CODE OF ETHICS FOR EXHIBITORS AT THE BI-COUNTY FAIR

The Bi-County fair is proud of the many exhibitors who have come and gone over the years and the vast majority of them have been most cooperative and handled themselves in a very commendable manner. The conduct of all 4-H members and the care given to their projects always reflects the integrity of the 4-H and the Bi-County Fair Board, as well as the quality of the fair. The exhibitors' conduct should also indicate their appreciation for the opportunity to use the facilities provided for them, as well as show their gratitude for the generosity of the people in the counties they represent.

The Fair Board deems it necessary to set rules on certain things that will not be allowed at any fairs.

1. There will be no alcoholic beverages or other controlled substances used on the fairground by exhibitors.
2. No exhibitor will use foul, profane or abusive language or address any Department Superintendent, Fair Board Member or any other adult in a violent manner.
3. No small animals or fowl will be taken out of pens or cages, except to be groomed prior to showing, once they are entered and placed in the care of the department superintendent.
4. No unsolicited tampering with other exhibitor's property will be permitted.
5. Willful destruction of any Bi-County Fair property or the property of any other individual on the premises will be prohibited.
6. Unlawful entry to the fairgrounds, after hours, unless accompanied by a Fair Board member possessing a key, will be prohibited. Any one climbing over the fence at any time will be severely reprimanded.

Any exhibitor involved in the above-mentioned unacceptable practices, as well as others that may arise in the future; will be subject to a call before the BI-County Fair Board. This could result in removal of exhibitors and all his or her exhibits from the fair.

The Fair Board realizes that all exhibitors want to enjoy the fair and competing with a good sportsmanship attitude will make this possible. All the senior or older participants must set good examples for the younger exhibitors, for in just a few years all of you will be adults and in your footsteps your own children will follow. Be proud of your actions, your accomplishments, and make the future Bi-County Fairs enjoyable to yourselves as well as to others.
