It was the final examination for an introductory biology course at the local university. Like many such freshman courses, it was designed to weed out new students, having over 500 students in the class!

The examination was two hours long, and exam booklets were provided. The professor was very strict and told the class that any exam not on his desk in exactly two hours would not be accepted and the student would fail.

Half an hour into the exam, a student came rushing in and asked the professor for an exam booklet. "You're not going to have time to finish this," the professor stated sarcastically as he handed the student a booklet.

"Yes, I will," replied the student. He then took a seat and began writing. After two hours, the professor called for the exams and the students filed up and handed them in. All except the late student, who continued writing.

An hour later, the last student came up to the professor who was sitting at his desk preparing for his next class. He attempted to put his exam on the stack of exam booklets already there. "No, you don't, I'm not going to accept that. It's late."

The student was incredulous and angry. "Do you know who I am?"

"No, as a matter of fact I don't," replied the professor sarcastically.

"Do you know who I am?" the student asked again in a louder voice.

"No, and I don't care," replied the professor with an air of superiority.

"Good," replied the student, who quickly lifted the stack of completed exams, stuffed his in the middle, and walked out of the room.

Don't Throw Those Shoes Away

When was the last time you picked up a pair of shoes or boots and found the soles are shot? Well, I just opened up my shoe closet and found a nice pair of heels.

The soles were off; I guess from just being ignored for a couple of years, they dried out.

Okay, took care of them but that wasn't even the worst. Imagine you have a special shoe that you are really fond of and it feels like you are walking on uneven ground when you wear them.

First thing, go to Google to try to find a pair that's similar. You look go through pages and pages of shoes and boots, but cannot find that shoe. It happened to me recently. I have an orange sandal with straps. I looked in the stores and I looked at what Google had to offer, but could not find anything close to that shoe.

So in desperation, I took the sandals to a shoe repair shop. I really didn't think they could do anything, but they had to be fixed or I would have to throw them away. Do you know how hard it is to find orange shoes?

Nowadays it is much more common to just ditch the shoes and move on. But since I was very fond of these sandals, I wanted them fixed. So the shoe repair person was very friendly and sympathetic when I told him that I really loved those shoes. He said we could not just put the rubber soles back on because inside that heel it was soft and would not hold my weight any longer. His recommendation was to cut the whole heel off and replace it. I was skeptical that this could be done, but I told him to go for it. I went back a few days later to get my sandals, and lo and behold, they looked great and you could not tell that the heel had been cut off and replaced.

I don't normally pick out one business to tell my readers about, but I wondered how many people think about getting their shoes fixed instead of throwing them away. There was a time back when that it was a common practice to go to the shoe repair shop rather than buy new shoes.

At the price of things now, trust me when I say for those who have not found this shop yet, just try it, it's a lot cheaper than buying new shoes or boots.

The shop I'm talking about is Gustavo's Shoe Shop Repair and Leather Work at 125 E. Fry Blvd, Sierra Vista.

Friendly people who know what they are doing!

An old man was rowing a boat on the lake when a frog swam up to him and yelled, "Mister, Mister! I'm really a beautiful princess. Kiss me and will live happily every after." The man put the frog in his pocket and rowed to shore. The frog called out again, "Hey Mister! I'm really a gorgeous princess, kiss me and we will live happily ever after." Still the man said nothing and walked down the road toward town.

The frog was getting angry at being ignored. "Why don't you kiss me? I told you I am really a beautiful princess."

"Listen lady," the man replied. "I'm 90 years old. At this point in my life I'd rather have a talking frog."

CREAMY MAC 'N CHEESE

8 ounce (1-3/4 cups) uncooked elbow macaroni
1/4 cup all-purpose flour
2 cups milk
8 ounces (2 cups) shredded American cheese
1/8 teaspoon of pepper

Cook macaroni to desired doneness as directed on package, drain; rinse with hot water.

In jar with tight fitting lid, combine flour and 1 cup of the milk, shake until well blended.

Pour into medium saucepan, add remaining milk. Cook over medium heat stirring constantly.

When mixture boils and thickens, add cheese and continue cooking until cheese is melted, stirring constantly.

Add cooked macaroni and pepper heat thoroughly. Eight servings

“Bless me Father, for I have sinned. I have been with a loose girl.”

The priest asks, “Is that you, little Joey Pagano?”

“Yes, Father, it is.”

“And who was the girl you were with?”

“I can’t tell you, Father. I don’t want to ruin her reputation.”

“Well, Joey, I’m sure to find out her name sooner or later so you may as well tell me now. Was it Tina Minetti?”

“I cannot say.”

“Was it Teresa Mazzarelli?”

“I’ll never tell.”

“Was it Nina Capelli?”

“I’m sorry, but I cannot name her.”

“Was it Cathy Piriano?”

“My lips are sealed.”

“Was it Rosa DiAngelo, then?”

“Please, Father! I cannot tell you.”

The priest sighs in frustration. “You’re very tight lipped, and I admire that. But you’ve sinned and have to atone. You cannot be an altar boy now for 4 months. Now you go and behave yourself.”

Joey walks back to his pew, and his friend Franco slides over and whispers, “What’d you get?”

“Four months vacation and five good leads”

Is The Real Estate Market Going to Crash in 2022?

No one can really answer that question.

What we do know is the experts are predicting the price of homes in Arizona will increase over 17% in 2022. The federal reserve has raised interest rates and is expected to raise the interest rates up to 5 times more in this year alone! The federal reserve typically will not raise the interest rate if the market is expected to crash, indicating it’s unlikely to crash in 2022. We still have a high demand and a low supply!

Real estate home sales inventory is increasing slightly in Arizona even as the interest rate slowly rises. This creates a shift of buyers qualifying for less money and less home buying power.

In turn, it will also increase buyers in a lower market and reduce buyers in the upper market. Price reductions will begin in the upper market.

As the interest rate goes up, buyers need to buy and sellers need to sell, especially in the upper market. In this upper market, as the interest rate goes up, we will see inventory rise and the start of price reductions in order to sell.

If you are selling, work with a local realtor who knows the market and price your home accordingly, being careful not to overprice or underprice your home. It’s better to entertain a few offers as opposed to your home sitting stale on the market with no offers.

If you’re a buyer, don’t wait! Get qualified, find a realtor who knows the market and check in with them often. The inventory is out there, it just sells quickly. Some old inventory which was overpriced, or maybe just didn’t have good quality pictures, can be a great buying opportunity as well.

Pre-foreclosures are on the rise so keep an eye on those as well.

Your local realtor is working hard to protect the interest of all parties involved, and although challenging, it’s rewarding for everyone. Whether you’re an investor or a buyer, come on board and let’s see how we can make money for you! Keeping a close eye on the market will help protect your investment.

THE SNEEZE

They walked in tandem, each of the ninety-two students filing into the already crowded auditorium. With their rich maroon gowns flowing and the traditional caps, they looked almost as grown-up as they felt. Dads swallowed hard behind broad smiles, and moms freely brushed away tears. This class would

NOT pray during the commencement, not by choice but because of a recent court ruling prohibiting it.

The principal and several students were careful to stay within the guidelines allowed by the ruling.

They gave inspirational and challenging speeches, but no one mentioned divine guidance and no one asked for blessings on the graduates or their families.

The speeches were nice, but they were routine until the final speech received a standing ovation. A solitary student walked up to the microphone.

He stood still and silent for just a moment, and then, it happened; all 92 students, every one of them, suddenly SNEEZED!!

The student on stage simply looked at the audience and said, 'GOD BLESS YOU'!

TIMES ARE HARD, BUT ANYTIME YOU FEEL LIKE QUITTING...

...perhaps you'll remember this story of one of our people.

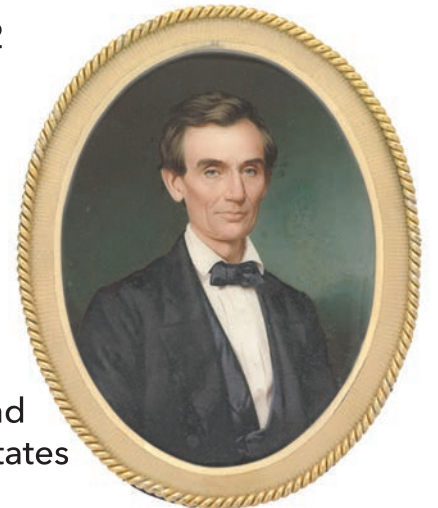

- This man failed in business 1831
- He ran as a state legislator and lost in 1832
- He tried business again in 1833 and failed again.

- His sweetheart died in 1835
- He had a nervous breakdown in 1836
- He ran for state elector in 1840 after he regained his health.

• He was defeated for Congress in 1843, defeated again for Congress in 1848. Defeated when he ran for Senate in 1855, and defeated for vice presidency of the United States in 1856.

- He ran for the Senate again in 1858 and lost.
- This man never quit. He kept on trying till the last.
- In 1860, this patient man, Abraham Lincoln, was elected president of the United States.
- It only took 29 years of total perseverance.

The Bible says patience is a virtue. And now he is one of the most well known and respected of our fore fathers.

"What are the advantages?" inquired the prospective buyer.

"The good thing about it," said the agent, "is that you can always tell which way the wind is blowing."

Ole and Sven, ignoring the -60 degree windchill warnings, froze to death while ice fishing in northern Minnesota and descend to Hell.

Coming to check on his new arrivals from up North, Satan is surprised to find Ole and Sven enjoying themselves, removing coats and hats that they've worn for decades.

"What is the meaning of this," Satan demands. "You two almost seem comfortable."

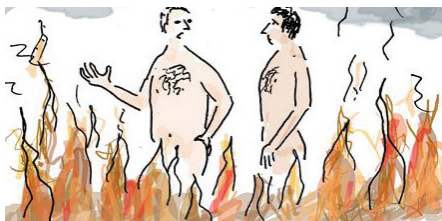

"Oh, don't you know," answers Ole, "this is the first time we've been warm in years."

Okay, think Satan. I'm gonna really turn up the heat and see how these two like it.

"We'll see if you're still laughing in a minute." Satan instructs a demon to really pour the coals on and proceeds to go check on his other charges.

He returns a while later, and to his astonishment, finds Ole and Sven stripped down to their boxers and sweating a little, but still with huge smiles on their faces. "What is the meaning of this!" he exclaims!

"Uff da", answers Sven. "It's gettin' a little warm down here, but after decades of Minnesota cold, we can finally feel our bones start to thaw.

We're warm for the first time in our lives, mister."

Feeling more than a little desperate, Satan thinks of a new plan. "Alright" he retorts, "you two were sent down here to suffer. Maybe the best environment for that is one like your miserable home land!" Satan then instructs his demons to make Hell "freeze".

Heaters are exchanged for supernatural A/Cs. Liquid nitrogen tanks are plugged in - the works. Satan leaves to go attend other business.

He returns again a short time later, expecting to find Ole and Sven miserable from being in the bitter cold once again. To his bewilderment, Ole and Sven are redressed in their parkas and hats, but are whoopin' and hollerin' like never before.

Defeated, Satan asks, "What is it with you guys? I make Hell hotter than ever and you guys enjoy it. I make it colder than anything even you two have experienced and you're still full of joy. What is going on?!"

"Well," answers Ole, "for the first time in our lives, we were able feel warm, which felt pretty good. But now, with hell froze over, that can only mean one thing! The Minnesota Vikings have won the Super Bowl!"
