the prophets, who couldn't save mankind.
- A good Samaritan came, put oil in his wounds. He added wine to purify him from sins inflicted by Satan.
- The good Samaritan is Jesus Christ our Savior, who died for us.
- The greatest love is the love of our Lord Jesus Christ. We should love others and sacrifice ourselves for them, as Christ.
