GRADE 10

Chapter 11

The Effect of the Softly Spoken Word

Preparation for the chapter

The Effect of the softly spoken Word

Lesson Outline

- The virtue of the softly spoken word and controlling the tongue is an important virtue for every Christian. The words that come from your mouth indicate what is in your heart.
- Words can lead us to evil and sin or it can lead us to blessings and spiritual growth. For example, lying is a sin and praising God is a blessing.
- Pray that God may help you to be as gentle as He was. Ask the Holy Spirit to work and speak through your tongue.
- The wise and righteous thinks before he talks. The foolish and impulsive person talks without thinking.
- You may have great ideas but if you use bad words to present them, they will seem to be bad ideas.
- Place yourself in the listener place. You may be able to judge if your words bring comfort and knowledge.
