DAY 1: JUNE 24

ARRIVE IN ICELAND, HEAD TO HOTEL, SETTLE IN A BIT THEN HEAD TO SKY LAGOON TO FINISH OUR DAY AND REST

SKY LAGOON

Sky Lagoon feels like stepping into another world. Imagine soaking in a warm infinity lagoon while the icy North Atlantic stretches endlessly in front of you, steam rising around black lava rocks as the sky turns pink and gold at sunset.

This isn't just a "spa day." It's the kind of place where time slows down and everyone suddenly goes quiet because the view honestly doesn't even look real.

You drift between:

- geothermal pools overlooking the ocean
- cold mist and sauna rituals inspired by Icelandic tradition
- cozy moments with a drink in hand while sea air and warm water somehow make your entire body relax at once

And if you're lucky? You may even catch the northern lights dancing above the lagoon.

It's peaceful, dramatic, luxurious, and completely unforgettable — the perfect mix of Iceland's wild beauty and pure relaxation.

DAY 2 JUNE 25:

GET PICKED UP FROM OUR HOTEL AND HEAD TOWARDS THE SOUTH COAST

SELJALANDSFOSS

one of Iceland's most famous waterfalls, known for the unique path that lets visitors walk behind the cascading water. Fed by meltwater from the Eyjafjallajökull glacier, the falls drop about 60 meters (197 feet) into a lush green landscape along Iceland's southern coast.

GULFOSS WATERFALL

a powerful two-tiered waterfall on Iceland's Golden Circle route, where glacial water from the Hvítá River plunges into a rugged canyon. Known for its dramatic views and misty rainbows, it's one of Iceland's most iconic natural attractions

REYNISFJARA

Iceland's famous black sand beach, known for its dramatic basalt columns, crashing Atlantic waves, and towering sea stacks rising from the ocean. Its volcanic landscape creates one of the country's most striking coastal views.

DYRHOLAEY

a scenic coastal promontory in southern Iceland known for its massive rock arch, sweeping ocean views, and dramatic cliffs. It's a popular spot for puffin watching in summer and offers panoramic views of black sand beaches and rugged coastline
