The Cast

Jerry Jobe (Sir Selsdon Piddock) returns to the stage at CSN in a towering portrayal of the curmudgeonly Ebenezer Scrooge. Other appearances include The Outsider, The Last Night of Ballyhoo, Clue the Musical, I Hate Hamlet, Unnecessary Farce, Almost, Maine, The Savannah Disputation, The Rainmaker, Coming Apart, Farming Beauty, and Noises Off. He also directed Til Beth Do Us Part, Things My Mother Taught Me and There Goes the Bride. He dedicates his performance in this hilarious play, as always, to his lovely wife Susan.

Julie Robyn Turner (Mrs. Cordelia Ffoliet-Ffolkes Ffortescue Woods) was last seen with CSN in 'Til Beth Do Us Part (Suzannah Hayden) and before that in her favorite role to date, Clue: The Musical (Mrs. Peacock). Just before the stages went dark for "The Plague" she was seen in Unnecessary Farce (Karen) also with CSN. She previously made folks chuckle in Drinking Habits (Sister Philamena) with Pumphouse Players and Don't Dress for Dinner (Suzanne) with Cherokee Theatre Company. Other favorite shows in which she has been seen around town include Agatha Christie's Love From a Stranger (Cecily), The Mousetrap (Mollie), Decision Height (Norma Jean Harris), and A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum (Tintinabula/Domina). She would like to thank the cast and her husband, Trey, for his support.

The Cast

Maurice Winsell, (Mr. Elyot Crummels) was recently seen in the CenterStage North Theater's production of The Outsider. Represented locally by Classic Talent Agency, he has appeared in numerous regional and local film productions, including notable commercials for Bojangles, Harris Teeter, and the Georgia Lottery. In addition to his commercial work, Maurice also appeared recently in "A Friend of the Family," which aired on the streaming platform Peacock. Maurice lives in the Cartersville area with his fiancée, Melissa and their children. He thanks them all always for their loving support.

Richard Puscas (Teddy Shub) has been performing in various productions around town over the several last years. Some highlights include You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown (Snoopy) with Agape Players, Oklahoma (Will Parker) and The Music Man (Marcellus Washburn) with Acting UP, Guys and Dolls (Rusty Charlie) with Act3 Productions, and State Fair (Wayne Frake) with First Act Studio Theatre. Richard would like to thank Julie, Allison, and the entire cast for all their hard work and dedication.

Favorite past performances include Dolly Tate in "Annie Get Your Gun" with Agape Players, Ado Annie in "Oklahoma!" with Acting Up!, and Sally Applewhite/Mary Bailey in "It's A Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play" with Gypsy Theatre Company. She would like to thank Julie for this opportunity and her parents for their support.

Jessie Kuipers (Bettina Salisbury) has acted in the Atlanta area since 2013. She recently appeared in Moon Over Buffalo (Rosalind) with CSN, The Taming (Kathryn) with Live Arts Theatre, The 39 Steps (Annabella/Margaret/Pamela) with Merely Players Presents, The Comedy of Errors (Dromio of Syracuse) with MVAA, Sylvia (Sylvia) with CSN, Picasso at the Lapin Agile (Suzanne) with Lionheart, Bat-Hamlet (Ophelia) with Out of Box, and Tradin' Paint (Lucky Tibbs) with CSN. When she's not on stage, Jessie works full-time in HR technology, and she enjoys hiking and running. She dedicates her performance to her nieces and nephew.

Inore Thenot (Rowena) is returning to the theatre after over a decade! She is “just happy to be here”! She is thrilled to be a part of such a talented ensemble and hilarious production. She is grateful to Julie Resh for taking a chance on her.

“To Isabelle and Anabelle: Mommy loves you very much!”

The Director

Long time Board Member, Actor, and friend to CSN, Julie Resh, is excited to step back into the Director's chair once again!

“To Tim for allowing me to have my crazy theatre life. To Addie and Jeff for listening to my ramblings about each production. To Diane for always being my cheerleader.”
