This guy is admitted to the hospital. Too weak to speak, he and his roommate sleep for days. After two weeks, the first man gets the strength to point to himself and say, "American." His roommate says, "Canadian" exhausted they pass out. Two weeks later, the American summons the strength to speak again. "Shawn," he says in a frail voice. "Dave," his roommate squeaks. They both fall back into a deep sleep.

Two weeks later, Shawn rouses himself enough to speak. "Cancer," he says. Dave clears his throat and says, "Sagittarius."

The man was getting ready for a weekend fishing trip. He asked his wife to help him pack. Gladly she packed the clothes, toiletries and fishing gear." Also, can you pack my new silk pajamas?" he asked. She was suspicious, but she packed them anyway. On his return, she asked if he had caught any fish. "Oh, yes," he said. "Lots of them, but you forgot to pack my pajamas." She smiled," no I didn't, they're in your tackle box!"

Because I had dental problems for some time, my husband arranged a consultation for me with a dentist friend of his. After looking into my mouth, the dentist turned to my spouse. "She really has a terrible bite," he said. "If you think that's bad," my husband replied, "you should hear her bark."

A man was telling friends how his first aid classes had prepared him for an emergency. "I saw a woman hit by a car," he said. She had a broken arm, a twisted knee and a skull fracture." "How horrible! What did you do?" "Thanks to my first aid training I knew just how to handle it. I sat on the curb and put my head between my knees to keep from fainting."

A lady's parrot was always swearing, so she asked the veterinary what she could do to get the bird to stop. "Every time he swears, put him in the freezer for 15 seconds." When he swore again, she took the doctor's advice. After 15 seconds, she opened the door to release him, and the parrot was quite upset. "Sorry about the bad language," the parrot said. "It won't happen again. And may I ask what the chicken did?"

A mobster was on trial, facing a possible life sentence, but his lawyer bribed a juror to hold out for a lesser charge. After hours of deliberation the jury returned a verdict carrying a maximum of 10 years in prison. Afterward the lawyer approached the juror. "You had me worried! When the jury was out so long, I was afraid you couldn't pull it off." "I was worried too!" answered the juror. "The others all wanted to acquit him!"

Things you shouldn't say to a cop:

When the officer says: "Gee boy, your eyes look red, have you been drinking?" And you say: "Gee officer, your eyes look glazed, have you been eating doughnuts?"

Ever since my aunt Mildred was a child, she wanted to have a black cat named midnight. When one of the cats on her farm had a litter, she got her wish, except that the kitten had a little patch of white fur under the chin. She decided that midnight was inappropriate because it wasn't totally black. Instead, she decided to name it 11:45

Watch out what you sow today, for tomorrow when you reap, it could bite you in the butt!
