At a church service a very rich man stood up to address the church. "I remember the day I earned my first dollar," he said. "That night I went to church and the speaker told us about his missionary work. I had only one dollar bill, so I had to make a decision: Give it to this worthy cause or keep it. So I gave him all the money I had. I believe that God blessed that one decision and that is why I am a millionaire today."

As he sat down, a woman shouted, "I dare you to do it again!"

He Is Risen!

Easter is a marvelous time of the year. It comes in the spring. It is a day of going to church and having Easter egg hunts with beautifully colored eggs, filling up baskets with all kinds of candy and a fuzzy rabbit.

But more than that, it is a joyous time of year celebrating Christ rising from the grave the third day after having been nailed to the cross.

It is an important day because it was prophesied years before it happened. So it was fulfilling God's prophecy. Jesus Christ was raised from the dead in order to save us from eternal damnation.

Thank you Jesus for your sacrifice.

The man was sitting on the edge of the bed, observing his wife looking at herself in the mirror.

Since her birthday was not far off, he asked what she'd like to have for her birthday. "I'd like to be 6 again," she replied, still looking in the mirror.

On the morning of her birthday, he rose early, made her a nice big bowl of Lucky Charms, and then took her to Six Flags theme park.

What a day! He put her on every ride in the park; the Death Slide, the Wall of Fear, the Screaming Monster roller coaster, everything there was.

Five hours later they staggered out of the theme park. Her head was reeling and her stomach felt upside down. He then took her to McDonald's where she had a happy meal with extra fries and a chocolate shake.

Then it was off to a movie, popcorn, soda pop and her favorite candy, M&M's. What a fabulous adventure!

Finally she wobbled home with her husband and collapsed into bed exhausted.

He leaned over his wife with a big smile and lovingly asked, "Well dear, what was it like being 6 again??"

Her eyes slowly opened and her expression suddenly changed. "I meant my dress size, you idiot!"

Tombstone Small Animal Shelter

The Tombstone Small Animal Shelter continues to make appointments 7 days a week.

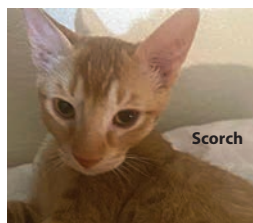

We are no longer open for adoptions on Saturday. We are doing well with adoptions so we have no future plans to hold offsite adoptions. Call 520-457-2545, go to the website tombstoneanimalshelter.org or Facebook.

We still have lots of animals looking for homes so call today and we'll match you up.

MARSHALL is waiting for a forever home. He's only 2 or 3 years old and he is adorable! His fur is brindle-colored. He loves people and gets along with other dogs. He knows basic commands and walks well on a lead. He is a gentle soul who just wants to please and be loved.

This is 5 mo. old SCORCH, he will be totally vetted on March 22 and ready for his new adventure in life. He is affectionate and takes care of his little brother Donnie. He loves cereal and can be a bit pushy to make sure he's first in line for the left overs. He loves all cats and his foster dog Nate. He'll make you laugh at his silliness.

DONNIE is Scorch's little brother. Donnie is the runt and a bit shy. He is 5 months old and weighs in at 3lbs 6 oz. He is very little but that doesn't stop him from rough housing with all the other cats and Nate the dog. He loves to play and doesn't like to cuddle much but does like a spot on his foster mom's bed every night.

Make an appointment today to bring one of us into your home.

We're just waiting for you!!

WE ALWAYS NEED VOLUNTEERS!! Call today!

HELP WANTED!

Do you know that the animal shelters are overflowing with animals full of love and caring and loyalty, and waiting for a new home? Because of Covid, a lot of animals were dropped off at the shelters because the owners could not care for them.

This is especially sad for those pets used to living in a loving home and getting all kinds of attention, and ending up in a jail cell.

That's not to say that the shelters do not take care of them, because they do, but there are so many coming in and we need some going out.

Dogs and cats give love unconditionally. If you are sad, lonely, depressed, or just looking for a friend, try just wandering down the line of animals waiting and watching for a forever home.

These animals don't understand why they have been abandoned and desperately need humans to love and to be loved by.

The shelters also need volunteers who love animals to walk and talk with them. And food, they need donations of dog and cat food at every shelter in the county. It's hard to keep them open, it's hard to keep the animals properly cared for, and it's hard to be there and not have enough of what you need to make everybody comfortable.

I have three dogs, all of them are rescues and they know that they are loved. If I had a bigger place and more time, I would give a few more dogs that environment, but I don't and I can't.

An animal can make you feel loved, happy, bring your blood pressure down, and give you a friend to talk to that will not talk back.

If you're not sure, try fostering an animal. This can be either temporary or permanent, yet the animal has a comfortable place to stay. It is a win-win situation.

A grandfather was delivering his grandchildren to their home one day
when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting in the front seat of the fire truck was a Dalmatian dog. The children started discussing the dog's duties.

"They use him to keep crowds back," said one child.

"No," said another. "He's just for good luck."

A third child brought the argument to a close.
"They use the dogs," she said firmly, "to find the fire hydrants."

It all started when a police officer pulled over an elderly woman for driving too slowly on the highway. The woman was only going a measly 22 miles an hour on the highway, and as he pulled her over, the officer thought to himself, this driver is just as dangerous as a speeder!

As the officer walked up to the car he noticed that there were five more elderly women inside. All five of the women looked at him wide-eyed, with their skin as white as ghosts.

The clearly confused driver said to the cop, "Officer, I don't understand. What seems to be the problem?"

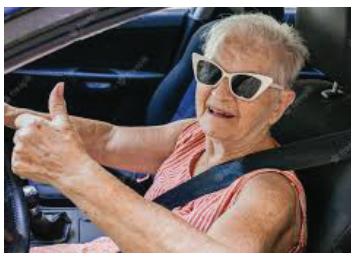

"Ma'am," the officer replied, "you should know that driving slower than the speed limit can be a danger to other drivers."

"Slower than the speed limit?" the elderly driver asked. "No sir, I was doing the speed limit, exactly 22 miles an hour!"

Trying not to laugh, the officer told the woman that "22" was the route number, not the speed limit. The woman seemed a little embarrassed, but she thanked the officer for pointing out her mistake.

"But before I let you go, ma'am, I have to ask, is everyone in this car okay? These women seem awfully shaken and they haven't muttered a single peep this whole time."

"Oh, they'll be all right in a minute, officer. We just got off Route 119."

Children's Logic

"Give me a sentence about a public servant," said the teacher.

The small boy wrote: "The fireman came down the ladder pregnant."

The teacher took the lad aside to correct him. "Don't you know what pregnant means?" she asked.

"Sure," said the young boy confidently. "It means carrying a child."

From Grandma's Kitchen

FRICO (An Old-fashioned French-Canadian Stew)

A stewing chicken or rotisserie cooked chicken, boiled in a good sized heavy stewing pot until meat can be picked off the bones. After boiling, let cool and clean meat off chicken (making sure there are no bones in meat), return meat to the liquid.

Add 3-4 carrots cut into 1/2-3/4 inch circles, 2-3 large raw potatoes (cut into 1/2 inch cubes), and one medium onion chopped to cooking liquid. Liquid should be 1/2 inch above ingredients.

Add salt, pepper and summer savory (sage can be substituted) to taste (or just salt and pepper), let simmer until carrots are cooked through. You can add chicken stock if your cooking liquid is low, or chicken "Better Than Bullion" to up the flavor, but check the seasoning before you add salt if you use the bullion.

Add dumplings from next recipe.

FLUFFY DUMPLINGS

1½ cups all purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
2/3 cup milk
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 egg, slightly beaten

In a medium bowl, combine flour, powder and salt; blend well. Add milk, oil and egg; stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Drop dumpling dough by rounded tablespoons onto boiling stew mixture. Reduce heat; cover tightly and cook 13 to 16 minutes or until dumplings are fluffy and no longer doughy on the bottom. Makes 12 dumplings.

OR, add 2 cups of Bisquick with 2/3 cup of milk, mix lightly (do not overmix, or dumplings will be hard, not fluffy) and let sit 5-10 minutes before dropping by tablespoon on top of the simmering stew. Cover and cook 10-15 minutes until cooked through.

(My sister and I eat our dumplings with butter and molasses, but that's what we grew up with.)

A kindergartener is starting his first day of school, and he looks worried, so his dad asks him, "What's wrong, Champ?"

Nervous, the kid asks, "How long do I have to go to school for?"

"Until you're 18," says the father. The kid nods, and thinks about this quietly.

When they get to the front gates of the school, the kid says, "Dad, you will remember to come and get me when I'm 18, won't you?"

A woman was leaving a convenience store with her morning coffee when she noticed a most unusual funeral procession approaching the nearby cemetery. A long black hearse was followed by a second long black hearse about 50 feet behind the first one.

Behind the second hearse was a solitary woman walking a Pitbull on a leash. Behind her, a short distance back, were about 200 women walking single file. The woman couldn't control her curiosity.

She respectfully approached the woman walking the dog and said, "I am so sorry for your loss, and I know now is a bad time to disturb you, but I've never seen a funeral like this. Whose funeral is it?"

"My husband's."

"What happened to him?"

"My dog attacked and killed him," the woman answered. Still not being satisfied, she inquired further however. "Well, who is in the second hearse?"

The widow answered, "My mother-in-law. She was trying to help my husband when the dog turned on her."

A poignant and thoughtful moment of silence passed between the two women.

"Can I borrow the dog?"
