

Mekhla Na'vi Jordan

Ms. Universe Official Globe 2025

Ms. Na'vi Jordan is an enthusiastic Human Rights Chapter President, Lifetime Philanthropist, and an esteemed award-winning international personality. She has been published in several international magazines pronouncing her purpose in leveraging her crown. Her humanitarian platform focuses on educational programs for people with disability, health equity and equality, human trafficking, and defeating hunger. Breaking away from bonds of cultural servitude, her leadership is about overcoming opportunities for woman and under privileged youth. Ms. Na'vi Jordan generates a positive influence in the community through her life examples and robust strategies to thrive with hope and fearless faith. Her dedication to excellence and privilege to represent diverse communities continue to afford her reasons to leverage the pageantry platform and become a powerful voice for the voiceless. Her long-term goal is to influence communities that intelligence, bravery, compassion and being fierce are characteristics to be embraced and celebrated regardless of gender or ethnic backgrounds.
